SOCIAL EVENTS.

Miss Margaret McLeod left Tuesday night for Seattle, where on the 23rd inst she will be married to a prominent young man of that city.

The members of the Bethel Musical and Literary Club and their invited friends were delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Dresser last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Druby will resume their dancing class at Willamette Hall Monday evening, January 23. Beginners class will be held from 7 until 8:30 o'clock and adults from 8:30 until 11 o'clock.

Wednesday evening the Knights and Ladies of Security gave a dancing party at Willamette Hall that was largely attended. The prize waltz was won by George Woodward and Miss Stevenson.

The members of the U. T. W. A., assisted by Farmer Perkins, and an orchestra of three pieces from Pumpkintown, gave a regular old-fashioned country dance at Willamette Hall Tuesday night. There was a good attendance at the party which was thoroughly enjoyed by the proceeds of the entertainment going to the relief of striking craftsmen in the East.

Judge and Mrs. T. E. Ryan entertained the members of the Dickens Club and invited friends Wednesday evening. Mrs. Fred Miller and Dr. E. A. Bommer were given first prizes in the game of 500 while the winner of a guessing contest was determined by drawing lots and in the confusion incident thereto, the name of the real winner was not learned. Refreshments were served.

The marriage of Miss Samantha Hurlbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hurlbert, to Mr. Clarence Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Simmons, was performed at the home of the bride's parents in this city at 1 p. m. Sunday, January 15, Rev. E. S. Bollinger, officiating. Both of these young people are well known in Oregon City where they have a host of friends who wish them much happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Simmons will reside at Gladstone.

Two hundred persons participated in the monthly supper given by the Men's Club of the First Congregational church at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Wednesday evening, Franklin T. Griffith presided as toastmaster, among those responding being: A. S. Dresser, Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, H. W. Stone, secretary of the Portland Y. M. C. A.; and Rev. E. S. Bollinger. Mr. Dresser toasted "The Ladies" and Mrs. Dye suggested the need and value to Oregon City of having a public library. The principal address of the evening was given by Mr. Henry J. McCoy secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of San Francisco.

Under the auspices of the W. O. W. and the direction of Clara Louise Thompson, the Huskies' Bee, a rural farce musical-comedy was presented at Shively's opera house Tuesday night before an audience that filled the structure to the limit of even its standing room. More than fifty amateurs, all local talent participated in the production which was quite creditable, considering the short time in which the performers had to acquaint themselves with their parts and the proper staging of the performance. Because of the large number taking part individual mention will have to be omitted but those participating in the farce were Wm. Wright, Mrs. Frances Freeman, Osa Renner, Mabel Tower, Allen Adams, James Vaughan, Mrs. Ralph Miller, Dollie Pratt, Julia May, Lee Caulfield, George Hankins, Charles Putnam, Marion Bell, Ralph Miller and Ed Taylor. The specialties were exceedingly good and were creditably given by the amateurs. This part of the entertainment was introduced by a recitation by Little Miss Eva Calif, songs by E. E. Taylor, Wm. Wright and Miss Ruth Calif. The "Hay Rube Dance" by Allen Adams, Roy Gray, Earl Latourette and Rhea Cole, properly costumed, elicited a hearty encore to which the "Rubes" responded in more abbreviated costumes. Len Confer was given his usual cordial reception and sang as well as ever, not being excused by his delighted auditors until he had contributed a second number, Wava Harrington, Amy Thomas, Bessie Sleight and Bessie McMillan constituted a peppy quartette of Dutch maidens in wadded shoes and cleverly executed a dance. The Macaboe quartette made a great hit in their initial number "Down on the Farm," which they sang perhaps better than it was ever sung before in this city. As usual they were obliged to respond to an encore. Hazel Farr, Gilbert Morris, Belle Cassell, and Vernon Welsh sang "Has Your Mother any More Like You?" and as an encore offered, "Sweet Mollie Shannon." After the song "Pinky-Panky Poo," by Mrs. Francis Betzel, in costume, the drill team of the local Women of Woodcraft lodge did some pretty marching which preceded the much-talked about plantation walk around for which the audience had been eagerly waiting. In the role of leader, Rhea Cole, "brack as any nigger," and attired in a dress suit with a white cypressium as large as an Oregon Pumpkin for a buttonhole, was a big success. In fact he ranked in the professional class. Three couples participated in the walk around as follows: Mr. Frank Newton, and Miss Chase; Mr. Joe Goodfellow and Miss Warner; Mr. Earl Latourette and Miss Jackson. The winning couple was determined by the applause of the audience and the award was properly made to Mr. Latourette and Miss Jackson, who were enthusiastically applauded by their many friends and particularly by a host of their school mates. One of the best evening's specialties was the drill by the Twentieth Century Bolles and their chaplains, those taking part being: Bertha Koerner, Edna Park, Gertrude Mamilton, Vera Phillips, as the Belles; Anna Aldredge, Bedonia Shaw, Ethel Park and Olga McClure. Sousa Girl was faithfully impersonated by Miss Osa Renner, who made a hit in her nobby costume and with pleasing voice in a selection, the company uniting in the chorus. This feature concluded the evening's entertainment.

SAVED MY LIFE

That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don't use or refer to testimonials in addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of occasional note. From infancy to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying improper and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does it does through nourishment—the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food. No system is too weak or delicate to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

We will send you a sample free. Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy. SCOTT & BOWNE Chemists 409 Pearl St., N. Y. 50c. and $1; all druggists.

Drying preparations simply developed catch, they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size, Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

It is much easier for a woman to confide in the average man than in the average woman. She knows that the man will respect her confidence and keep them to himself. He is strong, has more experience of the world and can help the woman who needs advice. There is every reason why women should not trust their delicate constitutions in the hands of unskilled persons. It requires a thorough medical education to appreciate and understand the womanly organism. When a woman has ill and pains that she cannot bear—when life seems dark for every woman, she should confide her troubles to a physician of standing in the community, or one who has a national reputation. Certainly it would not be the part of wisdom to confide in an ignorant person without medical education simply because she was a woman. There is every reason why she should write to some great specialist, one who has made the diseases of women a specialty for a third of a century, like Dr. E. V. Pierce, founder of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. All his correspondence is held sacredly confidential, and he gives his advice free and without charge. So uniformly successful has Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription proven in all forms of Female Weakness, Protrusion, or Falling of Womb, and Leucorrhoea, that, after curing the worst cases of these distressing and debilitating ailments, Dr. Pierce now feels fully warranted in offering to pay $100 in cash for any case of these diseases which he cannot cure. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.

Try for Health

222 South Peoria St. CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 7, 1902.

Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie or sit down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui. I told her I had not and she bought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.

It Saved His Life After the Doctor Said He Had Consumption.
W. R. Davis, Vissalia, California, writes:—"There is no doubt but what FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR saved my life. I had an awful cough on my lungs and the doctor told me I had consumption. I commenced taking FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR and found relief from the first and three bottles cured me completely."
