

NEW TO-DAY

MONEY TO LOAN AT 6 AND 7 per cent. Farm security. U'Ren & Schubel.

MORTGAGE LOANS NEGOTIATED.—at lowest rates, Latourette's office, Commercial Bank Building, Oregon City.

Local Events

Found, a black pointer bitch, call at Elk Horn stables.

Furnished rooms for rent, apply first house north side of Tenth street, west from Main street.

Houses to rent. See J. A. Moehne, Enterprise building.

R. P. Walker and Miss Myrtle B. Taylor, both of this city, were married in this city Sunday, Rev. W. H. Wettlaufer, officiating.

Buckeye Extracts—Happy husband.

George Randall has sold 50 of the 94 bales representing his 1905 crop to H. I. Miller, of Aurora. The price was 12 cents per pound.

Monday afternoon Mrs. E. A. Sommer entertained the Dickens Club at her home. Next Monday the club will meet the home of Mrs. T. F. Ryan.

MORTGAGE LOANS NEGOTIATED at lowest rates, Latourette's office, Commercial Bank Building, Oregon City.

While chopping wood last Friday morning at his home on Seventh St., A. Deute had the misfortune to sever the index finger of the left hand.

Good wife—Buckeye Extracts.

U. S. Howland is suing Margaret L. Roberts, administratrix of the estate of Owen J. Roberts, for the foreclosure of a mortgage of $333.50.

School books for all grades and a full line of school supplies at lowest prices at Charman & Co., City Drug Store.

Joseph Kuerston has resigned as a member of the Board of Fire Commissioners. His successor will be named at the November meeting of the Council.

Arthur, the 19-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sprague, died of typhoid fever at the family home five miles from this city last Wednesday night.

A reward will be paid for the return to the Enterprise Office of a liver and white pointer bitch. Has suckling pups. Last seen Tuesday, October 16.

Several tons of Hubbard squash—just the thing for fattening hogs—for sale by W. S. King at the mouth of the Clackamas. Price $5.00 a ton. Telephone Main 1710.

Lost—a Scotch Coozie, sharp nose, brindle color. Last seen in Heinz' feed yard. Suitable reward offered for return to George Lazelle, R. F. D. No. 1, Oregon City, Oregon.

R. L. Holman, leading undertaker. Next to Harris' grocery store, Oregon City, Oregon.

Contractor G. A. Brown has practically completed the construction of the new Baptist parsonage on Ninth street. The building will be ready for occupancy about November 1.

Miss Laura Newbury, daughter of Mrs. J. N. Dustin, of New Era, and Mr. J. Thompson were married at Vancouver last Wednesday, the 18th inst. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will reside at Rainier.

New supply monthly report cards just printed at the Enterprise office. The attention of Clackamas county teachers is respectfully called to this announcement. Orders by mail, when accompanied by necessary postage, will receive prompt attention.

Beginning next Monday at D. M. Klemsen's grocery, Mrs. Kilgore will demonstrate the M. J. B. Coffee for one week. Come and get your coffee and cake free. Remember the place, Klemsen's grocery.

Two sales of farms near Maple Lane are reported. Prof. Culavin has purchased the Snyder farm of 10 acres for a consideration of $1300. The Shortidge tract of 15 acres has also been sold to some new arrivals from the east.

Buckeye Extracts—Many smiles.

F. C. Patterson has a petition to present before the county court for a saloon at Oswego. Mr. Patterson is a young man and expects to expend $1500 in furnishing and equipping a first-class and attractive resort.

New supply of monthly report cards just printed at the Enterprise office. The attention of the Clackamas county teachers is respectfully called to this announcement. Orders by mail, when accompanied by necessary postage, will receive prompt attention.

Mary A. Shute fell on the stairs at her home at Maple Lane Saturday night and seriously injured her hip. While no bones were broken, "Grandma" Shute by reason of her advanced years, will be bedfast for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Hughes, of Seattle, have announced the engagement of their sister, Miss Eleanor Blodgett, to Rev. Francis Hill Mixsell, of South Bend, Wash. Mr. Mixsell was formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian church in this city.

Watches that others have failed to make run properly especially solicited by R. F. Cauffield, watchmaker and jeweler, opposite Huntley Bros., Main street, Oregon City. All work guaranteed.

