WAS A LANDSLIDE

ROOSEVELT AND FAIRBANKS ELECTED BY LARGE VOTE.

Will Have Electoral Vote of 434 Against 133 for Parker—Oregon Gives 40,000 Majority.

Monday's election resulted in a landslide for Roosevelt, who will have 343 votes in the electoral college as against 133 for Parker. This immense vote is without precedent in the history of the United States. Not only is Roosevelt's vote in excess of McKinley's vote, 292 in 1900, but Judge Parker's vote is four less than that given Bryan four years ago. Roosevelt carried every doubtful state, New York giving him a majority of 185,000 which is second only to McKinley's 268,000 in 1896. Parker's vote in New York state was 16,000 short of that of Bryan's.

Tuesday night President Roosevelt, after the election returns clearly indicated the result, issued the following statement:

"I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the fourth of March, next, I shall have served three and one-half years, and this three and one-half years constitutes my first term.

"The wise custom which limits the President to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination."

Oregon did its part toward achieving the phenomenal result. Roosevelt carried the state by a majority closely approximating 40,000 or 10,000 more than the most sanguine had predicted. Practically a full vote was polled in the towns, but there was a falling off in the country precincts, this being especially true in the Democratic precincts in which the Democrats failed to turn out and vote for their candidate. Take Molalla for instance. This precinct has a normal Democratic majority of 60 to 70 votes, but Roosevelt carried the precinct Tuesday by a vote of 63 to 32. Complete returns from the county will increase Roosevelt's majority to 2000.

Prohibition proposed under the guise of Local Option, received such a thorough drubbing that it will probably not be revived for some time to come.

Prohibition elections were held in 26 counties, in three of which the question was at issue only in certain precincts. The issue in the 23 others was prohibition for the entire county. The elections were held as follows:

For County Prohibition—Benton, Clackamas, Columbia, Coos, Curry, Douglas, Gilliam, Grant, Jackson, Lane, Linn, Lincoln, Malheur, Marion, Morrow, Multnomah, Sherman, Tillamook, Umatilla, Union, Wasco, Washington, Yamhill—23.

For Precinct Prohibition only—Clatsop, one precinct; Wallowa, one precinct; Wheeler, five precincts—3.

No election—Baker, Crook, Harney, Josephine, Klamath, Lake, Polk—7.

Elections were held in compliance with precinct petitions as follows: Columbia, one precinct; Grant, three precincts; Jackson, two precincts; Lane, nine precincts; Marion, five precincts; Wasco, five precincts; Washington, two precincts; Multnomah, 15 precincts; Lincoln, one precinct.

Benton, Coos, Curry, Gilliam and Tillamook counties gave majorities for Prohibition while the result in Jackson, Linn, Yamhill and Wheeler counties is close.

WILL BE ALLOWED MORE SPACE.

Clackamas County Executive Committee Asks For More Room.

The members of the Executive Committee of the Clackamas County Lewis & Clark Fair enterprise, visited the officers of the Exposition at Portland Monday for the purpose of securing additional floor space aggregating 5000 square feet for the exhibiting of Clackamas county exhibit at the 1905 Fair.

While all of the increased space that was requested was not granted positively, the committee was assured that its original reservation of 25x40 feet will be materially added to.

At the request of the Fair managers, the committee will submit in writing an application for the 5000 square feet of space together with a detailed statement of the proposed use to which the space will be placed. With this data in their possession, the officers of the Lewis & Clark Fair assured the Clackamas county visitors that their request will receive due consideration.

Before adjourning last Friday evening, the Clackamas county court appropriated $1000 towards the Lewis

COURT IN SESSION

JUDGE McBRIDE HAS LARGE DOCKET TO DISPOSE OF.

Of 176 Cases, 69 are Divorce Suits—Lester Lewis is Charged With Grand Larceny.

Monday morning Judge McBride convened the November term of the Clackamas county circuit court. The docket is one of the largest ever presented at any one term of the court. It consists of 176 cases of which 69 are divorce suits.

Two informations, each charging Lester Lewis with the crime of grand larceny, have been returned by District Attorney Allen. Lewis is the youthful ex-convict who recently stole a horse and buggy from a farmer residing near Sherwood. Among the other criminal cases to be heard at this term are two assault and battery cases on appeal from the justice court and as follows: State vs. R. Tucker, and State vs. Frank McLaren. Other criminal cases to be examined into by the district attorney are those of George Lauth, held for the murder of Leonore B. Jones in this city, and that of S. Martine, who was held to the circuit court on the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon on a lad in a hop yard near Aurora.

A decree of divorce was granted Monday in the case of Wm. H. Keyser vs. Lidle G. Keyser and the following cases were dismissed without prejudice: David T. Brush vs. Helen A. Brush; W. L. Elyart vs. Saphie Elyart. A new suit for divorce was filed Monday. Percy D. Lowell is the plaintiff and Leonore J. Lowell is the defendant. The parties were married at Saginaw, Michigan in September, 1900 and desertion by the defendant in the following September is alleged.

After calling the docket and setting a number of cases for trial, Judge McBride dismissed the members of the jury until Thursday morning. Next Monday has been named by the court as the time for hearing the argument on the demurrer to the complaint in the injunction suit that has been brought against the city council, by the citizens in the name of Mrs. S. A. Chase to prevent the passage of an ordinance granting to the railroad company a perpetual right to Railroad Avenue in this city.

MAY SECURE CITY DELIVERY

Slight Increase in Post Office Receipts Means Free Mail Delivery

With a view of securing a free delivery mail service for this city, the business men of Oregon City are arousing interest in the way of increasing the patronage of the local post office. The annual receipts of an office must equal $10,000.00 to secure a free delivery. For the year ending July 1, last, the receipts of the Oregon City office amounted to $8,700.00. In his estimates of the receipts of the office for the year ending July 1, next, the auditor of the postoffice department has placed the receipts at $9,100, but Postmaster Randall says the estimate will be greatly exceeded, closely approximating $9,500.

An extra effort will be made by the citizens of this city to increase to the required amount of $10,000.00 the receipts of the local post office. It will mean the employment of two additional carriers.

COUNCIL FILES A DEMURRER

Injunction Suit Will be Argued in the Circuit Court Monday

City Attorney Geo. L. Story, W. D. Fenton and R. A. Leiter, representing the Oregon City council in a legal capacity, have filed a demurrer to the complaint that was recently instituted by Mrs. Sarah A. Chase, an Oregon City property owner, enjoining the council from passing an ordinance giving the Southern Pacific company a perpetual franchise to Railroad avenue in this city.

The demurrer sets forth that the court in which the suit has been brought has no jurisdiction of the subject matter of the suit and contends that the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

The demurrer has been set for argument next Monday.
