ing the schools of Clackamas county is contained in the annual report of County School Superintendent Zinsler to State Superintendent Ackerman, which was completed last Saturday.

There are in the county between the ages of four and 20 years, 4224 males and 3960 females, a total of 8184. Of that number there are on the register of the the county 199 teachers are required and of that number 24 are males. Teachers of the county hold certificates as follows: First grade, 67; second, 57; third 23; priful.

number of months taught was 7.4 months and the number of miles traveled by Superintendent Zinsler in the performance of his official duty in the visiting of 95 schools, was 2000. There are a total of 5369 volumes in the school libraries of the city of which 739 were purchased

OREGON BOY IS HONORED.

Dr. L. J. Wolf, of Silverton, Accompanies Peary Expedition as Surgeon.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Duplicate parts of the delicate scientific instruments to be used by the Peary Expedition in search for the North Pole were placed aboard the steamer Roosevelt before it sailed Sunday from this port. Triple sets of nautical instruments also were taken along.

Dr. Louis J. Wolf, of Silverton, Or., was chosen as surgeon of the expedition.
He is 30 years old and a graduate of the college of surgery in San Francisco of the class of 1903. Until recently Wolf was connected with the outdoor department of Bellevue Hospital.

For a number of months prior to going to New York City where he became connected with the Bellevue Hospital, Dr.
Wolf was located at Oregon City, where he was, temporarily in charge of Dr.
Stecher's practice. Dr. Wolf made many warm friends here who congratulate him on the appointment. They feel that if the north pole is to be definitely discovered and located, nothing would please them better than to have the "pride of Silverton" a member of the exploring party.

STEEL COMPANY GETS METEOR.

Celebrated Clackamas County Case Declared by Supreme Court.

SALEM, July 17.—The Supreme Court today awarded to the Oregon Iron & Steel Company the right to the possession of the meteoric rock found on the company's premises in Clackamas county in 1902, and removed therefrom by Ellis Hughes. The Supreme Court holds that the meteor was a deposit by nature, and became a part of the realty as soon as it had fallen, and therefore was the property of the company owning the land.
In substance, the decision of the appelate court follows:

Oregon Iron and Steel Company, respondents, vs. Ellis Hughes, appellant, from Clackamas County, T. A. McBride, Judge; affirmed; opinion by Chief Justice Wolverton.

Held, that a meteoric rock is a part of the real property upon which it falls and evidence that Indians worshipped the rock and dipped their arrows in the water held in its cavities is not sufficient to show that the Indians had dug the rock from the ground and acquired title to it as personal property. The question whether Indian ownership and abandonment is sufficient ground upon which to predicate title in the finder is not decided.

ASTORIANS HAD A GOOD TIME.

Hose Team Management Sends Letter To Tournament Committee.

That the members of the Astoria hose team had a good time and were pleasantly entertained during their recent visit to this city for the Firemen's Tournament, is perhaps best indicated in the following letter: That was this week received from the management of the As-toria Hose Team:

Astoria, Or., July 13th, 1905.
To the Oregon City Committee of the Firemen's Tournament:
Gentlemen:
On behalf of the members of the As-toria Hose Team, and the citizens of

HELD TO ANSWER

GRATTON AND NEASE, POOL ROOM MEN WAIVE EXAMINATION.

Case Will Not Proceed to Trial Until Court is Convened in November —Bonds Given.

Isaac Gratton and M. G. Nease, proprietors of the Country Club at Milwaukie, when arraigned before Justice J. W.
Grasie, at Milwaukie, last Saturday, waived examination on the charge of committing an act by which the public peace is disturbed, the public decency outraged, and public morals injured.
They were promptly held to the Circuit Court and their bonds fixed at $200 each.
These were furnished and the defendants were released. The case against the Milwaukie resort will not come up in the circuit court until the November term is convened on the first Monday in that month.

Deputy District Attorney C. Schuebel, of this city, appeared for the state, the defendants being in court with their counsel, Senor Brownell and J. E.
Hedges, both of this city. Ninety per cent of the population of Milwaukie in-dorses the action of the council in granting the resort a license and are in favor of the Club being continued. A license of $1200 per annum is received by the Workmen for the Southern Pacific Co. this week inaugurated the improvements that are to be made to the company's main track and sidings together with the building of underground and overhead team or pedestrian crossings in return for the perpetual franchise to certain street rights that has been granted by the city. The improvements called for under the plans and specifications that Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus, President of Armour Institute of Technology, Chicago, Noted Orator, who will be heard at Chautauqua tonight and Saturday and Sunday afternoons. Dr. Gunsaulus is recognized as one of foremost pulpit orators of the country.

have been agreed to, will involve an expenditure of about $20,000, and may include the building of a new depot or at least the extensive remodeling and enlarging of the company's present structure in this city. The first job to be undertaken is the building of the underground team and pedestrian crossing at Third street and the completion of the South End road to connect therewith.
Negotiations are pending between the city and the railroad company by which, if successfully concluded, the earth that will be removed in making the necessary excavation, will be used to make a fill at Main and Eleventh street, thereby dispensing with the building of a bridge which otherwise will be required.

No Further Need of Piety.
"I seen in a paper somewhere de other day," said Sauntering Sim, "dat rattlesnakes never inhabits warm climates."
"Dat settles it," declared Plodding Pete, "I'm goin' to quit strainin' meself to be good."

The Girl's Fault.
"To my mind the worst fool on earth is the one who rocks the boat."
"Oh, I don't know. The girl always screams and grabs you about the neck."