The sermon at the Congregational Church next Sunday evening will be about "The Fellow that Got his Wife in Egypt." For several Sunday evenings pastor Bollinger will preach on themes relating to Christ in Modern life.

Try Buckeye Extracts—Thanks.

In the initial foot-ball game between the Eastham and the Barclay teams last Friday, the former won by a score of 10 to 0, notwithstanding the fact that the High School team outweighed by 300 pounds in the aggregate the weight of the plucky young Easthamites.

Last evening the Oregon City Assembly United Artisans enjoyed a social visit from a large delegation of the Sellwood Assembly. An informal program of music and addresses was followed by the serving of cake and coffee and dancing.

Those who wish to buy millinery to the greatest advantage, call on Miss C. Goldsmith.

For the last six weeks the local plant of the Portland Flouring Mills Company has been running night and day and there are orders on hand sufficient to keep the mill running constantly for the next month. The orders are largely from the Orient, business with which has increased following an adjustment of the disturbed commercial relations in that country resulting from the Russian-Japanese war.

Found—Purse containing some money. Owner can have property by calling at the law office of U'Ren & Schuebel, proving property and paying for this notice.

Work has been renewed on the new road from the Clackamas river county bridge at Gladstone to Clackamas station. This road is about a mile and one-half in length, and last summer was graded, and work stopped. The thoroughfare is now being graded. All of the Damascus and Clackamas county will be opened up into Oregon City by the completion of this road, which has been practically impassable during the wet season.

Wise women use Buckeye Extracts.

Deputy Sheriff Shibley, of Springfield Wednesday evening brought

Giles Sarber, violently insane, to this city. Sarber was committed to the asylum. His demented condition is due to an excessive indulgence in liquor and worry over financial affairs. Sarber is 45 years of age and unmarried. It was first reported that John Stormer was the insane man at Springfield, but the mistake resulted from the confusion in telephoning to this city.

Money to loan on Farms. Land Titles examined. Dimick & Dimick, Lawyers, Oregon City, Oregon.

Chas. Hidy and Bertha Zingerling were married at the home of the bride's parents at Clackamas Heights Saturday evening, Rev. P. K. Hammond, officiating. They will reside at Parkside.

Ladies of the congregation of St. John's Catholic Church gave an entertainment and social last Wednesday night in Knapp's hall for the benefit of the fund for the new cement sidewalk fronting the church property. After the programme, dancing was indulged in until a late hour, and refreshments were served. The programme: Song, Rea Norris; recitation, Miss Barry; song, Marie Fredericks; recitation, Fred Baker; song, John Finucane, recitation, Miss Sinnott; song, Veta Kelly.

On the grounds of desertion, A May has filed suit for divorce from Grace May, whom he wedded at Kalama, Washington, in 1885. Plaintiff is now a resident of Portland.

The Argonaut for October 23d, contains, among many noteworthy features, another one of Jerome Hart's striking "In Arcadia" articles; a highly interesting letter from "R. E. H." in Tokio; a one-act play, entitled, "While Waiting for Harriet," by Kathleen Thompson; a description of a trip through the lake districts of Scotland, and an amusing translation from the Spanish; Josephine Hart Phelps reviews Eleanor Robson in her performance of Browning's "In a Balcony"; and Porter Garnett writes of "Otello," Harold Bauer, and a new Carmen.

It was not a charivari, but on the contrary a sane expression of sincere and warm congratulations and best wishes for much happiness and good fortune when about thirty of the friends of the groom called Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rechner. The evening was delightfully spent in music, vocal and instrumental, a delicious lunch being served. Mr. and Mrs. Rechner were presented with an elegant cut glass fruit dish by the invaders who dispersed shortly before midnight.

Small farm, also timber land near Oregon City for sale or will trade for Oregon City property; also small farm near town for rent for cash. Address, J. L. Swafford, Oregon City, Oregon.

The Buckeye Extract Company, of Olympia, Washington, has established a good business here at Oregon City in the sale of its spices and Baking Powder. In fact it is a case of the goods giving satisfaction or the dissatisfied customer gets his money back. See the Company's advertisement in the Enterprise.

