TERSELY-TOLD TALES OF THE WEEK'S DOINGS.

Desertion Alleged—
On the grounds of desertion, C. A. Hoffman has filed suit for divorce from Clarence A. Hoffman to whom she was married at Dayton, Ohio, in December, 1901. The plaintiff is a resident of this county and Dimick & Dimick, of this city, are her attorneys.

There Was Another—
In enumerating last week the names of the Clackamas county babies who took prizes at the recent baby show held at the Lewis & Clark Fair, the Enterprise unintentionally omitted the name of the little child of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bealau which was also awarded honors in the contest.

Was Badly Bruised—
Charles Dahl, of this city, an employe in the construction force at the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company mills, was seriously injured Saturday morning by being struck by a barrel of cement that fell on his head and shoulders, fearfully bruising his face besides breaking his nose.

Suicidal and Homicidal—
Herman Camehl, aged 27 years, a German farmer from Stafford, was committed to the state insane asylum Friday after an examination conducted before Justice Lily Stupp in the absence of County Judge Ryan. Mr. Camehl's mental illness is both suicidal and homicidal in its nature.

More Domestic Infelicity—
On the grounds of desertion that is alleged to have followed a great many bad names, Anna E. Hutchins on Monday filed suit for divorce from George E. Hutchins, to whom she was married at Estacada in July, 1881. Plaintiff asks for a dissolution of the marriage contract and the custody of a 16-year old daughter.

Will Plead Guilty—
In default of $500 bail, J. C. Doyle was committed to jail last Thursday to await the convening of the circuit court in November when he will plead guilty to a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. Doyle was arrested here for having passed a check on a local saloon when he had no money in the bank on which the check was drawn.

Fine Corn From Clackamas—
Louis Servas, of Clackamas, Friday brought in several huge stalks of corn the longest of which measured a little more than 12 feet and the smallest exceeds 10 feet in length. The ears are remarkably large and fine appearing. The corn will be taken to the Lewis and Clark Exposition and exhibited at the Clackamas County booth in the Agricultural building.

Funeral of Otto Evans—
The funeral of Otto Evans was held from the residence at Canby Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Evans died at the home of his father, Jas. Evans, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. He had been sick with tuberculosis for several years. He made two trips to California and spent some time in the open-air sanitarium, but nothing checked the advances of the disease. Mr. Evans was 23 years old and was unmarried.

Dies at Oregon City—
Mrs. Jane Noyer, widow of the late Peter Noyer, died at 5 o'clock Saturday evening. Mrs. Noyer was 93 years old. She was married in Kansas, came across the plains in 1850, settled in Oregon City and lived here continuously ever since. Mrs. Noyer leaves seven children—Everett and Peter of Walla Walla, Washington; Henry of California, Benjamin of Mulino, Mrs. Mary Ingram of Seattle, Mrs. Susan Linn of Oregon City and Mrs. N. E. Smith of Portland.

New Pastor at Oregon City—
As pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, the Methodist Episcopal Conference at Albany named Rev. R. C. Blackwell to succeed Rev. J. H. Wood Wilson, Viola, J. J. Patton; Pleasant Church in Oregon City. Other Clackamas County appointments made by the conference are: Canby, F. S. Clemon; Canby circuit, John Sanderson; Clackamas and Oswego, W. B. Moore; Estacada, H. Mays; Gresham, J. C. Gregory; Mulino, and Clarks, Thomas Wilson; Viola, J. J. Patton; Pleasant Valley and Damascus, to be supplied.

Milwaukie Grange Fair—
Milwaukie Grange Patrons of Husbandry, has decided to hold its annual fair on Friday and Saturday, October 20-21, and the executive committee has the arrangements in hand. It will be a grain, fruit vegetable, poultry and household work display. A baby show will also be held. Friday night, October 20, there will be a programme, with several short addresses. Saturday afternoon W. K. Newell, of Dilly, will deliver an address. There also will be other short talks appropriate to the occasion. Several prizes will be given the babies.—Oregonian.

For Cruelty to Animals—
Otto Hetman, a German farmer at Sunnyside, was arrested Tuesday by Constable Trembath on a warrant charging him with cruelty to animals. The specific charge against Hetman is after shooting out the eyes of a neighbor's disturbing dog, he clubbed the animal until it was thought to be dead. Subsequently the dog recovered and returned to his master's home. Hetman deposited $20 cash bail for his appearance for trial Thursday. The complaining witness against Hetman is Otto Brookman, whose dog was maltreated.

