TERSELY-TOLD TALES OF THE WEEK'S DOINGS.

Wed at Oregon City— Ralph W. Bell and Miss Christina McLean, both of Clackamas county, were married last Thursday afternoon at the county courthouse by Judge Livy Stipp. The groom is a prosperous young farmer and the newly married people will reside in the county.

The Misses Niles Entertain— On Tuesday evening of last week, the Misses Luella and Stella Niles entertained a small company of friends at their home on the hill. Those forming the company were Misses Echo Stanton and Hilma McGetchie and the Misses Niles, Melvin McCord, Tim McGetchie, Dr. Waldo Adams and Lake May.

School Money Apportioned— School Superintendent Zinser made this week the semi-annual apportionment of state and county school funds to the various districts of the county. This disbursement consisted of $32,400, an allowance of $50 being made for each district and a per capita tax of $3.40, consisting of $1.70 each from the state and county funds, was made.

Took in Portland Day— Hundreds of Oregon City and Clackamas county people went to Portland Saturday and contributed to the success of "Portland Day" at the Fair. The day being a legal holiday, many of the public offices were closed, the holding of a special franchise election being the only event to divert the day of a Sunday appearance. The total attendance at the Fair Saturday was more than 85,000, the record day at the Exposition.

Additional Teacher Employed— Miss Estella Niles has been engaged to teach in the sixth and seventh grades of the Oregon City Schools. She began work Tuesday relieving the congested condition of the room in charge of Miss Goodfellow, who, until the additional teacher was employed, heard both the sixth and seventh grades. Miss Niles is a teacher of experience and ability and taught five years at Manitowoc, Wisconsin. Last year she taught at Milwaukie.

Church Officers Elected— At the annual congregational meeting of the members of the First Presbyterian church Monday evening the following officers were elected: M. M. McGeehan and Gilbert Charters, deacons; William Green, trustee; A. Robertson, Sunday School Superintendent; F. J. Meyer, treasurer. The affairs of the church have been in the hands of a committee of the Portland Presbytery, which will report that a special meeting be called for the purpose of electing elders.

Goes Insane While Visiting Relatives— While visiting with relatives in this city, Mrs. Grace Hasbrock, aged 23 years, of LaGrande, became violently insane Monday night necessitating her commitment to the state insane asylum following an examination held before Justice Stipp Tuesday. Mrs. Hasbrock's mental illness is emotional in its form and is of a suicidal tendency. Attendants from the asylum arrived during the afternoon and escorted the woman to Salem.

Mrs. Curry Entertains— Last Thursday evening Mrs. Bruce

Mothers Are Helped THEIR HEALTH RESTORED

Happiness of Thousands of Homes Due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's Advice.

A devoted mother seems to listen to every call of duty excepting the supreme one that tells her to guard her health, and before she realizes it some derangement of the female organs has manifested itself, and nervousness and irritability take the place of happiness and amiability.

Mrs. Ph. Hoffman

Tired, nervous and irritable, the mother is unfit to care for her children, and her condition ruins the child's disposition and reacts upon herself.

The mother should not be blamed, as she no doubt is suffering with backache, headache, bearing-down pains or displacement, making life a burden.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the unfailing cure for this condition. It strengthens the female organs and permanently cures all displacements and irregularities. Such testimony as the following should convince women of its value: Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. I suffered for eight years with ovarian troubles. I was nervous, tired and irritable, and it did not seem as though I could stand it any longer, as I had five children to care for. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and it has entirely cured me. I cannot thank you enough for your letter of advice and for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me.—Mrs. Ph. Hoffman, 100 Hiram Street, Brooklyn, N. Y."

Mrs. Pinkham advises sick women free. Address, Lynn, Mass.

C. Curry entertained the members of the Dickens Club and their friends in honor of her guests, Mrs. Fry and Mrs. Carrol, of Seattle. Whist was played the prizes going to Mrs. T. A. McBride and Mortimer Latourette; Mrs. J. P. Keating and S. Garde. In a picture drawing contest, Dr. Sommer was adjudged the winner and Miss Almee Bollack captured the honors in a descriptive character sketch contest. A lunch was served.

Work of Milwaukie Council— The city council of the town of Milwaukie at a regular meeting Monday night granted a franchise to the Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph company, giving it the right to use the streets of that town for its wires and poles. It passed an ordinance authorizing the purchase of a quarter of a block of land on which to erect a city hall. This insures that the new city hall will be built at once. An ordinance was also passed regulating animals running at large.

