Brief Hits of Gossip From All Parts of the County.

Correspondents are requested to re-new their work. We will furnish all necessary stationery. The news from your neighborhood should appear in these columns every week.

MT. PLEASANT.

Mrs. Dan O'Neil is quite ill at her home. Mrs. A. B. Niles, of Walla Walla, is the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Warner at Locust Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Andrews of Santa Cruz, Calif., are visiting at the home of Mr. Andrews' brother, L. H. Andrews. Mrs. L. Hamilton has returned to her home at Oakland, after a pleasant visit at "Rose Farm."

Mr. Leigh Andrews has his new home almost completed. Mr. Andrews is a late arrival from Indiana and likes Oregon well enough to locate here.

Mr. I. Cramm of Glencoe, Oregon, spent Monday with his niece, Mrs. E. E. Kellogg. Mrs. S. Williams, of Spokane, is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. H. Taber, at "Hill-ton."

Mr. Skillman, a retired druggist from South Dakota, has purchased the Dan Williams property and has moved his family here, with the expectation of making this his permanent home.

A very pleasant outing and reunion was enjoyed last Tuesday by the Andrews family and a few friends, which numbered in all forty-two.

Mrs. A. E. King and children have returned to Ilwaco, after a three weeks' visit at "Locust Farm."

BEAUTY MORE THAN SKIN DEEP.

A Good Complexion Must Come From Within. It is the natural desire of every ambitious woman to have a clear skin and a beautiful complexion.

So that there may be no chance for disappointment, and to protect both you and the druggist, we have agreed to refund the full retail price of 25 cents to Huntley Bros. Co. by issuing a Guarantee Contract authorizing them to pay back your money if the remedy does not benefit you as claimed.

VIOLA.

Mr. Patton, who has been assisting Rev. Branson in holding revival meetings at Eagle Creek is now at home.

Viola celebrated the Glorious Fourth as it was celebrated in the good old days gone by.

To the Lewis & Clark Centennial. Day light that dawned upon the smiling plain.

Ever revealed the weary way; Flowers that blossomed where their path had lain.

Streams that their flood and tide had pushed along. The deep voiced rivulet; Tomorrow's sun heard louder yet the song.

Where river, plain and valley met. Onward, as wings the eagle on his flight. His eyes hard set upon his prey;

Onward! nor paused from daylight's dawn till night. Herpes of old that blazed the way.

Find, find, he cried, beyond the setting sun. The land where rolls the Oregon; The sun his course upon his daily run.

Awaits a friend to smile upon. High up the craig, kissed by eternal snows.

Now tolling o'er the plain below; Tomorrow plant their feet, only God knows; Strange streams across their pathway flow.

Wealth of a continent that then was theirs. Assemble now to honor fame; The harvest of a mighty hundred years.

Is gathered here and in their name. One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved.

The Ladies Aid of the Congregational church will give an ice cream social in I. O. O. F. Hall Friday evening, July 7.

Field peas are being hauled to market in large quantities. Men, women and children are busy picking in the fields.

burg on the glorious Fourth. Most everybody and his wife went either to Portland and Oregon City, or picnicing up the Clackamas. The few who remained in town enjoyed themselves in a simple way.

COLTON.

Grain is looking fine, berries are a poor crop and hay a little thin. E. Gottberg made a trip to town the last of the week to get a new hay fork among other purchases for his prosperous farm.

The Hubbard residence is nearing completion. It will be a structure both handsome and roomy and a credit to the neighborhood.

Mr. Carlson has gone to Portland to spend a week or two with his daughters and grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorbett were in the Metropolis last week taking in the sights of the Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Bonney have gone to Sherwood to visit the latter's mother who is quite aged.

Walter Gorbett had the misfortune to lose one of his horses last week at Casadero.

School meeting passed off very quietly with the result that Chester Gorbett was re-elected as Clerk and J. Putz as director.

Cured Bright's Disease.

Geo. A. Sherman, Lisbon Red Mills, Lawrence Co., N. Y., writes: "I had kidney disease for many years and had been treated by physicians for twelve years; had taken a well known kidney medicine and other remedies that were recommended but got no relief until I began using Foley's Kidney Cure."

The first half bottle relieved me and four bottles have cured me of this terrible disease. Before I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure I had to make water about every fifteen minutes day and night, and passed a brick-dust substance, and sometimes a slimy substance. I believe I would have died if I had not taken Foley's Kidney Cure." Huntley Bros. Co.

CARUS.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis went to the Fair Monday. Mrs. Mary Jones was the guest of Mrs. Ethel Spangler Sunday.

Several from here spent their celebration in Oregon City and some at Metropolitan Park. A good time was had at both places.

