Lewis and Clark News.

Every day is a special day at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. Important events take place daily. There is music by the best bands in the world, and it costs you nothing to hear the concerts. On the Trail you may hear music played by people of various nationalities on the old instruments peculiar to each land.

The Lewis and Clark Exposition is a dream of loveliness in its June-time dress of verdure and flowers. Roses run riot, perfuming the air; the grass is gloriously green; the big fir trees in Centennial Park, the western part of the grounds, add a touch of the real forest to the Forestry building, and everywhere there are flowers and shrubs in profusion.

For $6.50 you can see every show on the Trail and they number thirty-three. As a rule the prices for admission to the Trail shows are considerably lower than the prices that were charged on the Pike at St. Louis. Some of the best attractions at St. Louis have been brought to Portland, but most of the shows are new and novel.

Five hundred men worked night and day during the last few days preceding the opening of the Fair, and the transformation that took place on the grounds and buildings was amazing. In a single hour half a mile of railroad track was removed from the ground, and a few hours later the rough road where the track had run was smoothed off and rolled half.

Circuit Court Notes.

At an adjourned session of the circuit court, convened Monday, orders of default and reference were made by Judge McBride in the following divorce suits: Elsie Howard vs. J. C. Howard; C. D. Brown vs. C. E. Brown; Debbie Nary vs. Francis Nary.

The $2000 damage suit of Wm. McDonald against Clackamas county for damages alleged to have been sustained by reason of a defective county road, has been postponed until Friday, June 16.

Today there will be tried the $5000 damage suit of Maggie Mulvey against E. L. Johnson, proprietor of the Cascade Laundry. Plaintiff seeks damages for an injury to the hand that was sustained while working in defendant's laundry.

Divorcees have been granted as follows: Boydston vs. Boydston; Emma M. J. Moody vs. W. H. Moody.

Alleging that her husband called her such objectionable names as liar and thief, Mrs. Julia Kitching is suing Jas. H. Kitching, a prominent farmer of Currieville, for a divorce. The parties were married in Canada in 1887.

General Summary.

Good rains fell in all portions of the state during the past week, and, while the weather for the most part was cooler than usual, there were spells of intermittent sunshine, which, taken together with the advance of the season, caused a gradual warming up of the atmosphere, and a general improvement in the condition of all crops resulted. More sunshine and warmer weather are needed, however, before vegetation can resume a normal growth.

The condition of the grain crop is promising, with probably very few exceptions. Fall wheat, rye and barley continue to head satisfactorily. Spring wheat and oats have made rather slow growth but the general condition of these crops is above the average. The grain aphid has become quite numerous in Washington, Yamhill, Marion, Linn and portions of Douglas counties, but as yet the damage done by this pest cannot be estimated, though it is thought to have been slight. Hops are growing slowly and the training of the vines continues. Cutting the first crop of alfalfa continues with light yields. Gardens, grasses, potatoes, sugar beets, field onions, beans and peas are making better growth than during the preceding week. Corn is growing slowly and needs warmer weather. Pastures are excellent and stock is in fine condition.

Late apples and pears promise light yields, while other tree fruit is uneven and generally expected to be below the average. Early cherries are ripening, and strawberries are plentiful.

Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist Church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased conditions of Throat and Lungs. At Howell & Jones, druggists; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

The Higher Education.

"Do you think it is possible for a man to succeed nowadays without a college education?"
"A good deal depends on what he wishes to succeed at. If he desires to write novels or be a statesman, he can get along without it. If he wishes to pitch in one of the major leagues it will be almost indispensable."

MRS. CECELIA STOWE, Orator, Entre Nous Club.

176 Warren Avenue, CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 22, 1902.
For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a desolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being.

Mrs. Stowe's letter shows every woman how a home is saddened by female weakness and how completely Wine of Cardui cures that sickness and brings health and happiness again. Do not go on suffering. Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui.
