INTERESTING IRRIGATION EXHIBIT.

Working Models at Lewis & Clark Fair Will Show What Has Been Done to Redeem Arid Western Lands.

Portland, Feb. 2.—Because of the large amount of land in the Pacific Northwest which has been thoroughly reclaimed by irrigation, and the larger amount which is at present worthless on account of the lack of water supply, the irrigation exhibit at the Lewis & Clark Exposition will prove unusually instructive...

The exhibit will consist largely of working models of irrigation projects, the largest being patterned after the $3,990,000 plant now being built in southern Arizona. The models will show the manner of storing the water by reservoirs, the method of carrying it into the lowlands by means of canals and flumes, and its final distribution to the lands to be irrigated.

In addition to these displays, there will be a practical illustration of irrigation methods on the grounds back of the Government Building, on the Peninsula in Guild's Lake, where there will be a small farm with crops growing on land actually irrigated.

Only one remedy in the world that will at once stop itching of the skin in any part of the body; Doan's Ointment. At any drug store, 50 cents.

COUNCIL HELPS TOURNAMENT.

Many Matters of Importance Considered at Regular Meeting.

Two hundred dollars were appropriated by the City Council Wednesday night to aid in defraying the expenses of the combined Firemen's Tournament and Fourth of July celebration that it is proposed to hold in this city July 3-5, inclusive.

Councilmen Knapp, Chapman and Sheehan were appointed a committee to confer with the Portland General Electric Company with a view to re-arranging the present street lighting system of the city to the end that the partial incandescent service be substituted with additional arc lights without materially adding to the cost of the light service.

A remonstrance having been filed against the proposed improvement of Fourth street between High street and Monroe street, the subject was referred to the committee on streets and public property.

In response to the petition for the improvement of Moss and Eleventh streets between Blocks 9 and 10, the City Engineer was ordered to establish the grade of the street for the improvements which are considered impracticable.

In order to pave the way for securing the free delivery of mail service that Postmaster Randall will ask the post office department at Washington to install at Oregon City in July, the Council Committee on Health and Police was instructed to prepare an ordinance providing for the proper naming of all streets of the city and the correct numbering of all residences in accordance with a numbering system heretofore adopted.

City Attorney Griffith was requested to draft an ordinance conferring on the Council the right to condemn all wooden sidewalks on Main street, between Eleventh and the Basin, and order their replacement with walks of concrete construction.

Mayor Sommer announced the standing committees of the Council for the ensuing year as follows: Finance—Koerner, Knapp, Sheehan; Streets and Public Property—Sheehan, Straight and Williams; Health and Police—Knapp, Williams and Brandt; Fire and Water—Straight, Mason, Koerner; Cemetery—Mason, Chapman, Justin.

A four-foot sidewalk was ordered constructed on Madison street, between Twelfth and Fourteenth streets. An ordinance granting to W. H. Bonney a 25-years' franchise for the construction and operation of a telephone line on the streets of Oregon City, was referred to the committee on Streets and Public Property for amendment.

A proposition from the Courier Publishing Company to perform the city printing was referred to the committee on finance. The establishing of a signal at the local telephone office to aid the night police officers in locating police calls from the residence districts after night, was ordered made by the Council.

Confirmation by Mayor Sommer of Frank M. Brown as night police officer and E. T. Fields as special police officer, the latter to serve without pay. Ten days were granted delinquent property owners to make required sewer connections, otherwise the tenants of the property involved will be ejected.

The committee on Streets and Public Property were directed to take immediate steps for the repair of the Main street bridge at Eleventh street. The structure is reported to be in an unsafe condition. The adoption of a resolution placing with the Portland General Electric Company all liability for damages that may result from the collapsing of the Basin brought forth a statement from the electric company's representative, T. W. Sullivan, to the effect that the corporation was preparing plans for the construction of a concrete bulk-head or flood-gate to guard against the danger that was feared.

Card of Thanks. We desire to express to the many sympathetic friends and particularly the members of Wacheno Tribe, Improved Order of Rodmen, our sincere thanks for their kind services during the sickness and death of our husband and father.

A Card of Thanks. To the officers and brothers of the Ancient Order of United Workmen: I take this means of expressing to you my sincere thanks for your many acts of kindness during the last sickness of my son, for your cordial brotherly sympathy and assistance in bearing him to his final resting place and now, to our beloved order for the prompt payment of his beneficiary certificate.

The grand old A. O. U. W. is still the leader in the prompt payment of its death losses. It still furnishes the safest and best protection at cost and is good enough for me. My advice to all brothers who have thought of deserting the ship is "Better stay aboard."

An exhibit showing the method and extent of flax growing in Marion County, Oregon, will form part of that county's exhibit at the Lewis & Clark Centennial.

Public is Aroused. The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys.

Worms in Horses. Treatment for the destruction of intestinal parasites in horses depends upon the kind of worms present. Some intestinal worms are easily gotten rid of while others are very difficult to destroy.

For the common round worms a good plan of treatment is to give twice daily for three or four days a drachm composed of one ounce of turpentine or creolin mixed with three or four ounces of linseed oil.

For the removal of pin worms, injections into the rectum of an infusion of tobacco or quassa chips, one-half pound to a gallon of water, once or twice daily for a few days, followed by a physio of aloes, is usually a satisfactory treatment.

In case the treatment recommended above does not prove satisfactory the affected animal or animals should be examined and prescribed for by a competent veterinarian—W. B. Niles, in Wallace's Farmer.
