THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 37 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

Among the other modern devices for amusement, are, an original Maze, the first of the "Bumps" on the Pacific Coast, the largest "Chute the Chutes" in the country and a Japanese Tea-house that will be presided over by genuine Geisha girls, "Merry-go-rounds," an electric tower, haunted swings, shooting galleries, rifle range and base-ball park.

As time progresses many other modern amusement devices will be added, including "Sea on Land," "The Old Mill Aquarium," "Loop the Loop," "Coal Mine," "A Miniature Railway," "A Giant Sea-saw," "Cabaret de la Mort," "Live Camels, shotland Ponies, etc. A large theatre is in contemplation, where summer opera will be given at popular prices. One of the principal features will be one of the largest and most complete French Taverns, called, "The Oaks French Tavern," to be presided over by Mons. Kahn, a famous French Chef, who comes directly from the East for this purpose.

An additional feature is the engagement for the entire season of D'Urbano's Royal Italian Band, of 20 picked musicians, who will give concerts every afternoon and night on a magnificent bandstand. These daily concerts will also prove one of the many attractions of The Oaks that affords an ideal retreat for the hot weather. Special stalls have been provided for the housing of automobiles.

The Oaks is to be kept absolutely clean and respectable, and positively no gambling or "graffers" will be allowed on the grounds. The admissions will be only ten cents for all regular occasions and children will be admitted for only five cents. The care of the children will be given particular attention on the part of the management, and mothers can send them with perfect safety, as positively nothing objectionable in nature will be permitted on the grounds at any time.

Everything will be done to facilitate the handling of large crowds, and as that has been the lifetime study of the men who are at the head of the enterprise, the public is assured in receiving genuine "Pullman Palace Car" service all along the line.

The Oregon Water Power and Railway Company cannot be praised too highly for the efforts they are making not only to fill a long felt want, but endeavoring to give the people of Portland and vicinity a magnificent, up-to-date resort. The public will also be pleased to learn that the Company has placed the entire management of The Oaks in the hands of and under the control of Mr. S. H. Friedlander, whose many years of experience as a promoter and manager of big amusement enterprises and large theatres, places him in the front ranks which relieves all doubt as far as the future prosperity of The Oaks is concerned.

WORTHLESS FRUIT TREES.

Why will farmers keep worthless apple trees on their farms when it is perfectly easy to have all good? In the orchard of a hundred trees of mixed varieties some will be good and some will be poor. Yet we have seen such orchards stand and for twenty years bear the same old kinds of fruit with which they started. The trees that bore only cider apples at first continued to bear cider apples. Why do not farmers often graft their best varieties of fruit on to the trees bearing the poorest varieties? It is because they do not think about it or because they never get around to doing what they know should be done. By grafting we can in a few years have all the trees in an orchard bearing good fruit. During the summer months is the time to mark grafting wood, for it is altogether probable that the quality of the fruit on different branches of trees varies and that the fruitful bough, if made up into grafts, will give better returns than the unfruitful bough. This is the claim of some that have made a study of the subject, though it must be acknowledged that no one has yet probed deeply into the matter. Some of the varieties, like the Gano have been propagated by merely selected certain boughs that bore apples of a certain form and color. It would therefore be well to mark all wood that is to be used for grafting next year so that the orchardist may be sure to have his scion from wood that has the habit of fruit bearing. In this way some of the worthless fruit trees that are now taking up room without returning any rent for it will become valuable.

A Remarkable Picture Worth MANY DOLLARS Can be Obtained For a Few Cents

"The Three Most Beautiful Roses" by Paul de Longpre.

At the urgent solicitation of the Woman's Home Companion, Mr. Paul de Longpre, who is the greatest painter of flowers in the world, consented to make a painting of what he considered "The Three Most Beautiful Roses," and the painting is without doubt one of the masterpieces of this great artist. This magnificent picture is reproduced in all its original grandeur on the cover of the Woman's Home Companion for June. Although this cover is an accurate reproduction of a painting worth hundreds of dollars, yet in the June number, which has this exquisite cover, may be obtained at any first-class news-stand or direct from the publishers for the trivial sum of only ten cents.

Mr. Paul de Longpre is justly styled the "King of Flower Painters." He not only paints roses, but every flower that grows, and is the highest authority on flowers. His paintings are found in the most select homes. Some have sold for as much as seven thousand five hundred dollars. ($7,500.00).

Artists, art critics and competent judges all agree that the covers of the Woman's Home Companion far excel those of any other magazine.

The Woman's Home Companion is a magazine which in beauty and excellence, art, stories, illustrations and fashions, etc., excels all other home and family magazines. The other Woman's Home Companion is published by The Crowell Publishing Company, New York City, also Chicago, Ill., at One Dollar a year, and is the favorite magazine in nearly half a million homes, where it is read each and every issue by three million people.

THE OAKS ARE OPENED.

Portland's Great Amusement Resort on Banks of Willamette.

Perhaps the most picturesque of all the modern recreation resorts in America, not excepting "Dreamland" at Coney Island, New York, will be "The Oaks" situated along the line of the Oregon Water Power and Railway Co's road, within fifteen minutes' ride of First and Washington Streets and thirty minutes from this city. It is connected directly with the city and has more ample traffic service today than any of the old established parks or similar places of amusement in the United States. It is easy of access, as every car-line transfers direct to The Oaks with but the cost of one fare, and places the visitor immediately in front of the spacious, beautiful station that the company has built at the approach to the grounds. It is also accessible to all railroad and steamboat stations, and being surrounded by the Willamette River, is finely located to reach the resort by boats and launches. With all the latest and best qualities of amusement The Oaks will certainly prove an ideal place for the pleasure-loving public of Portland and vicinity.

"The Oaks" was formally opened this week.

It is stated that the company has thus far expended over a quarter of a million dollars in the improvement of the grounds and the construction of amusement enterprises. Indeed The Oaks has already assumed all the appearances of an ideal amusement resort, and ere long will have nothing to surpass it in this or any foreign country. The lawns have been beautifully laid out and the lighting effects, produced by thousands of illuminants will be much admired.

Some idea of the magnitude of The Oaks may be conveyed by the fact that among the several buildings under roof are, an immense Pavilion, which can be utilized for a ballroom, and which will be one of the notable features, being so arranged as to protect it from any inconveniences of the weather, being so arranged as to get the benefit of the breeze from whatever quarter it blows, which renders dancing a pleasure on the hottest evening.

The Willamette flows on all sides of The Oaks, and the company has provided both boating and bathing facilities that are unexcelled. There is a large boat and yacht house and a modern bath house, stocked with the latest hygienic bath costumes, which will be in charge of expert swimmers.

FEMALE WEAKNESS

542 1-2 Congress St. PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.
