New To-Day.

MONEY TO LOAN AT 6 AND 7 per cent. Farm security. U'Ren & Schubel.

MORTGAGE LOANS NEGOTIATED .at lowest rates, Latourette's office Commercial Bank Building, Oregon

FOR SALE-For $800, a good house, partly furnished, and six lots. Address P. O. Box 331, Oregon City, Oregon.

Local Events.

Event of the season-Plantation Min-

Olive Friedrick and Otto Meindl were granted a marriage license Saturday.

New Clothing at wholesale-one-third saved. Hamilton-Red Front.

Chambers Howell and E. M. Howell were at Toledo, Lincoln county, the first of the week.

A marriage license was granted Monday evening in favor of Kate Schlittenhart and Clark Smith.

Latest Songs, local jokes.-Plantation

A. C. and Nancy Beauliau have adopted Violet Rose Kosa, the 27 months old daughter of Rose Stine.

The Saturday Club of the First Congregational church gave a social at the residence of J. M. Mark Tuesday evening.

Wanted, a girl for general house work Apply R. L. Holman, Sixth street, between Center and Washington streets. Frederick E. Romas, a subject of the intention of becoming a citizen of the United States. MORTGAGE LOANS NEGOTAITED at lowest rates, Latourette's office, Commercial Bank Building, Oregon City. H. J. Johnson, of Portland, and S. E.

Cartwright were married by County Judge Ryan at the court house at 5:30 o'clock Monday evening.

St. Paul's Guild will give a social at W. O. W. Hall on Monday evening, March 6th. Their friends and the public most cordially invited.

Miss Veda Williams of this city, has accepted a place as local teacher on the American-Italian Harp with The Italian Music Company, of Portland. Oregon.

Local talent blackened up .- Planta-

Joseph Bresch has been appointed as guardian of the person and estate of Maria Bresch, a minor who is posses of an estate in Germany of the estimated value of $200.

Salt going higher-50 pounds fine salt, 35c; Timothy 5½c; best seeds 7 packages 25c; Gold Dust bulk, 5c pound; Rice 4c; $1.05, $1.10, up. Hamilton-Red Front Store. March 3.

Wear Better Shoes-

Boys' best heavy shoes 12 to 2 @ $1.40 and $1.47; sizes 3 to 51/2, $1.58 and $1.72; Child's 75c, $1. and $1.25 Shoes for 57c, March 3.

Frank J. Fengee, of Portland, has platted town is but a short distance from being tragic.

The Germans of Oregon City gave a dance at Knapp's Hall Saturday night that was largely attended. The pleasures of the occasion were prolonged until a very late hour.

House. Monday night. February 27.

Circuit Judge McBride was in the city ast Thursday prepared to transact such business as might be presented in the circuit court but not an attorney had o much as a motion to offer.

Charman's Velvet Cream will cure chapped hands and is a soothing face cream. Bloves can be worn immediately after applying. Large bottle 25 cents.

The work of Elmer Dixon, of this city, who served as poultry judge in recent o'clock Thursday morning and burial shows held at Portland and Tacoma, has followed at Mountain View cemetery. highly complimented for its partial features by a number of the Libbie E. Bard and J. A. Lincoln. both of Springwater, were married at noon last Thursday at the parlors of the Electric Hotel, Rev. E. D. Allen, an Evangelist from Springwater, officiating.

Underwood & Miller, successors to Trimble & Sons in the blacksmith business have leased ground on the property on Fourth street oposite the Elkhorn stables, where it is understood they will build a structure suitable to their needs.

See Plantation Minstrels at Shively's ext Monday evening.

Needed improvements are being made the bridge on North Main street. This structure has become in an unsafe condition and its repairing at this time will surely save the city lawsuits that would certainly have resulted in a longer

'May as well be dead as out of fashion.' Now is the time to have your photograph made. Miss Wisner is having a "Clearance Sale" and for one month will offer everything at a reduction. Call and see prices and work. Her studio is on Main street, near Seventh.

Mary E. Gill, who died Monday night at her home near Logan, was buried at the Logan cemetery Wednesday after funeral services had been conducted over the remains by the Grange at the Emperor of Germany, has declared his Logan church.