Clackamas Gets Honorable Mention— Honorable mention for exhibit of minerals was awarded Monday at the Lewis and Clark Exposition to Clackamas County. Little effort was made to display the mineral wealth of this county, aside from the exhibit of the Ogle Mountain Mining Company in the Mining building, and an honorable mention is very gratifying. Clackamas County has also been awarded a prize for its float in the agricultural parade last Friday night at the Exposition. The float was tastefully arranged of grains, fruits, grasses and vegetables.

Hetman Paid a Fine— Otto Hetman, a German farmer residing at Sunnyside, paid a fine of $12 in the justice court Thursday for cruelty to animals. Hetman is the man who recently shot the eyes out of a dog which he afterwards nearly clubbed to death. Unknown miscreants in the residence district of this city have assumed the role of dog poisoner with some success, several valuable dogs having been prostrated during the last few days. Citizens, aided by the police officers, are striving to apprehend the guilty parties of whom a lesson will be made, in event of their detection.

Californian Becomes Insane— A stranger, claiming to be of Fresno, California, and giving name of Charles Cornelius Tennessee Goforth, aged 65 years, was taken into custody by the police authorities Tuesday after creating considerable excitement in the streets. Goforth first applied to the Sheriff for protection from an imaginary enemy and later sought aid from the municipal authorities. The man's condition is due to an over-indulgence in intoxicants and his mental faculties are seriously disturbed. After being placed in the city jail, he removed all of his clothing which he deliberately burned. Goforth claims to have driven a stage from Fresno for a great many years and says that a brother, J. N. Goforth, resides at Farmington, Washington. The latter has been notified of his brother's predicament.

Rev. Blackwell Takes Charge— Rev. C. Blackwell, the new pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, assumed charge of the church Sunday, conducting both the morning and evening services. He has been in the ministry for 12 years, and all his work has been in Oregon conference. He has been stationed at Myrtle Point, Gardner, Central Point, Springfield, Leslie Church, at Salem, and at Medford, Oregon, and in New Zealand 40 years ago. His wife and two children will reach Oregon City about the middle of this week. Mrs. Blackwell's mother, Mrs. Pratt, is also a member of Mr. Blackwell's household, and her son, Rev. H. L. Pratt, is presiding elder of the Evangelical Church conference for this district. Rev. J. Henry Wood, who is succeeded by Mr. Blackwell, leaves soon for Kennewick, Wash., where he will locate in hopes of enjoying better health.

Suit Over Hop Sale— To recover about $110 alleged to have been overpaid in a hop transaction, is the purpose of a suit that was filed in the circuit court Monday, the plaintiff being R. M. Gatewood, a Portland hop dealer. The defendant is J. H. Baker, a hop grower of Wilsonville. The complaint alleges that H. Ottenheimer, a hop dealer at Salem, purchased from Baker 800 pounds of hops at 1 1/2 cents a pound and for the balance of the purchase price gave a check for $442.60 on Ladd & Bush of Salem. Baker went to Portland and secured Gatewood's indorsement to the check which was cashed at the Canadian Bank of Commerce. It is claimed that this amount exceeded by $110 what was due Baker who refuses to refund the difference. Ottenheimer has made affidavit in support of the allegation in the complaint and the check was protested at the bank on which it was drawn.

All Liable to Mistakes— The Evening Telegram employs a humorist to look for typographical errors in the country papers and only a few days since he called a good one on the Register, remarking that these errors sometimes make great differences, or words to that effect. The country publishers enjoy this fun-making at their expense more than words can tell and appreciate the Telegram's kindness in keeping the public informed that there are other papers. Since typographical errors cause these differences we are moved to remark that few of the country papers make them cause such large differences as does the Telegram. Tuesday's report in that paper gave the total attendance at the exposition as 1,066,545 instead of 2,066,545, a matter of only a million, it is true, yet a difference which the promoters of the exposition would find very embarrassing if it were correct.—Eugene Register.

A FOOLISH PLAN

'Tis a joy to eat—I welcome my dinner hour; Because I rout indigestion with August Flower! Constipation is the result of indigestion, biliousness, flatulency, loss of appetite, self-poisoning, anemia, emaciation, uric acid, neuralgia in various parts of the system, catarrhal inflammation of the intestinal canal and numerous other ailments that rob life of its pleasures if they do not finally rob you of life itself.