Mr. Emmott has sold his farm for $1800 to Mr. Huff. He intends to move to Redland soon.

Mr. Howard has improved the looks of his kitchen by putting a new floor down. Mrs. Schoenborn has been quite sick.

Emmerson Spatz is working for S. Spence. Everybody around here have been cutting hay.

UNION HALL.

The school meeting held in district No. 81, on June 19th, the voters elected Wm. Draper for clerk and D. R. Dimick for director.

Mr. Draper sold his farm and moved away and the board met and elected Mr. John Robbins for clerk in the place of Mr. Draper.

B. J. Helvey went to Canby yesterday and purchased a new mower from Mr. Andrew Koche, the Canby implement dealer.

Mr. John Thomas also bought a mower from Mr. Koche. Mr. Chas. Popka is putting an addition to his house.

Sturgis Bros. are going to build a skid road to haul logs to their mill. Mr. Calvin Parker is aiming to build a new house in the near future, also a new barn.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wheeler, who live in Eastern Oregon, returned home a few days ago.

There is now a new telephone line from Mulino to Sturgis Bros.' saw mill. There has been considerable work done on the roads in this vicinity this Spring and it needs a lot more yet to bring it to the finishing point, but we are proud to see them as good as they are.

Mr. Wm. Smith, of this place, is building a new house. He has it well under way. That is all right William, let the good work go on.

Alvin Phelps is setting posts for a new barn, having torn the old one down some time ago.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

Child Not Expected to Live from one Hour to Another, but Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Dewey, of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last Summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says.

"I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. I five hours I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by Geo. A. Harding.

ELDORADO.

Ed. and Al. Jones went to Oregon City Wednesday. Everyone went to Adkin's Park the 4th and time?—well it was just grand.

CIRCUS PERFORMERS.

At Them the Circus is a Very Serious Affair.

To circus people the circus is a very serious thing. When a bareback rider slips to the ground after a somersault or a lofty tumbler misses the shoulder it is his business to land on the audience is all sympathy, as if feeling itself how it is to fall before so many people. Very little the performer cares for all the vast multitude. His mind is on the superintendent, his particular superintendent, who is watching him at the side of the arena, and who, when he goes off, is sure to ask very pointedly how his eye happened to be inaccurate or his muscles infirm.

There is no place in the circus for performers who fail. Even the clowns look a little bit serious behind the scenes. But perhaps that is only because the black lines they paint on their whitened visages are always so grim and solemn. And what a wilderness of fun making people there are in the l. or day circus—the Bumpkin, the Loon, the Harlequin, the Grimaecr, the Merry Andrew, the Austrian Looby, the Tany, the Pierrot, the Punch, the Motley Fool and finally the German Broad Face, whose name is Paddy Burke!

One of the clowns was sitting on his trunk in the dressing room licking a stick of black paint and rubbing it on his cheeks so as to make a most funereal expression. The small boy asked him what kind of a clown he was. He said that he was just "Funny Friskey," and he got his visiting card out of his trunk. It read, "H. Friskey, Clown and Comedian," and it had a heavy gold rim, which made it very imposing. In the four corners it said Europe and Asia and Africa and America, which showed that H. Friskey's fame had reached the four corners of the card. Until you saw his merry capers in the ring you never could believe that a man with such a serious face and such an imposing visiting card could be either funny or frisky.—Metropolitan Magazine.

TRUTH OR PARADOX?

Life levels all men; death reveals the eminent. Liberty means responsibility. That is why most men dread it.

While we have prisons it matters little which of us occupy the cells. Titles distinguish the mediocre, embarrass the superior and are disgraced by the inferior.

Democracy substitutes election by the incompetent many for appointment by the corrupt few. Do not do unto others as you would that they should do unto you. Their tastes may not be the same.

Your word can never be as good as your bond, because your memory can never be as trustworthy as your honor. If you strike a child take care that you strike it in anger, even at the risk of maiming it for life. A blow in cold blood neither can nor should be forgiven.—From George Bernard Shaw's "Man and Superman."

Puzzled by the Law.

The librarian of the Congressional library tells a story of a colored man who came into the library and asked one of the assistants for a "good law book." He explained that one of his neighbors intended to sue him and he wanted to get a book so he could find out the law.

The clerk gave him a copy of a book called "Every Man His Own Lawyer." The colored man sat down at one of the desks and turned the pages of the book for an hour. Then he came to the desk of the assistant and said:

"Deed, boss, can't you git me sump-in' easier? Dis yere is d' fifth edition. Caln't I have de fast edition? Mebbe I c'u'd understand dat. I ain't bin git-ting' on right smart with dis yere fifth one."—Baltimore News.

