MORTGAGE LOANS NEGOTIATED at lowest rates, Latourette's office, Commercial Bank Building, Oregon City. A warrant has issued from the justice court for the arrest of Charles More on charge of larceny by bailie. More is wanted for the theft of a ring, the property of a saloon man named Wilson who caused the warrant to be issued. More came to Oregon City a few weeks ago, ostensibly in search of a woman with whom he is infatuated, and while in the city made his headquarters at a certain saloon in which Wilson is interested. He was an affable sort of a fellow and readily won the confidence of Wilson who entrusted to him a ring. The first of the week More suddenly left the city taking the ring with him.

Personal Mention

Mrs. L. L. Porter is visiting with relatives at Corvallis. W. A. Wood and Ed. Fortune spent Sunday at Estacada. H. M. Robbins, of Monitor, was in the city the first of the week. Mrs. Alex Thomson, of Clackamas, was a visitor to Oregon City Monday. T. F. Cowing, Jr. and family, of Astoria, visited with Oregon City relatives Sunday. Miss Edna Daulton, a student at the state university at Eugene, visited over Sunday with her parents in this city. J. W. Dowdy, a prominent Clackamas County stock raiser, was in the city Monday from his farm at Currinsville. Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Yoder, of Hubbard, were in the city Monday. Mr. Yoder is a hop grower in the south end of the county. County Judge Ryan returned Wednesday from Grants Pass where he attended a meeting of the State Good Roads Association. Oregon City was defeated by a score of 10 to 0 when the baseball nine from this city tackled the Canby team Sunday afternoon. Mrs. L. O. Garland, of Silverton, has been visiting with Mrs. John W. Loder. She was en route to Fossil, Eastern Oregon, where she has been engaged to teach school. Miss Linnie Kaylor, teacher at the Molalla public school, was in the city last Saturday on her way home from Portland, where she was operated upon for appendicitis. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Beatie & Beatie, Dentists, Rooms 16, 17 18, Weinhard Building.

SOCIAL EVENTS

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Congregational church entertained at the home of Mrs. C. H. Cauheld Wednesday evening. Tuesday evening about forty of the friends of Miss Kate Mary gave that young lady a linen rush at her home on the West Side. As the result of an entertainment and dance given at Willamette Hall about $25 was realized towards purchasing new suits for the members of the Barclay High School baseball team. An exceptionally interesting program of music and recitations was rendered by the students of the Barclay school after which dancing to music furnished by Cooke's orchestra was enjoyed until midnight. Forty-two members of the Oregon City Rebekah lodge went to Estacada by special car last Saturday afternoon where in the evening they assisted in instituting a new Assembly of Rebekahs with a charter membership of thirty-five members. The visitors were royally treated by the Estacada people, being tendered a big banquet at the hotel in the evening. Much of the credit for the complete entertainment of the Oregon City people is due Dr. C. B. Smith who made special efforts in that direction. The party returned to this city early Sunday morning. At noon Wednesday, Miss Ethel Cauheld, of this city, and Mr. L. F. Daly, of Dallas, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Cauheld, the officiating clergyman being Rev. P. K. Hammond, of St. Paul's Episcopal church. The wedding was a quiet one, the ceremony being witnessed by only the immediate friends of the contracting parties and their families. After a short trip to the Sound, Mr. and Mrs. Daly will take up their residence at Portland, sharing the best wishes of a wide circle of acquaintances for much happiness. The Charleston, Ill., Daily Courier says the following concerning Miss Ruth Brightbell, the daughter of H. P. Brightbell, who recently purchased the store of D. E. Matheny, and has brought his family here to live: "Miss Ruth Brightbell (95 high school), who left for Portland, Oregon, Tuesday evening, spoke before the high school and the grade pupils at the dismissal of school yesterday afternoon. Her recitation, 'The Soul of the Violin,' was one of the best dramatic recitations ever given in this city. She held the large audience spellbound from start to finish, and we feel in losing her that we have lost one of the medal winners of the Charleston high school. Her friends believe and hope that a bright future lies before her in her new home." An American lady living in Paris once had occasion to reprimand a parlor-maid for shameful neglect of duty. "Marie," said she, "there's a month's dust on this table!" At this observation, the maid gave a toss of the head, saying: "Surely, madam can not censure me for that, seeing that I have been in madam's employ but two weeks!" Humor is the wine from the press, and wit is the sparkle that makes champagne of it. "I owe my whole life to Burdock Blood Bitters. Scrofulous sores covered my body. I seemed beyond cure. B. B. E. has made me a perfectly well woman." Mrs. Chas. Hutton, Berville, Mich.

