MORE LEGISLATIVE NEWS.

Probable That Both Houses Will Adjourn Sine Die Tonight. Automobiles and motor cycles are hereafter to be licensed and regulated by the state, if a bill of Representative Jagger passed by both houses, shall meet the Governor's approval, as there is every reason to believe it will. Speed is to be limited to eight miles an hour in municipalities and to 24 miles an hour on country roads. Every machine is to be licensed, the fee for which is to be $3, and to display a number in large numerals. It must be equipped with lamps, and if run by gasoline must use mufflers in municipalities. On country roads machines must be slowed down when approaching any vehicle drawn by a horse and if signalled by the driver of the vehicle to stop must do so. In all cases auto drivers must exercise every reasonable precaution to prevent frightening horses. Violations of the act are to be punished by a fine of not more than $25 for the first offense, $50 for the second and $100 for the third.

A bill by Representative Kay and providing for the monthly payment of all employees of the state has passed both houses.

Hereafter insane patients will be transported to the asylum at Salem under the escort of employes sent from Salem to the place from which the person is committed. The bill passed the Senate Wednesday by a vote of 23 yeas and 5 nays.

The good roads movement received a lift from the Oregon Legislature Wednesday by the passage of Senator Miller's bill to appropriate $500 for the payment of the expenses of annual good roads conventions. When the bill came up in the House, Smith of Josephine opposed it on the ground that it is bad policy for the state to begin making appropriations of this kind. Jagger of Clackamas also opposed it on the ground that no good will be accomplished by it. "We have the best roads in the state in Clackamas County," said Jagger, "and we have never had a good roads convention. Hot air will not build good roads."

Wife-beaters are to receive punishment up to 20 lashes, for Sichel's bill to flog such offenders passed the House Wednesday night by a vote of 37 to 15, 8 being absent. Only two Senators had voted against the bill, but in the House, Smith of Josephine voiced the opposition, calling the measure a relic of the Dark Ages, which would disgrace the family of every man so punished. Courts were given too much power, he thought, as a poor man would feel the whip, while a richer man would escape with a fine.

Illinois day will be a big day at the Lewis & Clark Exposition, Governor Deenee and staff will attend the fair during the last week in June and elaborate ceremonies will be observed in the Illinois headquarters.

Clark County, Washington, which was named after Captain William Clark, who shared with Meriwether Lewis the honor of command on the Lewis & Clark Expedition a century ago, will have a comprehensive exhibit at the Lewis & Clark Centennial.