The Tools of Genius.

Some of the greatest discoveries in physics and chemistry have been made with the simplest forms of apparatus and under the most modest conditions of laboratory equipment. One need only recall the achievements of the famous John Dalton and in later time of Sir Gabriel Stokes to illustrate the point. As regards the latter, a comment of Lord Rayleigh is of interest. Stokes' experimental work, he says, was executed with the most modest appliances. Many of his discoveries were made in a narrow passage behind the pantry of his house, into the window of which he had a shutter fixed with a slit in it and a bracket on which to place crystals and prisms.—London Telegraph.

Two Views.

"A man's vote is too precious to be sold," said the patriot. "Perhaps," answered Senator Sorghum, "although a number of people of my acquaintance regard it as too valuable to be given away."—Washington Star.

A Secret Society.

Carrie—I've got a dandy idea for a girls' secret society. Belle—A secret society! Do you think it would be practical? Carrie—Surely. We wouldn't keep secrets; we'd swap them.—Puck.

Beyond Reason.

There are two individuals who cannot be reasoned with—a girl in love and a man who is determined to run for an office.—New Orleans Picayune.

Love is never afraid of overwork.—Chicago Tribune.

Adversity is sometimes hard upon a man, but for one man who can stand prosperity there are a hundred who will stand adversity.—Goldsmith.

GENERAL SUMMARY

The past week has been favorable for normal growth, notwithstanding it averaged cooler than usual. Haying is now general and although considerable hay has been cut and lying in the fields when the rains of the early part of the week occurred, no great damage ensued, and the hay crop promises to be unusually heavy and of excellent quality. Fall wheat continues to fill nicely and its harvest will begin an about ten days or two weeks. Fungus diseases and insect pests are more troublesome than usual at this season of the year.

CENTENNIAL NOTES.

Liberal's famous Italian band of fifty pieces is now giving two free concerts daily at the Lewis & Clark Exposition.

Susan B. Anthony, the leading exponent of woman's suffrage in the United States, was the honored guest on Friday, June 30, at a reception held in the Oregon building at the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

Saturday, July 1, was Trail Day at the Fair and on that day amusement street was formally opened to the public. There are thirty-five shows on the Trail and it costs only about seven dollars to see them all. This is much cheaper than at St. Louis.

In the Idaho building at the Lewis and Clark Fair there is a pyramid of nearly pure lead ore which weighs 60,000 pounds. A single specimen weighs 10,000 pounds. Idaho produces annually forty per cent of the lead mined in the United States, and twenty-seven per cent of the world's supply.

In the Foreign Exhibits building at the Lewis and Clark Exposition there is a reproduction of Raphael's "St. Anne Madonna," done entirely in needlework. The reproduction was made by a young German girl, Fraulein Clara Ripberger, and is considered the most wonderful example of art needlework ever created.

Friday, June 30, was Vancouver Day at the Lewis and Clark Fair. People of the historic town of Vancouver, Washington, to the number of nearly 2000, swarmed into the Fair grounds in the morning and paraded with banners and badges. "Vancouver Grows Without Watching" was the slogan of the Vancouver people.

The price of admission to the Lewis & Clark Fair Grounds in the evening has been reduced, by a provision whereby the purchaser of a fifty-cent admission ticket receives with his ticket coupons which admit him to 25 cents worth of shows on the Trail. The arrangement is proving popular. The change was made because it was thought that the forty-cent charge which merely permitted the visitor to the grounds was unreasonable, since the exhibit palaces are not kept open in the evenings.

CANBY.

Canby people celebrated at many places, some going to Portland, some to Oregon City, some to Adkin's Park, while not a few were with your correspondent at the old Canby camp meeting ground where meetings are in session and where Dr. T. B. Ford, of Portland, preached a very strong sermon on a patriotic theme.

The camp meeting will close next Sunday evening. The sermon in the morning is expected to be preached by Bishop Moore, who is now on his way from Alaska. Many distinguished ministers are in attendance.

Home little excitement was caused at the Fourth by the report that a horse and buggy had been stolen from the livery barn. It developed however, that it was taken by a man who had a right to do so.

Messrs Graham and Case with their families spent the Fourth in the woods picnicing and fishing. The Canby ball team played at Canby Park on the Fourth.

A Grim Tragedy.

Is daily enacted in a thousand homes, as Death claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption, or Pneumonia. But when coughs and colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. O. Huntley, of Oakland, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1.00 by Howell & Jones, druggists. Trial bottle free.

Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge

gives rosy cheeks and active health to pale, sickly children. And it is good for their elders, too. Ask your druggist for it.
