

BANKRUPT SALE!

'The Lowest Prices we have ever seen'

That is the verdict of thousands who have already taken advantage of this remarkable sale. People who could not afford the luxury of new clothes heretofore have gratified every desire at this sale with hardly any effect upon the purse.

Seize this Opportunity.

It will be many a day before Oregon City ever sees its equal. Lots of buyers came to spend five dollars and spent twenty, because they were quick to see the values that they may never see again. Those who always seek nicety and quality, and at the same time economy of price, can have every expectation realized at this wonderful sale, and more especially when you discover that every price is below the cost. It is quite impossible to enumerate every item, nevertheless the following prices will appeal to you:

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won, and cured my diseases, by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." CORPS OF TEACHERS RE-ELECTED.

City Superintendent Clark and Assistants Retained for Another Year.

At a meeting Monday evening the board of directors of the Oregon City public schools elected teachers for the ensuing year. Miss Addie E. Clark was re-elected city superintendent, at a salary of $85 a month, and the board re-elected Mrs. Viola Godfrey principal of the Barclay school and Mrs. Emille C. Shaw principal of the Eastham school, at $65 a month. Miss Antoinette Walden, who was granted a year's leave of absence, and who spent the year in California, was elected to a position, at a salary of $45 monthly. Grade teachers were re-elected at the following salaries: Frances Myers, $50; Harriet Cochran, $47.50; Margaret Williams, $50; Myrtle Shonkwiler, $45; Eva Meldrum, $45; Marjorie Caulfield, $45; Maysie Foster, $45; Estella Salisbury, $45; Alice Shannon, $45; Irene Carter, $42.50; Margaret Goodfellow, $42.50.

Grade assignments will probably be the same as last year, and Miss Walden will have the grade taught during the past school year by Miss Bertha Kennedy, who filled the position during Miss Walden's absence. Miss Josephine Creelman, who was added to the corps of teachers in order to relieve the congested condition of the schools last fall, has secured a position in Iowa, and leaves in a few weeks for the East. No teacher will be elected to fill this vacancy, unless it is determined later in the year that an additional teacher is necessary.

Sam Roake and W. W. Myers were elected janitors of Barclay and Eastham schools for the following year.

C. N. Greenman, Sam Roake and C. C. Babcock were appointed judges for the election to be held Monday afternoon for the election of one director for the following five years.

LIVER TROUBLES

"I find Theford's Black-Draught a good medicine for liver disease. It cured my own after he had spent $100 with doctors. It is all the medicine I take."—MRS. CAROLINE MARTIN, Parkersburg, W. Va.

If your liver does not act regularly go to your druggist and secure a package of Theford's Black-Draught and take a dose tonight. This great family medicine frees the constipated bowels, stirs up the torpid liver and causes a healthy secretion of bile.

Theford's Black-Draught will cleanse the bowels of impurities and strengthen the kidneys. A torpid liver invites colds, biliousness, chills and fever and all manner of sickness and contagion. Weak kidneys result in Bright's disease which claims as many victims as consumption. A 25-cent package of Theford's Black-Draught should always be kept in the house.

"I used Theford's Black-Draught for liver and kidney complaints and found nothing to equal it."—WILLIAM COFFMAN, Marblehead, Ill.
