TERSELY-TOLD TALES OF THE WEEK'S DOINGS.

Halloween Entertainment—
King's Daughters, a society of young women of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, are arranging to give a Halloween entertainment on Friday evening before Halloween. The entertainment will include instrumental and vocal music, and fancy dances, with a social hop and refreshments at the close of the affair.

Small Delinquent List—
In the collection of taxes on the 1904 tax roll, Sheriff Shaver was this year unusually successful, there remaining delinquent only about $14,000 on a tax roll aggregating $223,061.26. The total tax roll included the following items: County, state, road and special school, $19,981.87; Oregon City, $6,111.78; special road, $1,516.78; polls, $387.

Says Husband Was Cruel—
Alleging cruel and excessively inhuman treatment that preceded the preferring by the defendant of charges of infidelity and his subsequent desertion of the plaintiff are the grounds upon which Rosalie Witherspoon has filed suit for divorce from Edmund J. Witherspoon. They were married at Bay City, Michigan in December, 1891.

For Stealing a Watch—
A. E. McBride, wanted at Salem for larceny of a gold watch, was arrested here early last Thursday morning by Night Officer Shaw. The stolen property was not recovered, the thief having disposed of the timepiece before coming to Oregon City by river steamer. The accused man was returned to Salem by Chief of Police Cornelius, of that city who came after his man.

To Build New Road—
A public meeting was held Saturday at Springwater and it was unanimously decided to vote a 5-mill tax for the new Springwater wagon road. This will raise an additional $1000. About $800 has already been spent on the road and the county will be asked to contribute $600. This road will give the Estacada country a fine connection with the main plank road to Oregon City.

New Variety of Salmon—
W. B. Jennings, while trolling at the mouth of the Clackamas, caught a chinook salmon of an entirely new variety in Oregon waters. He showed the fish to Fish Commissioner J. Nelson, Wiener and others of the United States fish commission, and none of these experts was able to say to what variety the salmon belongs. Five varieties of chinook salmon come into these streams, but this fish does not belong to any of them.

Came Home for a Visit—
Wm. C. Morrison, who escaped from the insane asylum at Salem where he was receiving treatment two weeks ago, and returned to his former home near Wilsonville, was taken into custody and returned to Salem the latter part of last week. During the week that Morrison was at large, he had wandered over the county considerable, the condition of his clothing and his physical state indicating both privation and hardships.

Some School Notes—
Eugene Davis this week took an examination for a permit expecting to teach at Cedardale. * The Redland school has been necessarily postponed owing to the illness of the teacher, Miss Wilcox, who is one of the typhoid fever victims. * The following additions are to be made to the roster of Clackamas county teachers as published last week: Joint District No. 34, Gladys Durst; Molalla, Ed. McKobnett and Linnie Kayler, under whose able management good progress is being made.

Settled Out of Court—
The suit of R. M. Gatewood vs. J. M. Baker has been settled out of court, the defendant paying $110, the amount sued for, and $30 costs. The plaintiff in the action indorsed a check for Baker, which was cashed at a Portland bank. Baker received the check from a Salem hop-buyer, who discovered that he paid the defendant $110 in excess of the amount of hops that had been sold. The Salem bank, Ladd & Bush, where the check was made payable, protested the paper, and Gatewood came back on Baker for his money, which Baker refused to pay until suit was commenced.

Charter List is Closed—
The German Society of Oregon City and Clackamas county, held a meeting in Knapp's hall Sunday afternoon and declared the charter closed. There are now 40 members, several of whom were initiated at the meeting Sunday. It was decided to hold a big inaugural meeting at Knapp's hall on the afternoon of November 12. A splendid program, consisting of music, addresses, songs, etc., will be arranged. The object of this society is for the social betterment of the German-Americans of this city and the county and to assist in every way possible the newcomers of German birth to the community.

Coloradans Could Not Agree—
Three divorce suits, in which the principals are non-residents of this county, were filed in the state circuit court here Friday. Chas. H. Willerling, who married Jennie Willerling at Denver in 1894, alleges that the wife deserted him at Pueblo five years later and he wishes to be legally separated from the woman. Desertion four years following a happy marriage, is the charge Wm. C. Bates prefers against Ora F. Bates whom he wedded at Aspin, Colorado, in 1891. After living with him less than a year, Maria Pirard deserted and abandoned Victor Pirard, according to a divorce complaint filed Friday by the latter. They were married at Denver in 1902.

What Shall We Eat?—
Every day the same old question, what shall we eat for breakfast, for luncheon, for dinner? assails with

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. G. G. Green gives alert personal attention to his great humanitarian contract.

In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles or consumption. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them or urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

monotonous regularity the patient housewife who seeks to provide good living for the family in agreeable variety at a moderate cost. There is a daily department in The Chicago-Record-Herald which is intended to answer this question satisfactorily every day in the year. It is entitled "Meals for a Day," and provides menus for the three meals every day, with necessary recipes. These menus and recipes are carefully selected by The Record-Herald's household editor, and cash prizes are awarded for the best that are received. Housewives everywhere are invited to participate in the competition. For full particulars see the "Meals for a Day" department of The Chicago Record-Herald.

