TERSIBLY-TOLD TALES OF THE WEEK'S DOINGS.

Death at Redland.—Mrs. August Pank, aged 45 years, died last Friday night at her home at Redlands. The deceased came to Oregon from Wisconsin fourteen years ago. She is survived by a husband and seven children, three sons and four daughters.

Remembered Masonic Lodge.—Alexander Kaestlin, who died recently at Logan, left an estate valued at about $400. J. E. Hedges and George Armstrong were last week by the court appointed executors of the estate. In his will, decedent bequeathed $350 to Loma Pine Lodge A. F. & A. M., gave a tract of land to a neighbor named Walker, and left the balance of the estate to George Armstrong.

Taxes Should be Lowered.—The estimated expense of running the state of Oregon the next two years is $1,903,518, a decrease of $820,000 as compared with the last biennial term. But it is probable that the estimate will be exceeded by the Legislature, and that the appropriations will amount in round figures $1,000,000. This is a decrease of $600,000 in state taxes, and together with the fact that property values have been largely increased, should mean a substantial reduction in the rate of taxation.

For Firemen's Tournament.—The volunteer firemen of this city are planning to hold a firemen's tournament in this city next summer. At the banquet given last Thursday night to the members of Fountain Hose Company, a committee, consisting of five members, was appointed to determine the feasibility of holding such a tournament. The committee consists of Frank Magnuson, captain of the hose team that participated at the Astoria Tournament last summer; W. H. Howell, superintendent of the City Water Works; M. Justin, a member of the City Council; E. J. Noble and J. W. Cole.

Died of Cancer.—Thomas W. Swope, a native of Missouri and for twenty years a resident of Clackamas county, died of cancer of the stomach last Friday night at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Charles M. Oglesby, near this city. The deceased was aged 73 years and besides the daughter, Mrs. Oglesby, is survived by two sons, Rev. G. W. Swope, pastor of the First Baptist church at Nashville, Tennessee, and B. F. Swope, an attorney at Toledo, Lincoln county. Burial services were conducted at the residence of Mr. Oglesby at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rev. C. H. Peacock, of Portland officiating. Interment was held at Mountain View cemetery.

Are Now Mentally Sound.—Miss Sophia Hartley, the last of the victims of Creutzfeldt-Jakob disease arrived from Salem Saturday. The same symptoms of an insidious awakening from a long unpleaant dream are manifest in her case. She was brought home by Maud Hurt, who went to Salem for the purpose. The infamous apostle is now without a follower in this vicinity. If he got his just deserts, the rest of his life should be spent behind the walls that now separate him from society. That would prevent him from doing further harm in the world, which he is likely to do when he is released after serving out his two years' sentence in the penitentiary.—Corvallis Times.

Reward Rather Than Punishment.—Last Saturday afternoon, Peter Nehren, the ever-accommodating and obliging janitor at the court house, was arrested by Sheriff Shaver at the instance of the heads of the different departments at the county capital and brought before County Judge Ryan. An investigation of the unusual performance disclosed that Pete was up for reward rather than for criticism and punishment. In a brief speech, Judge Ryan presented Mr. Nehren with a handsome solid gold ring, the gift of the county officers in appreciation of the uniform courtesy at all times shown by Mr. Nehren in his stewardship of the court house. Mr. Nehren was much pleased with the gift and expressed his thanks.

Crazy over Religion.—Wesley M. Emmell, of Portland, became violently insane while enroute from Milwaukie to this city Monday afternoon. Leaving from his seat in the electric car, he struck a fellow passenger and created great excitement before being overpowered by the combined efforts of a number of the passengers. Upon reaching this city Emmell was turned over to the authorities who caused his commitment to the insane asylum to which he was taken Monday night. Emmell, who is 32 years of age, is a single man, residing at Portland. He had been visiting a brother at Milwaukie and it is supposed that in his demented condition, he boarded an Oregon City bound car rather than a Portland car. Emmell's insanity is the result of religious excitement.

Favor Open Locks.—There is nothing that will help the entire valley more than the purchase of the Oregon City Locks by the Government, is the feeling and opinion of Captain A. B. Graham, of the steamer Pomona. Captain Graham has been a steamboatman of the Willamette river for a number of years and is well able to discuss the matter from the standpoint of an economist. Captain Graham says that the purchase of the locks by the Government would reduce the freight rates from the upper to the lower river at least fifty cents and passengers by boat would 10 cents on each passage. He says that every person living in the valley is interested in the matter and that it is worthy their careful attention. There seems to be a move on foot looking to this sort of a deal, but it will require all the aid of every influence in the western part of the state to accomplish the matter.—Salem Statesman.

Got the Coon.—A good story is being told in the student circles on a certain four cadets who went coon hunting out near the headwaters of Oak Creek, last week. As the students were new at the business they were accompanied by some woodchoppers who acted as guides and owned the coon dog. It was late in the afternoon when they started out, and it was not long until the dog struck the familiar scent of a fine, big coon. The brave hunters only possessed a couple of lanterns, and the woodchoppers took possession of these and lit out after the dog, who was letting out a yelp at every jump, but on the coon's trail. The "tenderloin" were left to follow the light, but as the excitement of the chase increased, they were soon forgotten, every fellow being supposed to look out for himself, and it was not noticed when the unlucky students were lost in the jungle. But after the weary coon was treed and killed, it was noticed that the "college fellows" were not in it, and a couple of woodmen started out on a student hunt, and the lost boys were not located until 2 a. m., when they were found hopelessly lost and delivered back to the college. The would-be sportsmen think they have enough coon hunting for this season.—Corvallis Gazette.

Nasal Catarrh quickly yields to treatment by Ely's Cream Balm, which is agreeably aromatic. It is received through the nostrils, cleanses and heals the whole surface over which it diffuses itself. Druggists sell the 50c. size; Trial size by mail, 10 cents. Test it and you are sure to continue the treatment.
Announcement. To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Cream Balm in liquid form, which will be known as Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. You can hardly find a home without its Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Parents know what it does for children: breaks up a cold in a single night, wards off bronchitis, prevents pneumonia. Physicians advise parents to keep it on hand.
The best cough medicine money can buy is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For the coughs of children nothing could so safely be better.

Things We Like Best. Often Disagree With Us. Because we overeat of them. Indigestion follows. But there's a way to escape such consequences. A dose of a good digestant like Kodol will relieve you at once. Your stomach is simply too weak to digest what you eat. That's all indigestion is. Kodol digests the food without the stomach's aid. Thus the stomach rests while the body is strengthened by wholesome food. Disting is unnecessary. Kodol digests any kind of good food. Strengthens and invigorates. Kodol Makes Rich Red Blood. Prepared only by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The 51 bottle contains 5 1/2 times the 10c. size.