> Mrs. L. Phelps, aged 67 years of Viola was taken to the asylum at Salem Saturday afternoon by Sheriff Shaver, having been committed for treatment at an examination before Judge Ryan. Mrs. Phelp's impaired mental condition has resulted from her advanced age.

The following articles were left in the ladies' cloak room at the Armory at the dance Wednesday evening: One lady's hat, two umbrellas, a fur boa, and one pair gloves. Owners can have same by calling on E. J. Noble and identifying Unprecedented sale of tickets to Plantation Minstrels.

On petition of the widow, Caroline Bruns, and Edward F. Bruns, the estate of the late Herman Bruns, who died December 16th last, has been admitted to probate. The estimated value of the estate is $4000. The heirs are: E. F. Bruns, Sandy; Minnie Nylander. Powell's Valley; Herman Bruns, Sandy; and Caroline Bruns, Sandy,

At St. Paul's Episcopal church, rector the Rev. P. K. Hammond. Holy Communion at 8 a. m.; Sunday school at 10. Morning prayer and sermon at 10. Morning Prayer and Sermon "This World, Christ's World" at 11. Evening Sermon on "Past and Present" at 5 o'clock. Miss Maysie Foster will sing a solo at this service.

The story in the Argonaut of Februtrated number, is by Bert M. Bower, "A Veneered Savage" is the title of it, and it details the troubles that came to an Eastern girl through becoming too filed with County Recorder Stevens a friendly with a Western Indian. It is plat of the town of Wichita. The newly an amusing story, and comes very near > Plantation Minstrels, Shively's Opera House. Monday night, February 27.

Teressa Greil, aged about 14 years died of congestion of the lungs at the home of her mother at Green Point Tuesday morning. The deceased was a Plantation Minstrels, Shively's Opera student at St. John's Parochial High Funeral services were conducted yester-day at St. John's Catholic Church, Rev Hildebrand, officiating. Burial was had at Mountain View cemetery.

Grace E., wife of John Lamure, aged 5 years, died of tuberculosis at her home in this city Tuesday. The deceased, who is survived by a husband, has been a resident of Oregon City only a year. coming to this state from Wisconsin Funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. S. Bollinger at the late home at 10:30

Hedges & Griffith, attorneys for the defendant, have filed a demurrer to the omplaint in the ejectment suit recently brought by E. W. Hornshuh and against Mrs. Mary Horn. It is complained that the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action The controversy is over the possession of valuable residence property in this city.

Sam Stainaker was arrested at Canby Wednesday on the charge of attempted criminal assault on the person of the 11 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cobert, who reside near Canby. The alleged assault was committed near Canby early Tuesday evening. Stalnaker is being given a preliminary eaxmination on the charge before Justice of the Peace Wm. Knight at Canby today. This is the same fellow that was arrested on a similar charge last Fall and at the trial of the case was discharged because largely of the confusion of the witnesses to the alleged assault, two mere children, when they testified in court.

Wm. Van Wey, through his attorneys G. C. Brownell and Livy Stipp, has filed suit for divorce from Alice G. Van Wey whom he married in Illinois in 1887. The plaintiff complains that from 1895 to 1900 the defendant was constantly finding fault and expressing displeasure with her surroundings. So incessant was her complaint that the husband decided to and did take the defendant to Oklahoma in hopes that a change of climate and accompanying alteration of scenery might effect a change in her disposition but he complains that he was unsuccessful after a three years' trial. In 1893, he made up his mind to return to Oregon and requested his wife to accompany him but she refused to longer associate with him. On these grounds the abused husband asks to be divorced.

See Plantation Minstrels at Shively's next Monday evening.

There was a general observance Washington's birthday at Oregon City. The banks and the post office observed the day as a legal holiday and the schools were dismissed for the day. In the evening the members of Columbia Hook & Ladder Company gave their annual dancing party at the Armory, Parson's orchestra furnishing the music. There was a large attendance and the event proved one of the most successful ever managed by the members of this department of the city's fire department. the evening the ladies of the First Baptist church also observed the anniversary by giving a Colonial Banquet at the Sunday school rooms. Two hundred covers were laid, the feast being preceded by some excellent addresses the principal speaker being Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher, of the Baptist church, Portland.