Another Petit Larceny Thief—
Ed. Gunbar was arrested Friday afternoon for the theft of clothing from the residence of C. G. Miller. The hurried sale of the stolen articles aroused suspicion and an investigation resulted in the arrest of the young man who was given 60 days in jail. W. S. Powers, who stole a pair of pants and sold them at a second hand store, pleaded guilty in the justice

"DO IT TO-DAY!"

"And to think that ten months ago I looked like this! I owe it to German Syrup."
The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or deforming cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Beecher's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has a hold upon your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 50¢; regular size, 75¢. At all druggists.

Justice court and was sentenced to twenty-five days imprisonment in the county jail. An unusual number of transients in the city at this time are causing the police to be extremely vigilant.

May Have Better Mail Service—
Word has been received here by the Board of Trade from the post office department at Washington giving the assurance that in all probability the mail facilities between this city and Portland will be remedied. After 9 o'clock in the morning, local mail is not forwarded to Portland until 4:20 p. m. and this is not delivered in Portland until the next day. The matter was taken up by the Board of Trade which complained to the Postmaster General demanding a better service. The matter has been referred to the second Assistant Postmaster General with assurances that the conditions will be relieved.

Feasted on Bear—
Bear meat was the popular family luxury in Estacada last Saturday. The day before James Marrs living near Dodge, killed a fine young black bear on the mountain side three miles from Dodge. Mr. Marrs was out with his two dogs and they located Bruin up the mountain and chased him down to where Mr. Marrs was and he barely escaped being crushed beneath the three as they came down. It took several shots before the animal gave up and died. It was brought to town and sold to the meat market, and 125 pounds of sweet bear meat was distributed among the people.—Estacada News.

Lodge Officers Elected—
The Knights and Ladies of Security of this city have elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, Augusta Lutz; vice-president, Pauline Swartz; senior vice-president, A. Maville; prelate, Woodward; financial secretary, J. C. Boyles; treasurer, Edward Richard; conductor, Roy Woodward; guard, Mrs. Flagler; sentinel, H. Green; musician, Mrs. Osburn; trustees, Mrs. W. White, Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Kinsey; physician, Dr. C. A. Stuart. The Order is preparing to hold public installation of officers some time next month. The degree staff of the Oregon City lodge has also had the honor of installing the newly elected officers of a new council at Portland that was organized by the state organizer, G. Brink.

Doyle Has Previous Record—
J. C. Doyle, in jail here on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, seems to have operated extensively throughout the Willamette Valley. Immediately following his arrest here, Portland officers reported the passing by Doyle of worthless checks on Portland business houses and on Monday Chief of Police Burns received a letter from Sheriff Calver, of Marion county, stating that Doyle was successful in cashing a bogus check for $7 in that city shortly before his arrest here. Doyle is being held here in jail in default of $500 bonds pending the convening of the November term of the circuit court when he will plead guilty to passing a fraudulent check for $12.50 on an Oregon City saloon.

What Clackamas Produces—
A visit to the freight depot of the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company in this city conveys to the visitor a faint idea of the wonderful resources of this section of the Valley. Saturday, the reporter meandered into the freight warehouse where he saw a splendid assortment of products. Among them were about fifty bales of choice baby hops, grown on the Dr. Nichol's place north of the city, and several hundred pounds of dried prunes from the Arthur Pressey ranch on the West Side. The hops are being held on storage and may not be shipped for some time. The prunes will no sooner be shipped than the marketing of potatoes will begin, the shipping depots will present a lively appearance for several weeks to come.

Improvement Work Progressing—
With the advent of a larger steam shovel the excavation work by the Southern Pacific company on the underground driveway at Third street, is making rapid progress. The rock and earth from the excavation is being hauled along the road and used for ballast. The dirt from the underground passage at Fourth street is hauled by teams to the fill on Main street at Twelfth street. Enough dirt will be obtained from this passage to complete the Main street grade. The railroad company will complete these underground ways as quickly as possible and then will begin the erection of steel viaducts at the Seventh and Sixth street crossings. Local representatives of the Southern Pacific Co. said that the estimated cost of these improvements is about $25,000. This does not include the water tank, which was not a part of the contract between the city and the railroad company, when the city required the company to do this work in payment for the privilege of laying an additional side track on Rail Road Avenue.

