Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." Howell & Jones, druggists, sell and guarantee them, at 50c a bottle.

DYSPEPSIA ON THE DECLINE.

Huntley Bros. Co. Claim Pepsikola Cures 39 cases out of 40.
Why any one in Oregon City should continue to suffer with indigestion when a 25 cent box of Pepsikola will cure is certainly a mystery.
Huntley Bros. Co., have been selling Pepsikola quite some time now, and they know from actual experience right in their own store just what this famous little chocolate coated dyspepsia tablet will do, and if you make inquiry these druggists will tell you they never knew a remedy to prove so decidedly beneficial in the treatment of indigestion, dyspepsia, palpitation, sleeplessness and other forms of stomach trouble. It certainly ought to give you confidence when you know that every box of Pepsikola contains 10 days' treatment, and at the end of that time if you are not decidedly benefitted all you need do is to go back to the druggist and get your money. Pepsikola is sold right on its merits. It cures indigestion simply by toning up the stomach and digestive organs so that food will assimilate and give strength to the system just as nature intended. And Pepsikola is such a grand nerve tonic, too. Just try a 25 cent box and see if it don't give you new energy, new ambition and new courage to carry out your plans and daily work. If it doesn't your money back.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

Stetson's mammoth double production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will appear at Shively's Opera House, Friday, March 3. The rendition of Uncle Tom by this well-known and well-liked company will never grow old. This management evidently believes in the maxim: "What's worth doing, is worth doing well." There runs through this grand story a pathos peculiarly touching and sweet. It speaks the universal language of the heart. It reflects like a mirror the innermost phases of the human emotions. It is more than a play—it is a moral classic. It argues for two of the greatest themes that can engage the mind—human liberty and the immortality of the soul. Notwithstanding the frequent production of this play, it is never produced in the sumptuous manner by other companies as it is in Stetson's. It is like meeting an old friend after a year's absence. In his theatrie offering, Manager Washburn has brought together all the requisites that go to make up a really great production and one it will be a real loss to miss.

A household necessity—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Heals burns, cuts, wounds of any sort; cures sore throat, croup, catarrh, asthma, never fails.

A Wonderful Improvement.

"Young Wippenbergh seems to have been benefitted considerably by his course in college."
"Yes, he appears to be almost as intelligent now as a trained seal."

"A dose in time saves lives." Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup; nature's remedy for coughs, colds, pulmonary diseases of every sort.

Hives are a terrible torment to the little folks and to some older ones. Easily cured. Doan's Ointment never fails. Instant relief, permanent cure. At any drug store, 50 cents.

The Young as Well as the Old can do "shopping" here safely. It's a common idea that a boy can't "drive a bargain" as well as a man or woman. That is true at stores where it is difficult to get the advantage of a bargain. But bargains don't have to be "driven" here. When we offer bargains they are bona-fide; and, if you send your boy, he will get just as much for your money as you can—and that's a good deal.

The bargain we are now offering is on brushes: Hair Brushes, Bath Brushes, Shaving Brushes and Tooth Brushes.

An Honest Brush

is the kind that gives honest service. It is the kind that lasts a long time. It is the kind that has stiff, well-fastened bristles that do not become soft and flabby when the brush is wet.

Brushes are in this store in all varieties and at various prices. No matter whether you pay only 15c or $5 for a brush you can depend on getting an honest brush and your full money's worth.

Remember we are giving, for the next week only, 25 per cent or 1/4 off on any and all brushes in this store.

CHICAGO, ILL., Oct., 2, 1902.
I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groin. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain. What to try I knew not, for it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Mrs. Bush is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.