Personal Mention

Adam Knight, of Canby, was in city Tuesday.

F. P. Hurst, of Aurora. was in the city last week.

Mrs. Mary Heller has returned from visit at Seattle.

Amel Tucholke, of Milwaukie, was in the city Monday Albert Russell, of Barlow, is in the city on business. Miss G. Aimee Bollack is visiting with relatives at Eugene.

H. A. Rands is performing a surveying contract at Lents.

Miss Farnell, of Salem, was the guest of Miss Bashor Sunday. Miss Myrtle Shonkwiler spent Sunday with friends at Corvallis. V. E. Spence, of Carus, was in the

Mrs. Chas. Albright is recovering from severe attack of la grippe. Miss Veva Tull, of Barlow, has been visiting friends at Oregon City.

Wm. Doores, a farmer from Marquam, was in the city last Thursday.

F. S. L. Bagby, a sawmill man from Needy, was in the city Monday, Miss Verstig, of Portland, was the guest Sunday of Mrs. G. A. Heinz. E. J. Daulton is slowly recovering rom a severe attack of la grippe.

B. B. Colbath, ex-sheriff of Marion county, was in the city Thursday. G. A. Heinz has returned from a trip to his homestead in Lincoln county.

H. A. Webster, deputy fish warden, was in Oregon City a few days ago. E. W. Millien, of Everett, Washing on, is visiting Oregon City friends.

Miss Eva Smith has returned to Salem after a visit with Mrs. George Hoeve. Miss Minnie McKean, of Corvallis, is visiting at the home of C. D. Latourette.

Hon. G. B. Dimick returned Sunday om a business trip to Cottage Grove. Elmer Veteto, of the New Era Telephone Company, was in the city Satur- taken. The operation was not success-

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Engle, of Molalla Oregon City visitors one day last

Jack Howard, of Canby, had business at the County Recorder's office

G. W. Myers and Fred Shafer, farmers from near Molalla, were in the city last Thursday.

J. A. Shibley, a prominent Republican I came along."

Attorney Frank T. Griffith had busi ess in Pacific county, Washington, the first of the week. Wm. Godfrey, a former resident of this is visiting in the city.

C. W. Hardy, of Wilhoit, was in the city Saturday on his way to Waitsburg, Mrs. Mary S. Howard, state secretary of the Grange, was in the City Tuesday rom her home at Mulino.

Judge Wm. Galloway, of McMinnville, was in the city last Saturday looking after his business interests. Mrs. Mary Redner, of Oakland, Call-fornia, is visiting at the home of her on, Frank Redner, in this city. Miss Lillian Metschan, of Portland, and Miss Payne, of Eugene, visited in Oregon City last Thursday afternoon. Miss Josephine Creelman, a teacher in the Oregon City public schools, visited over Sunday with friends at Vancouver Mrs. L. D. Horn, who has been visitng Oregon City relatives the past week has returned to her home at Portland.

Will H. Fouts, an attorney at Dayton, Washington, spent Sunday at the home of his aunt, Mrs. T. W. Fouts, in this city.

R. W. Lewis and Clyde Engle, of Molalla; S. O. Gribble and J. W. Smith, were among the visitors to Oregon City Saturday.

H. V. Miller, a student in the office of Edward and O. R. Mendenhall, the Portland lawyers, was in the city Monday on legal business.

Claud T. Howard, secretary of the Socialist party for Clackamas county. was in the city Saturday from his home

Mrs. Nettle Little, who was called to Oregon City by the serious illness of Dahl, has returned to her home at Eugene.

Misses Jessie Bibee and Helen Bollinger, students at Pacific University. Forest Grove, are visiting with relatives in this city.

S. A. D. Hungate, of Molalia; Robert L. Ringo, of Clarkes and Mr. Smith, of Eagle Creek, were callers at the court house last Friday.

Hon. G. W. Holcomb, representative in the State Legislature from Multnomah county, was attending to business in this city Saturday.

Misses Dolly Pratt, Ethe Graves. Mabel Tower and Mamie Long have returned from a visit at Salem, the guests of Miss Pratt's cousin, Mrs. G. C. Bacon has been spending several days at Aurora where she was successful in arranging for an Assembly of Artisans that will be instituted in the near future.