Did Stealing By Wholesale—
If one concludes to enter on a career of stealing, it might be well for him to omit the residence of the Chief of Police in outlining his itinerary. But Frank Gensen, a 19-year old youth did not take this precaution. He visited the residence of Chief of Police Burns several days ago and appropriated several articles of bed clothing. The theft of five umbrellas from Oregon City residences on Monday resulted in the arrest by Chief Burns Monday afternoon of the lad who has been carrying on a wholesale pilfering throughout the city for several weeks, disposing of his plunder to Portland second-hand dealers. While operating in this city, Gensen spent his nights in a barn from which he stole a great many tools and other articles of value. Being arraigned in Justice Court Tuesday on a charge of larceny in a dwelling, Gensen waived examination and was held to the circuit court.

"Ben Hur" at the Marquam—
Klaw & Erlanger's colossal production of General Lew Wallace's impressive Biblical romance "Ben Hur" starting in its immensity—can only be considered as second in comparison to the Lewis & Clark Centennial Exposition as a feast for the eyes. This great play, which has commanded the attention of the Pope of Rome, King of England, President Roosevelt, Archbishop Ireland and other prelates rulers and important personages of the world, aroused the interest of the entire states of Oregon and Washington, when staged in the City of Portland two years ago. And now with the announcement that it is again to be enacted in that city at the Marquam Grand Theatre for six night performances (exclusive of Sunday) starting Thursday, October 19th, will no doubt cause many to journey there to witness it the same as before. In order to accommodate the out-of-town public, Calvis Heilig, manager of the Marquam Grand Theatre, will give his personal attention to all orders for seats sent through the mail, if accompanied with remittance. The scale of prices governing the engagement will be $2.00 and $2.50 on the lower floor and $1.00 and $1.50 and $2 in the balcony. All railroad lines entering Portland are to make low excursion rates, so by inquiring of the local railroad representatives, full information concerning the same can be ascertained.

COMING MUSICAL EVENT.

Programme of Unusual Entertaining Qualities at Miss Conyers' Benefit.

Much interest is being taken by the musical people of Oregon City in the farewell concert that is to be given at Woodmen Hall in this city, Monday evening, October 23. Miss Conyers has for many years very generously and cheerfully assisted in numerous public public entertainments in this city and considering the excellent programme that is in preparation for this concert, there is every reason to believe that the entertainment will be enjoyed by a large audience. Miss Conyers will leave during the first week in November for Chicago where she will further pursue her musical studies.

The management of the concert is in the hands of Mrs. Kathryn Ward Pope, of this city, who is neglecting no detail to insure the success of the affair. In giving the concert Miss Conyers will be assisted by Mr. Storey, a successful and accomplished violinist of Portland; Miss Sophia Wolf, of Silverton, a graduate of the Emerson School of Oratory of Boston, Mass.; Miss Evelyn Hurley, of Portland, one of the most charming contraltos on the Pacific Coast who will on this occasion make her first public appearance in this city; Mrs.

WORKING WOMEN

Their Hard Struggle Made Easier—Interesting Statements by a Young Lady in Boston and One in Nashville, Tenn.

All women work; some in their homes, some in church, and some in the whirl of society. And in stores, mills and shops tens of thousands are on the never-ceasing treadmill, earning their daily bread.

All are subject to the same physical laws; all suffer alike from the same physical disturbance, and the nature of their duties, in many cases, quickly drifts them into the horrors of all kinds of female complaints, ovarian troubles, ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb, leucorrhoea, or perhaps irregularity or suppression of "monthly periods," causing backache, nervousness, irritability and lassitude.

Women who stand on their feet all day are more susceptible to these troubles than others. They especially require an invigorating, sustaining medicine which will strengthen the female organism and enable them to bear easily the fatigues of the day, to sleep well at night, and to rise refreshed and cheerful.

How distressing to see a woman struggling to earn a livelihood or perform her household duties when her back and head are aching, she is so tired she can hardly drag about or stand up, and every movement causes pain, the origin of which is due to some derangement of the female organism.

Miss F. Orser of 14 Warrenton Street, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail

Boston, tells women how to avoid such suffering; she writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"I suffered misery for several years with irregular menstruation. My back ached; I had bearing-down pains, and frequent headaches; I could not sleep and could hardly drag around. I consulted two physicians without relief, and as a last resort, I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and to my surprise, every ache and pain left me, I gained ten pounds and am in perfect health."

Miss Pearl Ackers of 327 North Summer Street, Nashville, Tenn., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"I suffered with painful periods, severe backache, bearing-down pains, pains across the abdomen; was very nervous and irritable, and my trouble grew worse every month. My physician failed to help me and I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I soon found it was doing me good. All my pains and aches disappeared, and I no longer fear my monthly periods."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the unfailing cure for all these troubles. It strengthens the proper muscles, and displacement with all its horrors will no more crush you.

