The Argonaut for October 16th is a Special Number devoted to Shipping and transportation. It contains thirty-two pages, with numerous interesting illustrations, and the letter-press treats entertainingly of travel and transportation. An article by Jerome Hart deals with "Some European Sea Ports." Other special articles are "America and the Panama Canal," "Shipwrecks of the Pacific Coast," and "Steamer Day in the Fifties." Geraldine Bonner writes of the much discussed play, "Man and Superman," and the story of the week is a weird tale of railroading, entitled "The Ghost Signal." The History of the Union Iron Works, in this issue, is highly instructive and interesting.

MISS CONYER'S CONCERT.

Those Who Will Appear on Monday Evening's Program.

The concert which will be given Monday evening in Woodmen Hall as a farewell for Miss Mary Conyers, promises to be an affair long to be remembered by the music-loving people of this city. The programme will embrace some of the best talent of Portland and Oregon City, and everything will be done to make this the best concert ever given in this city.

Mrs. Imogen Harding Brodie who has recently returned from three years' course of study in New York will sing a Spring Song. This song is especially adapted to Mrs. Brodie as it brings out the feeling and beautiful qualities of her glorious contralto voice. Oregon City may well be proud of claiming this singer as its own.

Miss Bernice Flemming Holland will make her first appearance here. She was a pupil of Albina Gorn of Cincinnati and has played professionally in various cities. Was connected with the state building recitals in both the St. Louis and Lewis and Clark Expositions and has received the highest praise from the public and newspaper comment. Miss Holland will appear twice on the programme.

Miss Wolfe, a talented elocutionist, will delight the audience with several readings. Miss Wolfe is a graduate of the Emerson School of Oratory and comes highly recommended. Miss Hurley, contralto of Portland will sing "Restless River" a song that singers are doing in the East and the public loves. Miss Hurley is the instructor of voice in Willamette University of Salem, and a popular singer of Portland.

Mr. Seth J. Storey, violinist, will play "Simple Aven" by Thome. Mr. Storey is well known as a violinist as also composer of many pieces that are being played and sung in the theatres of today. Miss Conyers will sing several songs best adapted to her voice.

Mrs. E. E. Williams, of Forest Grove will be the accompanist. Mrs. Williams is a former Oregon City musician, having taken prominent parts in musical work here and in Portland, and is always a contributor to the worth of a program, and the success of an entertainment.

The concert is under the direction of Mrs. Kathryn Warde Pope and is putting forth her best efforts to make this an artistic affair and that she will succeed is an assured fact. Many tickets are being sold and every indication is for a crowded house.

GOOD NEWS.

Many Oregon City Readers Have Heard it and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Oregon City are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak back has no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. People are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Jacob E. McCoy, of Salem, Oregon, bridge builder, and contractor, residing on Capital street, second house beyond Mill creek, says: "I have always enjoyed good health up to five or six years ago. Along about that time my kidneys commenced to bother me. There was not so much back-ache, but the principal symptoms were in connection with the kidney secretions. A strain or over-exertion very often caused hemorrhages of the kidneys. I cannot say it was so very painful, but it was very annoying. I used various remedies, and while some gave relief others were worthless. In some way Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my notice, and when up town I procured a box, taking them as directed. A few doses gave me convincing proof that they were going to the right spot, and though I can't say that they have cured me, as I may never be cured, I can state that they gave me wonderful relief. I have a high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills and cheerfully recommend them."

Plenty more proof like this from Oregon City people. Call at C. G. Huntley's drug store and ask what his customers report. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doans, and take no other.

It's a mistake to imagine that itching piles can't be cured. A mistake to suffer a day longer than you can help. Doan's Ointment brings instant relief and permanent cure. At any drug store, 50 cents.