State Senator E. M. Rands, of Vancouver, Washington, visited with Oregon City relatives Sunday, returning to Washington state legislature Olympia Monday.

Misses G. Aimee Bollack, Eva Moulton. Ethel Caufield and Adelle Quinn have returned from Salem where they served in clerical capicities during the recent legislative session. Senator Brownell, Representatives Huntley, Jagger and Bramhall, accompanied by W. W. Smith, J. U. Campbell and J. W. McAnulty have returned from the legislative halls at Salem. Will Califf, a student at Pacific University, is spending a few days with relatives at Oregon City. Since going to Forest Grove, Mr. Califf has develthe university's basket ball team Drs. Beatle & Beatle, Dentists, Roc 16, 17 18, Weinhard Building.

ed into one of the best memb

MEINDL-FRIEDRICH.

Married, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Friedrich, at New Era, on Sunday, February 19, by Justice of Peace William Knight, of Canby, Miss Olive Friedrich and Mr. Otto E. Meindl.

At high noon the couple entered the parlor by the strains of the wedding Ethel Graves, Mabel Powers and Mayme march played by Mrs. Fred J. Meindl, and took their places under a pretty wedding bell, where they were met by Mr. Knight, who in a few words pronounced them husband and wife.

After congratulations, the guests parook of a bountiful dinner. The rooms were artistically decorated in white and green.

Mr. and Mrs. Meindl will reside farm at Liberal.

The following guests were present:

Mr. and Mrs. B. Friedrich, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Meindl, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Meindl, Mr. and Mrs. Alois Friedrich, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Friedrich, Mrs. Ursula Friedrich, Miss Olive Grieshaber Misses Katle, Anna and Verda Meindl, Misses Katle and Selma Friedrich, Mr. Wm. Knight, Mr. John Rienerman Messrs. Wm. and Herman Grieshaber Messrs. Frank, Albert and Eugene Meindl, Messrs. Frank, Grover and Lazelle Meindl.

"Burn This Letter." There's another good lesson Twere well that you learned. When you've written a letter That you wish to have burned, Save trouble, and future Regretting prevent By making it ashes Before it is sent.

His Last Words. "Have you any message to leave?" there any last word you wish to give to the world?" "Yes," replied the dying man. "Please say for me that the doctors were mis-

How Aunty Knew. Ex-Congressman Lafe Pence tells a story of an old lady who always knew everything before anybody else. One day her niece saw her passing the house, and Foster and Mr. C. A. Miller and an inran out to meet her. "Do come in aunty," she begged, "and help us. We are mak- J. E. Hedges, High Priest of the Oregon ing charades." "Certainly I will," answered the old lady. "I knew you were making them because I smelled them as

Don't Get Switched Off

When you start to have that prescription filled don't stop short of Huntley's Drug Store. Huntley's high class prescription work; Huntley's fresh, pure chemicals; Huntley's prompt service with four registered pharmacists, all combine to make it well worth a few extra steps, a little additional time, to come to Huntley's for prescription work and for all drug store

Huntley pays no commission to doctors. At Huntley's you pay for your medicine—just that and nothing more.

Huntley Brothers Co.

PROGRESSIVE DRUGGISTS

Oregon City

Oregon

HAM, LARD AND BACON FOR CASH

elvered to all parts of City. Phone calls Promptly Attended

& RAMSBY, ELY, ORE CAIN

SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. T. W. Clark entertained the Avon Club at her home Tuesday afternoon.

At the home of Miss Pope last Friday night the members of the Shakespeare Club held a very enjoyable session, the evening's program consisting of dialogues in costumes from "Macbeth," which the Club has just concluded reading.

. . The marriage of Clark Smith to Miss Kate Schlittenhart, both of this city, was solemnized at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon in the office of the Justice of the Peace, Justice Stipp officiating at ceremony. The immediate friends of the groom were present. 0 0 0 evening, Justice of the Peace Stipp, officiating in the presence of a small

Oregon City.