"I'm bound in the bowels," is a common expression of people who look miserable and are miserable—yet who persist in "letting nature take its course." What a foolish plan, when nature could be aided by the use of Green's August Flower, which is nature's own remedy for constipation and all stomach ills. August Flower gives new life to the liver and insures healthy stools. Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists

Cooke-Davis Wedding

A pretty home wedding occurred at Boring on last Wednesday evening when Allan P. Cooke and Ethel M. Davis were happily united in marriage. Rev. H. L. St. Clair, of Gresham, pronouncing the words of destiny. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, J. M. and Mrs. Davis. After the ceremony and congratulations by those present a wedding supper was served affording pleasure to all. There were present, besides the members of the family already mentioned, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Smith, Mrs. Townsend, E. C. Morrow, Lester Townsend, Homer Fisher, Clarence, Herbert and Evelyn Davis, and S. E. Toepelman. Mr. Cooke has just been promoted to the position of station agent at Estacada where Mr. and Mrs. Cooke will make their home. The bride's father, Mr. Davis, is chief engineer of the O. W. P. power plant at Boring—East Multnomah Record. (Gresham).

More Domestic Trouble

Henry Troge, a prominent farmer of Damascus has been made defendant in a divorce suit filed in the circuit court by his second wife, Flora Troge, whom he married at Damascus, this county, in 1898. Troge is charged with a variety of misconduct consisting of applying vile and indecent epithets to the wife who claims that in October, 1902 the husband beat her so fearfully that she had to run to neighbors for protection. Besides a legal separation, the plaintiff asks for the custody of two minor children and petitions the court to decree herself the owner in fee simple of an undivided one-third interest in her husband's estate, which consists of real property situated in Clackamas county and at Sycamore, Multnomah county, of the value of $10,700 together with personal property of the value of $2400. Mrs. Troge also asks that her husband be compelled to pay into court $250 as expenses for conducting the suit, $100 as alimony for the support of herself and children during the pendency of the suit and for $50 a month permanent alimony. J. U. Campbell is attorney for the plaintiff. Etta M. Weller, who was married to Wm. H. Weller at Vancouver, in 1898, is suing for a divorce on the grounds of desertion that is alleged to have taken place in August, 1904. Plaintiff asks for the custody of one minor child and an allowance of $25 per month from the husband who is employed in a sawmill in the state of Washington.

REST MADE EASY.

There will be Less Sleeplessness When Oregon City People Learn This.

Can't rest at night with a bad back. A lame, a weak or an aching one. Doan's Kidney Pills are for bad backs.

They cure every form of kidney ills. From common backache to diabetes. Mrs. M. Custer, residing at 535 W. Second street, Albany, Oregon, says: "As a result of colds and rheumatism, my back became so lame that I could hardly get about at all. In the morning I felt sore and lame and my night's rest was broken by too frequent action of the kidneys. A box of Doan's Kidney Pills was procured for me. I noticed their effects after taking a few doses and in a short time I was cured. When I find a remedy that does all that is claimed for it I am only too pleased to make that fact known to others. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills the best remedy I ever used."

Plenty more proof like this from Oregon City people. Call on C. G. Huntley and ask what his customers report. Price 50 cents. For sale by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A DELIGHTFUL CONCERT.

Mrs. Kathryn Ward Pope is arranging a concert to be given in Woodmen Hall, October 23, as a benefit for Miss Mary Conyers, who will leave for the East the first of November to pursue her musical studies. Miss Conyers has given several concerts in this city which have been of the highest class, and this one will excel them all. Mr. Seth J. Story, a violinist of merit, who has delighted so many at the Fair, will be one attraction, besides the best vocal talent in this city and Portland will be on the program.

ELMER ELLSWORTH CHARMAN. JOHN'S WOULD BE GOVERNOR. FELL INTO CANAL AND DROWNED

An Enterprising Oregon City Business Man Passes Away.