Backache, dizziness, fainting, bearing-down pains, disordered stomach, moodiness, dislike of friends and society—all symptoms of the one cause—will be quickly dispelled, and it will make you strong and well.

You can tell the story of your sufferings to a woman, and receive helpful advice free of cost. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

MANY DIVORCE SUITS PENDING.

Sixty-Eight Such Suits To Be Heard at November Term of Court.

Alleging that her husband during the year 1901 ejected her from the bedroom and obliged her to spend the night in the sitting room, that he frequently came home in an intoxicated condition and retired with his clothes and shoes on and at other times threatened to kill both himself and his wife, Mrs. Anna E. Whittington on Tuesday filed suit for divorce from Charles B. Whittington, to whom she was married at Roseburg, in 1894. Plaintiff also asks to resume her maiden name, Anna E. Thompson.

Two other suits for divorce were also filed the same day. Freida Van Curen, who became the wife of Chas. Van Curen in this city in 1895, wants to be legally separated, alleging failure to provide and desertion. The wife asks for the custody of three minor children. Lucinda M. Hoffman wants to be divorced from Burg O. Hoffman, to whom she was married in 1897. Failure to provide is charged and plaintiff would assume her maiden name, Lucinda M. Andrews. In the Van Curen and Hoffman suits, George C. Brownell appears as attorney for the plaintiffs.

SCHOOL CHILDREN AT THE FAIR.

Clackamas Youths Will Help Close the Exposition.

Arrangements have been made by School Superintendent Zinser by which the pupils of the Clackamas county schools will take advantage of the offer of the Lewis & Clark Fair Commission by which all school children are to be admitted to the grounds free tomorrow, the last day of the Exposition.

A special rate to school children, only, of 25 cents for the round trip, has been made for Saturday by the Oregon Water Power & Railway Co. Special cars have been engaged for the accommodation of the little folks, who will leave this city at 9:40 o'clock a. m. The little folks, accompanied by their parents in whose care they will be during the day, are requested to congregate at the County Court House in time to leave by the 9:40 car.

BIG CROP OF BABY HOPS.

Results Justify Proper Planting and Thorough Cultivation.

In the growing of baby hops this year, a record was made by D. K. Bill, who managed the Dr. Nichols' yard near Oregon City. From a 15-acre yard of young vines, 27,000 pounds of green hops were harvested that cured 26 pounds of dried hops to the 100. The vines, which were of the English Cluster variety, were planted in the first week of March, this year. Only the most healthy and promising roots were selected, but the mode of planting was slightly different from that generally adopted by growers. With a dibble, a hole about ten inches in depth was made into which the root was inserted and then the earth was securely and firmly packed about the plant.

Every detail connected with the planting was carefully attended to with the result that nearly every plant lived and produced hops this year. During the summer the yard was thoroughly and systematically cultivated as was the yard of older hops and the products of the year's labor amply compensate the grower.

Another yard of baby hops, in the same vicinity, set out in the old way, proved practically a failure, few of the vines yielding anything.

DEATH TERMINATES ROMANCE.

Clackamas County Girl Receives Necklace from Soldier Boy.

Miss Lillian Johnson is the proud possessor of a piece of jewelry, around which is intricately woven a romantic tale of gratitude and appreciation for those little attentions in time of trouble, which only a lady of her fascinatingly sensitive nature can bestow.

The necklace, for such it is, comes from far Manila in the Philippine Islands. It seems that soon after her arrival in San Francisco, she attended a reception and ball given by the Oregon Club of that city, and was there introduced to a dashing young lieutenant who, prior to the Spanish war had served in the National Guard in Portland. He invited her out to the Presidio and they became fast friends. Soon after this he was stricken with a violent fever and his life was almost despaired of. During his weeks of convalescence she was as frequent a visitor as army regulations and her own affairs would permit. On his recovery his regiment was sent to the Philippines and just before his term of enlistment had expired, he was

CLEVERNESS AND CHARM.

Woman's Greatest Charm is a Glowing Complexion.

Every woman's aim should be to cultivate a fresh, blooming complexion, for while Nature may not have made her attractive in form and feature, the charm of a clear skin and a healthy complexion can be had if she will only try for it. The greatest enemy of a good complexion is constipation, and if it were known how many Oregon City ladies have improved their appearance through using a simple laxative remedy on sale at Huntley Bros Co.'s drug store it might surprise you. Laxakola Tonic Tablets are a perfect combination of dandelion, cascarrin and other vegetable extracts known to have a peculiarly beneficial action upon the skin. They open the pores, enrich the blood, aid the natural changes of the skin, quicken the circulation, put new color in the cheeks and cure chronic constipation by regulating and encouraging the action of the bowels. Huntley Bros. Co. would not continue to recommend this remedy if it did not possess unusual merit, and unless Laxakola Tonic Tablets do benefit you as claimed we will return your 25 cents without the least argument.