The high bridge across the Clackamas River at Estacada is in such condition that it will probably be necessary to construct a new bridge next year. The timbers have rotted out and the structure is in an unsafe condition. J. W. McKay has gone with a force of men to make the necessary repairs to the structure. New approaches will be made and the timbers will be strengthened and many of them replaced. Mr. McKay will be at work all this week and a portion of next week, and will put the bridge in a condition for the winter travel.

F. Newton, of Oregon City, has the only first-class undertaking parlor and hearse in Clackamas county.

Suit for $10,000 damages was brought against the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company Wednesday by Charles L. Miller, who claims to have sustained permanent injuries while employed in the defendant company's mill in this city last May. Miller was employed in the "wood room" and was injured by being struck on the head by a stick of wood from the chute which he alleges was not properly equipped with the ordinary appliances known as safety gates. Because of this he charges the company with gross carelessness and negligence in not providing the ordinary protection and acquainting him with the dangerous character of his employment. Dimick & Dimick, of this city; J. H. McNary, of Salem and John Ditchburn, of Portland, are attorneys for the plaintiff.

EVANGELICAL ASSOCIATION.

Oct. 28—Highland, 3 p. m.; Shubel, 7:30 p. m. Oct. 29—Molalla, 11 a. m.; Canby, 7:30 p. m. Nov. 2—Maple Lane, 7:30 p. m. Nov. 4—Quarterly conference at 2 p. m., at Oregon City. Nov. 5—Quarterly Meeting Sunday, Oregon City—11:00 a. m. Shubel—3:00 p. m. Highland—3:00 p. m. Oregon City—7:30 p. m. W. H. WETTLAUFER, Pastor.

WILLS ESTATE TO ONE BROTHER.

The will of Wm. C. Lichtenthaler, whose dead body was found a few days ago at his cabin near Wilsonville, was admitted to probate Tuesday. By the terms of the instrument, the estate consisting of real estate and personal property of the value of $5000, is practically all left to a brother, F. M. Lichtenthaler. Among the bequests is that of ten cents to Dr. E. A. Pierce, while the other relatives are cut off with cash amounts of fifty cents and a dollar each.

"A dose in time save lives." Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Nature's remedy for coughs, colds, pulmonary diseases of every sort.

The Starting Point

of many a successful man's career was his first deposit. There is something about a bank account which creates an ambition to make it grow. We invite you to start an account with us. The littleness of your cash need not stand in the way. Many a now wealthy man has commenced with less.

"CENTS ADDED TO CENTS MAKES DOLLARS" THE BANK OF OREGON CITY

Personal Mention

G. B. Jacobs has returned to New York City.

Mrs. T. A. McBride spent Saturday at St. Helens.

Sam Gregory, of Carus, was in the city Saturday.

B. F. Harless, of Molalla, was in the city Tuesday.

Wm. Stubbe, of Currinsville, was in the city this week.

W. D. Brown, the Viola merchant, was in the city Monday.

Miss Gertrude Bashor spent Sunday with relatives at Salem.

R. L. Stewart, a farmer from Needy, was in the city last Saturday.

Miss Echo Samson visited this week with friends at Silverton.

Dr. J. W. Powell, of Molalla, was an Oregon City visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. J. N. Dustin, the New Era merchant, was in the city Monday.

Mrs. E. Graves, of Canby, is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. A. Bradley.

Mrs. George Hoeve and son, Emerson, are visiting with Salem friends.

Mrs. E. Ford, of Pueblo, Mexico, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. M. Howell.

Mrs. R. L. Holman has returned from a week's visit with friends at Portland.

Miss Edna Levy has returned to Union after a visit with friends in this city.

Mayor Wm. Schindler, of Milwaukee, was in the city one day the first of the week.

John Samuelson, of Canby, was in the city Monday and registered at the Electric.

Attorney G. B. Dimick had business before the supreme court at Salem last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Humphrys spent the week with their son, Charles T. Humphrys at Astoria.

Mayor A. L. Goodwillie and Miss Annie Midlam, of Bend, spent Sunday with friends at Canemah.

Mrs. J. W. Alldredge has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Sophia Miller at Kingsley.