PASSED MANY ORDINANCES.

City Council Holds Important Special Meeting Tuesday Night. At a special meeting of the City Council Tuesday night ordinances were passed as follows: Granting to W. H. Bonney a twenty-five years' franchise for erecting and maintaining a telephone system through the streets of Oregon City, authorizing the issuing of sewer improvement bonds for Sewer District No. 4; fixing a license of $25 per annum to be charged of all wood-saw operators; and granting to Frank Busch the right to appropriate water for manufacturing purposes from Singer Hill Creek. The finance committee was instructed to pay the taxes for the year 1904 on all city property on which an assessment was levied. An ordinance, preparatory to the contract between the city and the Portland General Electric Company by which the city receives an improved street lighting service was introduced and read the first time and ordered published. The provisions of the ordinance are in conformity to the terms of the agreement recently submitted by the Portland General Electric Company, accepted by the city whereby the company's old franchise is cancelled and another franchise granted. A second reference for amendment was had of the old ordinance requiring that hereafter all sidewalks on Main street between the Basin and Eleventh street shall be constructed of cement.

TETLEY'S TEAS.

You are cordially invited to visit A. Robertson's store and sample Tetley's Tea—a rare blend of India & Ceylon. Special demonstrator from March 27 to April 1st.

WILL BUILD NEW MILL.

W. P. & P. Company Will Enlarge Plant to Meet Demands of Trade. The management of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company announces that in the near future there will be begun the construction of an additional mill for the manufacture of paper in connection with its large plant in this city. The new mill will not be completed before early next Fall and will furnish employment for about sixty men in addition to the 500 already employed by this large manufacturing institution. The dimensions of the new mill will be 350x100 feet with a detached boiler room 50x100 feet. The construction will be of iron, with either brick or cement and the structure will be absolutely fire proof. It will be erected on the peninsula just north of the Crown Paper Mill buildings.

Do not fail to sample Tetley's Tea—a rare blend of India & Ceylon next week (27th March to 1st April) at A. Robertson, the 7th St. Grocer.

FAIR COMMITTEE MEETS.

Details of Exhibit from Clackamas Co. Are Well in Hand. With the exception of Judge T. F. Ryan and J. W. Roots, of Boring, all of the members of the executive committee of the Clackamas County Lewis & Clark exhibit attended a meeting of that committee in this city Tuesday. Captain J. T. Apperson and Mr. Freitag were constituted a committee with instructions to employ a competent designer and visit the agricultural building at the Lewis & Clark Centennial grounds in which the exhibit from this county will be placed, and prepare a design for the exhibit from Clackamas. The members of the Press committee were instructed to secure the printing in the county papers of the list of premiums that is being offered by the committee for the best samples of products of which the exhibit will be made up. The resignation of Elmer Dixon as chairman of the poultry department was received and James Murrow was named to act in his stead. Albert Walling having resigned as superintendent of the collection of cherries that is to be made, Mrs. S. V. Lutting, of Milwaukie, was appointed to take his place. County Judge Ryan and C. D. Latourette were added to the soliciting committee that was appointed for the purpose of securing subscriptions with which to assist in defraying the expense of making the exhibit. TEACHERS AT PARKPLACE. Institute Arranged for Saturday, April 22d, 1905. The teachers of Clackamas county will hold a local institute at Parkplace Saturday, April 22, the committee on arrangements consisting of W. Gilbert Beattie, Fannie G. Porter and County Superintendent Zinsler. The programme follows: "Analysis in the Advanced Division"..... Mrs. Elizabeth Buck, of Clackamas "Ethical Training"..... Principal D. P. Mathews, of Canby "Music in the Schoolroom"..... Principal W. Gilbert Beattie, of West Oregon City. "Nature Study"..... A. C. Stanbrough, Butteville "Elementary Agriculture"..... Principal J. J. Clark, Molalla "How to Teach Geography"..... W. W. Dixon, Tangent

Not That.