Elmer Ellsworth Charman, a native of Oregon City and one of the most popular business men of the city, died of lung trouble at his home here last Friday afternoon after a lingering illness. Mr. Charman was born in this city September 23, 1861, and is a son of Mrs. M. M. Charman. He was educated here and at Corvallis, where he attended the State Agricultural College four years, graduating with the degree of bachelor of arts in 1881, at the age of 20 years. Returning to Oregon City, he took up the drug business, and was with L. Blumauer, in Portland, for a year. In 1882, with his brother, T. Leonard Charman, he bought the drug store of Higginson & Co., and they were associated together under the firm name of Charman Bros. for six years, when T. L. Charman sold his interest to E. R. Charman, who died in 1896. Since 1888 the firm has been known as Charman & Co. Few citizens took more active interest in municipal affairs than did Mr. Charman, who for several years served as a member of the Council and also rendered good service as an aggressive member of the Board of Trade. When any movement was started that was in the interest of the city, Mr. Charman was among the first to respond and become actively interested until the purpose had been attained. His idea of civic beauty was highly developed, his residence property being an ideal of well-kept premises. The funeral services, which were held Sunday afternoon at the First Congregational Church, of which the deceased was a member, were largely attended. Rev. E. S. Bollinger officiated, the pall bearers being Chas. Albright, G. E. Dimick, Franklin T. Griffith, E. G. Caulfield, C. D. Latourette and O. W. Eastham. Interment was had in Mountain View cemetery.

SHIVELY'S OPERA HOUSE, MONDAY, OCTOBER 9.

With a plot that never loses its grip on the audiences and a scenic achievement that made the production famous "On the Bridge at Midnight" has won its way among the most successful American plays and its coming to this city at an early date will arouse unusual interest. The completeness and excellence of the scenic equipment has been steadily maintained by the owners and managers, George Klimt and Frank Gazdolo, and they are touring the attraction this season with an exceptionally strong company, including two of the best comedians in the country for the two characters which are the particular hits of the performance, the professor and the bootblack. Plenty of humor makes "On the Bridge at Midnight" a most entertaining drama and the bridge scene is always immediately recognized as a masterpiece of stage ingenuity as well as a realistic picture of deep and fine melodramatic interest.

Eastern Oregon Man Will Ask for the Republican Nomination.

In announcing his candidacy for nomination as Governor on the Republican ticket, C. A. Johns, of Baker City, says: "Subject to the terms and conditions of the primary law, I am and will be a candidate for governor on the Republican ticket. "It is not a question of salary. There are many things far more valuable than gold, and to my mind the office of governor of the state of Oregon is one of them. "Am going to make an honorable effort to secure that position and want all my friends throughout the state to assist me, and I appeal to them for support. Any promise or pledge will be made direct to the people; no other promise or pledge will be made. "Am not and will not be or become a candidate of any faction, any man, or combination of men. Will either be nominated or defeated on my merits, and will not in the least compromise my official integrity. Will stand by this, even though it should cost me the nomination. My nomination would not mean the success or defeat of any element of the republican party. I want to see the party harmonized and united and the whole ticket elected, and if nominated and elected will endeavor to accomplish that end and give the state a clean, honest, economical, business, republican administration. "No matter what may be the result, I pledge my hearty support to the ticket."

The evening of the last day of the Lewis and Clark Exposition has been designated as Goode Night, in honor of H. W. Goode, president of the Exposition.

The total admissions to the Lewis and Clark Exposition up to September 27, was 2,066,545. It is expected that the grand total will be not less than 2,500,000, a better record than ever before was made by an enterprise of similar magnitude.

Fatal Accident Befalls J. Milan, An Employee of Paper Mills.

Death, resulting from accidental drowning, was the verdict returned by a coroner's jury at an inquest that was held over the remains of J. Milan, whose body was discovered floating in the locks at the Falls last Thursday morning. The identity of the drowned man was established by a letter found on his person that had been written him by his son and daughter, who reside at Mohall, North Dakota. They were notified of their father's death, and directed that the remains be forwarded to the old home for burial. Milan was about 60 years of age, and on the Saturday before received his pay from the Crown-Columbia Pulp & Paper Company, where he had been employed. That was the last seen of him by the mill management until the body was recovered five days later. Doctors Carl and Hickman of this city, made an autopsy which disclosed that Milan's neck was broken. It is supposed that Milan fell into the canal, sustained the fatal injury and was drowned. The presence of two severe gashes, one on the forehead and the other on the back of the head, led to the supposition, before the body had been identified, that the man had been foully dealt with, but the result of the autopsy dispelled all such conclusions.

TO CLACKAMAS CO REPUBLICANS

Frank C. Baker, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, has mailed the following announcement: "Permit me to announce to the Republicans of Clackamas County that the Empire Theatre has been secured for the re-union and conference in this city the 12th inst., and that experienced ushers will be in readiness to see that everybody is made comfortable. There will be no reservations made for Portland people, but all from the interior will be seated. Thursday morning at ten o'clock the Conference will convene."