A weeks-end house party is being given by Miss Mayme Babcock at her home 505 North Commercial street. Among her guests are the Misses Dolly Pratt, Long, of Oregon City. Last evening Miss Babcock gave a progressive whist party in honor of her guests. Refreshments were served and the evening closed with music and dancing.-Sunday's Salem Statesman.

0 0 Tualatin Hive No. 48, Ladies of the Maccabees gave a basket social at the Woodmen Hall, Saturday evening, February 18. The opening address was delivered by the lady commander and other numbers on the informal program were a song by Miss Wallace and the Misses Searles and a recitation by Miss Wattenpaugh. Shaw's orchestra played Wattenpaugh. Shaw's orchestra played a number of its best selections. The quilt raffle was conducted by Mr. Tate, the lucky number being held by Miss Sadle McGregor, of East Portland. The proceeds of the evening's entertainment were $28 and all seemed pleased with the program.

The final obstacle that has beset S. C. Coleman, of Scott's Mills, in his attempts to become a benedick was surmounted last Friday night when he wedded Sarah Ann Churchill, Justice of the Peace Stipp officiating at the ceremony which was performed in this city. Mr. Coleman is a young farmer residing near Scott's Mills, while the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Churchill, of near Needy. It was Mr. Coleman who came to Oregon City early asked the nurse, bending over him. "Is in the week to procure a marriage license but failed to secure the signature of the parents of the girl, who is but 17 years of age, to a permit sanctioning the marriage.

> The annual banquet of Clackamas Chapter No. 2, R. A. M., was held at the Masonic Hall Monday night, the attendance being large. Among the numbers on the musical program were vocal solos by Mrs. R. C. Ganong, Mrs. Maggie strumental solo by Miss Veda Williams. City Chapter, presided as toastmaster and the following were offered: Commandery," P. K. Hammond; "The Mason as a Citizen," George Lazelle; Influence of Masonry," Rudolph ner; "The Chapter," T. J. Gary; "The Blue Lodge," H. A. Rands; "The Grand Lodge," J. P. Keating.

. .

The following criticism of the concert given at the Marquam theatre at Portland Monday evening by Miss Mary Adell Chase, of Oregon City, was pubished in the Oregonian:

"After all there are no friends like old friends and no people like one's own. "Miss Mary Adell Chase, the Oregon City contralto, was the singer of ho at the farewell concert given at the Marquam Theatre last night, before she leaves to complete her musical studies in Europe. There were present those who have watched Miss Chase's musical career before she soared on ambition's height, and a delegation from Oregon was among the enthusiastic ones. Miss Chase ought to feel satisfied over the success of her concert. The Thea-Miss Mary L. Deitz and Frank Croft, tre was well filled by a musical audience, riage at the Portland House Saturday present. The affair was managed by George L. Baker and will help his budding career as an impresario. company of friends. The groom, Mr. scenery was shown in honor of the oc-Croft, was a member of Company I, casion and added to the brightness of the Second Oregon, and served in the Phil- stage picture. Miss Chase's voice has ippines. He is employed at the woolen grown in value, her tones are deeper and mills and with his wife will reside at surer, and her interpretation is more artistic since she was heard here in concert two years ago. She is now well equipped for the larger musical career on which she has entered, and can be trusted as a coming vocalist to add additional lustre to Oregon. She received double encores last night, two of her extra numbers being "May Day" (Wal-thew) and "Little Boy Blue" (Joyce).

> Secure your tickets at Huntley Bros Co. drug store for the Plantation Minstrels at Shively's Monday evening.

Seasonable Delicacies

Fine Mackerel, Cod Fish, Salt Salmon and Anchoyis

Also a new crop of nuts just arrived.

Don't forget M.G.B. Coffee in 1, 2 and 3 pound cans, the finest in the land.

Electric Grocery D. M. Klemsen, Prop.

Main Street, near Electric Hotel

New & Arrivals

Shoes are arriving daily at The Douglas Shoe Store. The largest and most up-to-date stock can be found there. Everything in the shoe line, from a dainty baby shoe to a heavy logging shoe. All honest made to give honest wear. Absolute satistaction is our motto. A trial is all we ask.

The Douglas Shoe Store

MAIN STREET

OREGON CITY, ORE.