Expectorating in the face which was also slapped at too frequent intervals to suit, are among the allegations made by Hugh P. Ridings against Florence I. Ridings in a divorce filed in the circuit here Wednesday. Ridings also charges his wife with having gone buggy riding with Jack Christie one night and falling to return until 11 p. m. Other charges of irregular conduct on the part of the wife alleged to have been enacted while she was conducting a lodging house at Portland are cited by the plaintiff as grounds for asking for a legal separation and the care and custody of three minor children. Senator Brownell is attorney for plaintiff.

J. J. Gibson and two little daughters, twins six years old, are lying almost at the point of death at their home at Maxburg, this county, as the result of being thrown from a buggy Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Gibson was driving from Canby home, when the team ran away and he and the children were thrown from the vehicle and frightfully bruised. The first report received here by Mrs. Gibson's daughter was to the effect that the children were both killed and that there was no hope for the father. A subsequent telephone message gives the information that the father will recover and that there is a probability for the children to survive their injuries.

"THERE WILL BE NOTHING TO IT."

Everything Points to a Grand Independence Celebration at Oregon City. If signs count for anything and the situation may be expressed in slang, "there will be nothing to it." This statement, of course, applies to the Fireman's Tournament and Fourth of July celebration that are to be held here July 3, 4, and 5. The general committee reports that there is every indication for one grand celebration—three days of genuine and continuous sport. Among the attractions offered are horse races with cash prizes aggregating $650, grand street parade, grand ball on night of July 4, immense street parade with numerous cash prizes offered for best floats, log rolling contests, foot races, boat races, swimming contests, other events on the water front and last but not least, music by perhaps three brass bands—Aurora, Milwaukie and Oregon City.

The details of the celebration are well in hand and everything is working out nicely for the most successful celebration that has been attempted in this city for years. Sub-committees on sports have been named by the general committee as follows:

Horse races—Frank McGinnis, C. W. Pope, E. J. Noble, Joe Goodfellow and Ed. Reckner.

Parade—J. W. Cole, W. Burns, W. J. Wilson and R. E. Woodard.

Water sports—Al. Cannon, F. Currin and W. Burns.

Dancing—Ed. Reckner, W. Burns, Al. Cox, Frank McGinnis, Al. Cannon, Joe Goodfellow and C. W. Pope.

Band—M. Justin and R. E. Woodard.

Printing—E. J. Noble, Frank McGinnis, J. W. Cole, W. J. Wilson and C. W. Pope.

Street sports—Joe Goodfellow, George Ely and Al. Cox.

W. L. Tooze, Orator.

Hon. Waller L. Tooze, of Woodburn, has accepted the invitation of the general committee and will be the orator of the day. Mr. Tooze is an entertaining speaker and will do his part towards interesting the celebrators.

San Jose, Calif., May 8th, 1905. To the Editor Oregon City Enterprise:

Dear Sir:—I hope you will allow me sufficient space in your paper to correct a great injustice that I feel has been done Mr. Schuebel and his partner, Mr. U'Ren, who have been my attorneys in the very unpleasant affair between my family and myself.

In the Oregon City Courier of April 14, 1905, I saw an article, "The Horns Once Again," in which Mr. Schuebel is accused of wasting $800 of my estate, that I am insane and that Mr. Schuebel prevailed on me to deliver to Mr. Hornshuh a pretended deed to all my property in Oregon.

Mr. Schuebel and his partner have protected me and my interests and I have gladly paid them every dollar they have received, and they have earned every dollar I paid them. The only money that was wasted and out of which I feel that I have been robbed, was by Mr. J. E. Hedges, who through the court compelled me to pay to Hedges & Griffith $275.00, which is far more than I had paid Mr. Schuebel and his partner for their work.

I am now 65 years old and I have worked hard all my life to get enough to live comfortably in my old age, and if it had not been for some scheming persons, among which is Mr. Hedges, who is the attorney for Mrs. Horn, and who have been trying to get me out of the way by sending me to the asylum so that they might get all my property, which fully demonstrated at the time they had me arrested for insanity and tried before Judge Ryan, and from which I was discharged by the Judge, as to my insanity, I would refer the public to Drs. Sommer and Wolf, who were the examining doctors at the trial, George A. Harding, Richard Petzold, D. M. Klemmen, Enos Cahill, the County Treasurer; James F. Nelson, the County Assessor; all the members of Meador Post G. A. R., of which I am a member and in fact all the business men in Oregon City and hundreds of others in Clackamas county, with whom I have done business and who are acquainted with me.

To show there was a scheme to send me to the asylum and rob me of my property, after the case had been tried in court and while I was trying to make a settlement with Mrs. Horn of our property rights, and I believe that she was not permitted to do so by her attorney, Mr. J. E. Hedges, who wanted a larger slice. Mr. Alfred Horn, who I believe at the instigation of Mr. Hedges for the purpose of securing me, said publicly, there would be no compromise now, "everything would have to go; they would send the old gray-headed—" to the asylum yet." When I saw what they were trying to do, as also L. D. Horn said in presence of Mr. L. Hornshuh that he was "sorry he did not break every bone in my body." I did fear the scheming of Mr. Hedges, besides bodily harm from some one of the lot, and asked Mr. Schuebel what I could do to protect myself so that I might live in peace the rest of my days, and if I could not sell my right to the property I owned. Mr. Schuebel told me that I could sell my right to the property I owned if I could get some one to buy it. I then went to see Mr. Hornshuh for the purpose of selling my property to him. He didn't want to buy the property, but I insisted and begged him until he finally consented to buy the property, which I sold to him at a sacrifice so as to get away and get a chance to live in peace the rest of my days.

No one has defrauded Mrs. Horn out of one cent of money or property. I simply sold my interest in the property to Mr. Hornshuh and Mrs. Horn still has her dower in the property. I have simply privetized Mrs. Horn, Hedges & Co., from robbing me and trying to send me to the asylum.

In closing I wish to say that Mr. Schuebel and his partner have protected me in my rights that they have not wasted or robbed me or my estate, and that I have every confidence in them that they have earned every dollar they have received from me, and as a matter of fact have received a very small fee for the work they have done for me. I hope that you will find space in your paper for this letter, as I feel that it is due Mr. Schuebel and his partner, that the truth should be told.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES F. HORN.
