CANBY.

All Oregonians in this vicinity declare there never was so much hot weather in one summer, in Oregon before.

Threshing is quite general now. The whistles of the several machines can be heard every day.

Andrew Kocher made a trip to Arlington recently.

John Heffer, living East of Canby, has another boy with a broken arm, this being the fourth broken arm among his children in less than a year.

Many people are planning to get away to the mountains or coast. Some have gone.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney, of Phillipsburg, Kansas, are visiting at the Methodist parsonage, as is also Mrs. S. V. Housel, of Boise, Idaho. Mrs. Housel, is the parson's mother. They had not met previously for 26 years.

The peach crop on the old Shank place is very good and is now being gathered. A. J. Burdette is assisting.

Henry Busch, of Macksburg, was buried at Zion cemetery last Saturday, the funeral being conducted by Rev. C. A. Housel. He leaves a widow and one child besides his parents and brother and sisters. The funeral was largely attended, and was under the direction of the K. O. T. M., of which order the deceased was a member.

Moses Quint, formerly of Barlow, was buried at the old Canby cemetery last Wednesday. He died in the insane asylum, at the age of 77 years. The funeral was conducted under the auspices of the Butteville lodge of Masons, of which the deceased was a member. Rev. C. A. Housel officiated.

Hundreds of fish have been seen lately floating down the Molalla and into the Willamette. This is the work of some contemptible miscreants with powder somewhere above here. All good citizens regret that such cannot always be caught and prosecuted.

Lucke Bros. found, on visiting their slaughter house Wednesday morning, that thieves had been there and taken a number of hides, with two knives and other minor articles which were at hand. Mr. Lucke immediately got in communication with the authorities at Oregon City, but at this writing, they have not been apprehended.

Nothing on the Market Equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This fact is well known to druggists everywhere, and nine out of ten will give their customers this preparation when the best is asked for. Mr. Obe Witmer, a prominent druggist of Joplin, Mo., in a circular to his customers, says: "There is nothing on the market in the way of patent medicine which equals Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. We sell and recommend this preparation." For sale by Geo. A. Harding.

WILHOIT.

A great need of rain is felt here, the gardens are dying out and prospects for rain are very poor.

Harvesting is in full blast with a light crop of grain.

Mr. Joseph Strong, of Nebraska, Miss Maud Russell of Wilhoit were married in Oregon City, August 1st. Justice Stipp officiating. Their many friends extend congratulations.

Mr. Ben Wise and Mr. Montague, of Portland, are sojourning at the Springs this week.

Mr. Samuel Roman who has been working at the Springs all Summer returned to Portland Tuesday.

Mr. Ike Johnson, who has been visiting at the Paulson Dairy, returned to his home in Vancouver.

Miss Mabel Paulson is confined to her home, owing to a visitation of Job's comforter on her face.

Mr. Russell, a farmer, residing here, was thrown from a horse a few days ago and received painful injuries.

On Monday evening about twenty friends of Mr. and Mrs. Strong, who were married last Tuesday, visited them with the usual chivari. Candy, nuts and cigars were the order of the day. Owing to an accident to the father of the bride dancing was dispensed with.

Mr. L. Trullinger returned from a visit with relatives, who reside near Sandy, Monday evening, accompanied by Mr. Tolyn, Mrs. Trullinger's father. Mr. Flynn is quite ill. He expects to make them an extended visit.

No such thing as summer complaint where Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is kept handy. Nature's remedy for every looseness of the bowels.

SHMBEL.

Grain is all cut and will soon be ready to thrash.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hornshuh and Mr. and Mrs. C. Hettman called on Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Ginther Sunday evening.

Asthma Sufferers Should Know This.

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Buesing, 701 West Third St., Davenport, Iowa, writes: "A severe cold contracted twelve years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give me more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one fifty-cent bottle entirely cured me of asthma which had been growing on me for more than twelve years, and if I had taken it at the start I would have been saved years of suffering." Huntley Bros. Co.

STAFFORD.

The weather at Stafford is still bearable, although the mercury soars high. Hauling grain and threshing is the order of business now and incidentally visiting, as the Fair has reminded friends that they might, as it were, kill two birds at the time. Mr. Berhle has two nieces visiting him, and a cousin has been visiting Mrs. Berhle, a young man from Michigan, who has been engaged in putting up New York and Montana exhibits at the Fair, came out to see the Gage family over Sunday, and there seems to be pleasant comers and goers at a great many homes.

Mr. Schatz was so unfortunate last Wednesday as to get mixed up with street cars and his wild colt, and broke the tongue and one wheel to his wagon. Then next day after getting repairs he started for home, and it is thought the horses came in contact with a live wire on Market street, a sother horses were seen to jump and cut up more or less in the same place. His horses jumped, and the street being very rough he was jerked out but kept hold of the lines and was jammed into the wheel and hurt quite badly. Henry went down to see what detained him, as his wife had become anxious, and Jeke, his son, who is at work in Portland, came home with him. He had his boy Robert and Mr. Frey's little girl with him, who were also thrown out but escaped almost unhurt.

Mr. Keckel came in contact with the fist of Mrs. Miller's brother at Willamette and returned home with a black eye. Particulars not obtainable at the present writing.

We neglected to speak in the proper time of the marriage of Aura and Inza daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Thompson, who were married in July, the first to a lawyer of Roseburg, and Inza to young Wood of Pleasant Hill. They were both successful teachers and their many friends wish them much happiness.

Miss Mary Johnson, formerly of Stafford, but a resident of Portland at present, where her father conducts a livery stable, was making pleasant calls upon old friends the past week. She was accompanied by a young cousin from the East.
