"I know," he said when her father had told him to proceed. "that I'm not half good enough for your daughter and I'll not be able to support her in the style to which she has been accustomed, nor is there any probability that she would pine away and die if you refused to give your consent."

"Then why, if I may ask, do you come to lay the matter before me?"

"Well, you have the reputation of being daring man, so I though you might be willing to take a chance on me."

After he had struck the sidewalk he raised himself upon one elbow and tried to reason the thing out.

"Confound it," he said at last, "they're wrong. I'll bet that old man fairly gloats whenever he gets hold of a sure thing."

Champion Liniment for Rheumatism. Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the storekeeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of any one suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale by Geo. A. Harding.
