Treasurer's Notice

I now have money to pay County Warrants endorsed prior to September 1, 1903. Interest will cease on such warrants on the date of this notice. Oregon City, Oregon, June 15, 1905. ENOS CAHILL, Treasurer of Clackamas county, Oregon.

Deserves Your Patronage

The growth of a community and the success of its local institutions depends entirely on the loyalty of its people. It is well enough to preach "patronize home industry" but except the service given at a home institution equals that of out-of-town enterprises, this argument carries no weight and is entirely disregarded, as it should be. But with Oregon City people it is different. A few months ago E. L. Johnson established the Cascade Laundry. It is equipped with the latest improved machinery and is daily turning out work that is equal to any and superior to much of the laundry work that is being done in Portland.

For the Season of 1905

Jeffries, the beautiful Clydesdale station, foaled May, 1899, weight 1900, will make the season of 1905 as follows: Tuesday and Wednesday at Canby; Thursday and Friday at Heins' feed stable, Oregon City, Saturday at Molalla. Terms: $12.00 to insure standing colt; $10 to insure with foal, season $9, single leap, $6. Season opens Tuesday, April 18.

Their Only Chance

A party of soldiers was taken to the shooting range for the first time. The men first fired at a target 500 yards away, and not one hit it. They were next tried at a target 300 yards away, and still every one missed. They were at last tried at one just 100 yards away, but no one hit it.

DIGESTION DECIDES IT

Life is a ceaseless struggle for success. Competition is everywhere. Everybody wants to reach the top. Success is sought for because it is supposed to insure happiness. Ambition and ability make for success, but without health too, failure is more than probable. If the digestion is poor, the nerves unsteady, the blood thin, the weight less than it should be, and ambition and energy at low tide because of stomach trouble, failure is almost a certainty.

The Gentleman

"The true gentleman," said Cardinal Newman, "carefully avoids whatever may cause a jar or jolt in the minds of those with whom he is in contact—his great concern being to make every one at his ease and at home. He guards against unreasonable allusions or topics which may irritate. He never speaks of himself except when compelled, never defends himself by a mere report. He is scrupulous in imputing motives to those who interfere with him and interprets everything for the best. He is never mean or little in his disputes, never takes an unfair advantage, never mistakes personalities or sharp sayings for arguments."

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs.