"How do I know," she plaintively asked, "that you haven't told me all this so that you may have the privilege of hugging and kissing me for a while?" "Oh, well, if you want proof of my sincerity, I'll promise not to hug or kiss you until we are married." "No, George, no!" she cried, "don't say that! Think me foolish if you will, but don't think me cruel!" Preparation. Some for the glories of thisworldprepare By spending precious years in college, Where they cram to pass exams and think they're great If with unearned degrees they come from there.

PAINT FOR THE HOUSE

How much more paint would be used if every housekeeper knew how little it costs to improve the looks of a thousand things around the house and how easy the work would be. You don't need a painter for this work, he would only be in your way. What you do need is a brush at a cost of from 15 cents to 25 cents and a can of ready made paint, and here is where we come in; there are at least fifty different kinds of paint for as many different kinds of work—We have all these kinds in stock and can tell you just the exact kind you need for your particular kind of work. Perhaps you may want to brighten up an old chair or desk, or change the bath-room floor from ordinary paint to a pretty stain, or enamel the stove pipe or repaint a screen door, or any one of the dozen other little things around the house—Whatever it may be we have the proper paint, can tell you all about it and the cost is only from 15 to 50 cents per can. We have the Clackamas County agency for Sherwin-Williams paint—the best on earth—let us figure with you.

SOME OREGON STATISTICS.

Giving Idea of Remarkable Producing Quantities of This State. The following interesting statistics relate to Oregon covering the year 1904: Population, 525,000. Value of fruit crop, $2,240,000. Pack of Columbia River salmon, 463,700 cases. Area in square miles, 96,030—61,459,200 acres. Hops, 16,000,000 pounds; value $4,000,000; profit to producers, $2,500,000. Mohair, 450,000; value $150,750. Angora goat industry on the increase. Lumber mills, 480; output in feet for the year, 1,405,000,000, valued at $12,650,000. Value of livestock, $24,000,000, which does not include horses and cattle in Western Oregon. Available for irrigation purposes, $4,230,659.75, or a million more than any other state in the Union. Dairy products, $7,052,810. Oregon Cattle took first prize in St. Louis for both beef and milk production. Flax culture is receiving considerable attention and the fibre produced here is pronounced by experts to equal that of Europe. Wheat productions, 12,950,000 bushels; oats, 3,221,744 bushels; barley, 639,378 bushels; total value of these crops, $10,342,276. Alfalfa is a most important crop. Oregon's numerous water-powers appeal to the manufacturer. Her enormous mineral wealth is only in the beginning of its development. Oregon apples are incomparable, while her prunes, cherries and berries are unequalled in size and unapproachable in flavor anywhere. Oregon has 3490 manufacturing concerns, employing $36,191,067 capital, producing $52,007,775 and paying 25,380 wage earners $13,135,422. Oregon occupies second place in wool output. Wool clip, 19,900,000 pounds; consumed by Oregon mills, 2,500,000 pounds; total value of the clip $2,850,000. The Columbia and Willamette rivers are the most important commercial rivers west of the Mississippi and are so recognized in the River and Harbor Bill. Oregon's churches, schools, hospitals, libraries and other public institutions would do credit to any of the older states. The Lewis and Clark Expedition, one hundred years ago, required 858 days in traveling from St. Louis to the Columbia River and back 7679 miles. Today the regular schedule between New York City and Portland is 96 hours. CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Winter Rates to Yaquina Bay. In order to accommodate the many people who wish to make a winter trip to Yaquina Bay, the Southern Pacific Co. will sell, on Wednesdays and Saturdays of each week, until March 31, 1905, round trip tickets at low rates, to Yaquina and return, limited to sixty days from date of sale. Those who desire to take advantage of this rate should apply to nearest Southern Pacific agent for tickets. "Why," asked the assistant editor, "do you always treat that shabby-looking poet with such great consideration?" "My dear boy, haven't you noticed that he always leaves his poems without telling me how good they are or wanting to read them to me?" In the Flat Above. "One thing which convinces me that people belong to a higher order of beings than animals is that while you can teach animals to go through certain more or less mechanical performances you can't teach them to conceal their feelings." "I know it. There's that little dog of ours. Most intelligent animal I ever saw. We've taught it to pretend its saying its prayers, and to beg for its dinner and do a lot of other cunning things, but we just simply can't get it to stop howling whenever your daughter sings."
