FRIDAY, JUNE 2, 1905.

ONE OF OUR NEEDS.

There is ample room at Oregon City for a number of enterprises. If one is needed any more than another it is a creamery. There are few towns the size of Oregon City, located as it is in the midst of a section that is especially adapted to dairying...

LET'S HAVE A SANE CELEBRATION.

It is to be hoped that the authorities will strictly enforce the city ordinances respecting the use of explosives in connection with the three days' demonstration in this city July 3-5 next. The promiscuous use of explosives that are generally considered indispensable to a genuine celebration...

In about five weeks we shall reach another Fourth of July, and the Journal earnestly wishes that parents might give a little forethought to the present method of celebrating the day. Why must we go on year after year, and make the day a practically a day of terror and what is infinitely worse, a day of death and casualties?

Table with 2 columns: Injury type and Number. Includes: Died of lockjaw caused by injuries (406), Died from other injuries (60), Totally blinded (10), etc.

Total number of casualties in the United States... 4449. Where is the sense in this sort of thing? It is perfectly proper that the young should want to celebrate the anniversary of the nation's independence, and there is no need that this pleasure should be denied them.

The greatest elements of danger have been found to lie in these three explosives: First—The toy pistol, which shoots blank cartridges; Second—The toy cannon; Third—The giant firecracker, or the "cannon cracker", as it is called.

CRISIS IN THE LAND FRAUDS.

The death of United States District Judge Bellinger, before whom most of the Oregon land fraud cases were pending, presents a difficult problem to President Roosevelt. Judge Bellinger's course in the examinations thus far had shown him to be absolutely devoid of prejudice, and also to have had a firm grasp on the situation.

promptly exposed and thrust aside by the Judge, and justice for the people as well as for the accused was rendered certain. Judge Bellinger would have presided over the trial of Senator Mitchell, Representative Herman and the other prominent personages who were charged with complicity in the land frauds.

President Roosevelt, Secretary Hitchcock and Attorney General Moody have done excellent work in connection with the land fraud revelations. The chief praise for these exposures belongs to the secretary. He has performed his part quietly but very effectively.

SPECULATORS ARE SHUT OUT.

State land officials are exceedingly well pleased by the decision of the secretary of the interior to the effect that the state can select indemnity land for all state school lands inside forest reserves. While the department has held that the state may select indemnity land for both surveyed and unsurveyed sections, the state will have little opportunity to select indemnity on surveyed sections for the reason that these sections were bought by speculators before the state land board learned that the government proposed to create the reserves.

JUDGE McBRIDE.

If the President sees fit to appoint Judge McBride to succeed Judge Bellinger on the Federal bench, his choice will give satisfaction to as large a number of people in Oregon as could possibly be satisfied in such a matter. Not only is this true, but, and what is far more important, he would place upon the bench a judge who can be relied upon to consult the law, and the law alone, in rendering decisions.

ANOTHER OPINION.

Milwaukie is a little place in Clackamas county, between Oregon City and Portland. There is said to be a proposition to make it a gambling resort. The mayor of Oregon City is righteously indignant, and asserts that if the county permits gambling at Milwaukie, he will take measures to make Oregon City an open town.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash. "I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won, and cured my diseases, by the use of Electric Bitter. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold under guarantee to do the same for you, by Howell & Jones, druggists, at 50c a bottle. Try them today.

WEATHER FOR JUNE.

U. S. Department of Agriculture Issues Interesting Statistics. The following data, covering a period of 33 years, having been compiled from the Weather records at Portland, Oregon. They are issued to show the conditions that have prevailed during the month in question, for the above period of years, but must not be construed as a forecast of the weather conditions for the coming month.

TEMPERATURE. Mean or normal temperature, 62 degrees. The warmest month was that of 1889, with an average of 66 degrees. The coldest month was that of 1893 with an average of 58 degrees.

PRECIPITATION. Average for the month 1.70 inches. Average number of days with .01 of an inch or more, 10. The greatest monthly precipitation was 5.38 inches in 1888.

CLOUDS AND WEATHER. Average number of clear days, 8. Partly cloudy days, 10. Cloudy days, 12.

WIND. The prevailing winds have been from the northwest. The average hourly velocity of the wind is 6 miles per hour.

In Mad Chase. Millions rush in mad chase after health, from one extreme of faddism to another, when, if they would only eat good food, and keep their bowels regular with Dr. King's New Life Pills, their troubles would all pass away.

Examination for Forest Ranger. Marmot, Oregon, May 30, 1905. To Editor Oregon City Enterprise, Oregon City, Oregon.

Civil Service examination for the position of Forest Ranger Service, Department of Agriculture, will be held at the following named places in Oregon: Baker City, July 24 to 26; Prineville, August 1 to 3; Hood River, August 9 to 11; Detroit, August 16 to 18; Grants Pass, August 23 to 25; Lake View, August 31 to September 2, 1905.

In as much as the Forester, Forest Service, Department of Agriculture, desires to give this information as much publicity as possible, I humbly beg of you to grant the above item the honor of appearing in your paper.

Very truly yours, ADOLF ASCHOFF, Forest Supervisor.

Thomas' Electric Oil in the house. Never can tell what moment an accident is going to happen.

A Fearful Fate. It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible tortures of Piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson, of Masonville, Ia., "that for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Piles, Buckle's Arnica Salve, is the best cure made."