Another Oregon City Boy Promoted—
It might be inferred that E. J. Noble, agent at Oregon City for the O. W. P. Ry. Co., is conducting a sort of preparatory school in which young men are fitted for more important positions in the company's service. During the last two years, four young men have been graduated from the Oregon City office under the direction of Mr. Noble and each of them is now holding a good position with the company. The fourth lad to leave the company's Oregon City office is William Telford, who left Saturday to take charge of the Boring office, relieving Allen Cooke, another Oregon City lad, who has been transferred to Estacada. S. E. Toepelman, another of the graduates, now represents the company in the capacity of agent at Gresham, having obtained his training at Oregon City. The other member of the quartet, is John Noble, who now holds the position of yard master for the company at Portland. He also began at Oregon City. Mr. Noble thinks that at the rate his underlings are being introduced into the company's service elsewhere, that it will not be long before he will be obliged to look for importations with which to equip the Oregon City office. Wallace Telford succeeds his brother William, as clerk at the Oregon City office.

OPEN PHEASANT SEASON.
October First, the Date When Killing May Begin.

The law relating to Chinese Pheasants is as follows:
"It shall be unlawful at any time between the first day of December of each year and the first day of October of the following year, to hunt, pursue, take, kill, injure, destroy, or have in possession, except for scientific or breeding purposes, or to sell or offer for sale, barter or exchange, any prairie chicken, grouse, native pheasant, (sometimes called ruffed grouse) ring-necked or China (torquatus) pheasant, quail, bobwhite quail, or partridge; and it shall be unlawful within the state of Oregon for any person to kill, capture or destroy any greater number than ten of the game birds enumerated in this section in one day; provided, that in Douglas county prairie chickens, native pheasant, ring-necked or China (torquatus) pheasant quail, bobwhite quail, and partridge, (limit ten birds) except as provided in sections 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024 2025, and 2026, it shall be unlawful at any time between the first day of December of each year and the first day of

Tumors Conquered
Without Operations

Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Cases of Mrs. Fox and Miss Adams.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy, Tumor.

No-called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages, or the presence of danger may be made manifest by excessive menstruation accompanied by unusual pain extending from the ovaries down the groin and thighs.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation ulceration or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation; secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound right away and begin its use and write Mrs. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., for advice.

Read these strong letters from grateful women who have been cured:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (First Letter.) "In looking over your book I see that your medicine cures Tumor of the Uterus. I have been to a doctor and he tells me I have a tumor. I will be more than grateful if you can help me, as I do so dread an operation."
—Fannie D. Fox, 7 Chestnut St., Bradford, Pa.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (Second Letter.) "I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine."

"Eighteen months ago my months stopped. Shortly after I felt so badly I submitted to a thorough examination by a physician, and was told that I had a tumor on the uterus and would have to undergo an operation."

"I soon after read one of your advertisements and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. After taking five bottles as directed, the tumor is entirely gone. I have again been examined by the physician and he says I have no signs of a tumor now. It has also brought my months around once more; and I am entirely well. I shall never be without a bottle of Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the house."
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; a Woman's Remedy for Woman's Ills.

—Fannie D. Fox, Bradford, Pa.

Another Case of Tumor Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "About three years ago I had intense pain in my stomach, with cramps and raging headaches. The doctor prescribed for me, but finding that I did not get any better he examined me and, to my surprise, declared I had a tumor in the uterus.
"I felt sure that it meant my death warrant, and was very disheartened. I spent hundreds of dollars in doctoring, but the tumor kept growing, till the doctor said that nothing but an operation would save me. Fortunately I corresponded with my aunt in the New England States, who advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before submitting to an operation, and I at once started taking a regular treatment, finding to my great relief that my general health began to improve, and after three months I noticed that the tumor had reduced in size. I kept on taking the Compound, and in ten months it had entirely disappeared without an operation, and using no medicine but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and words fail to express how grateful I am for the good it has done me."
—Miss Luella Adams, Colquhoun Hotel, Seattle, Wash.

Such unquestionable testimony proves the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and should give confidence and hope to every sick woman.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all ailing women to write to her at Lynn, Mass., for advice.