Miss Sybil Lippett has gone to Colfax, Washington, where she will spend two weeks visiting her father.

Miss Silcox has returned to her home at Oakland, California, after visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Younger.

Ernest P. Rands and party have returned from Southern Oregon where a surveying contract was performed.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Guild, and daughter, of Alameda, California, are visiting Mrs. Guild's mother, Mrs. Holden.

I. Price has returned from The Dalles and has taken a place in the store conducted by his brothers in this city.

Miss Melzeta Brown, of Boston, arrived Saturday and will reside with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Brown at Maple Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Schwab have moved from Portland to Oregon City and are living in the McGowan cottage on Seventh street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams, of Forest Grove, were in the city the first of the week to attend Miss Conyer's farewell concert.

Mrs. T. F. Ryan, Grand Worthy Patron of the Order of the Eastern Star, has returned from St. Helens where she made an official visit to the local Chapter.

Rev. E. S. Bollinger, pastor of the Congregational church in this city, attended the sessions of the Congregational state association at Forest Grove last week.

Mrs. Chas. Albright, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Church, of Lind, Washington, leave tomorrow for a month's sojourn at Red Bluff and other points in California.

Miss Sophia Wolf, who participated in the Conyer's concert Monday evening, has returned to her home at Silverton, after visiting Mrs. Kathryn Warde Pope for a few days.

Mrs. Mary Manning, who conducts the Mullino store, was in the city Monday. Mrs. Manning reports that the new bridge across Milk Creek at Mullino, is practically completed.

Wm. J. Clarke, editor of the Gervais Star, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. Clarke is an active candidate for the Republican nomination for State Printer and proposes to conduct an active campaign among the people.

Mr. and Mrs. George Batdorf have returned from Condon and will resume their residence in this city. After a year's residence in the eastern part of the state, they have reached the conclusion that the Willamette Valley is entirely good enough for them.

Dr. James Withycombe, of the State Agricultural College at Corvallis, was in the city Wednesday en route to Portland to confer with a committee relative to a number of prospective farmers' institutes to be held in the Valley. Dr. Withycombe is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor.

Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Adams, of Derry, New Hampshire, who have been visiting their uncle and aunt, Thomas and Mary Shute, near this city, in connection with an extended visit through the western part of the United States, have started on their return trip. En route home they will visit in California.

Dr. Beattie & Beattie, Dentists, Rooms 16, 17 18, Weinhard Building.

Scald head is an eczema of the scalp—very severe sometimes, but it can be cured. Doan's Ointment, quick and permanent in its results. At any drug store.

Cures croup, sore throat, pulmonic troubles—Monarch over pain of every sort. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil.

WANTED

A Bright Young Man with Light Team in your county, steady work and good wages, for the right man. References required. For full particulars address Nov 1. KOCH V. T. Co., Winona, Minn.

A PLEASED CUSTOMER

A GOOD ADVERTISER

The following are only a few of the prominent people of Oregon City and Willamette who have used the BUCKEYE EXTRACTS for over two years with perfect satisfaction. They say that they last longer and give a better flavor than any brand they ever used. They are true to their name and retain their strength in baking and freezing.

MRS. E. MASS, Willamette MRS. G. L. HEDGES Mrs. J. H. FORBES, Oregon City Mrs. C. B. WILSON Mrs. A. REILLY, " Mrs. MORLEY, Cliff House Mrs. JACOB CASSELL, Electric Hotel

The BUCKEYE EXTRACT sales have more than quadrupled in the last year, which proves their merit. For Sale by the following Grocers.

D. M. KLEMSEN T. J. GARY, Willamette HORTON & JACK J. E. SEEBLEY A. ROBERTSON

—Ask for—

BUCKEYE SPICES AND BAKING POWDER

Now on Sale

Must Please or Your Money Refunded

BUCKEYE EXTRACT CO.

OLYMPIA, - - WASH.

RETIRING SALE

Economy Leads to Success

All Conservative Buyers should turn their footsteps toward our

Great Retiring Sale Everything Must Go

Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Furnishing Goods, and Women's, Misses, Men's and Children's Dress and Working Shoes

Table with 2 columns: Clothing and Overcoats, and In Our Shoe Department. Lists items like Men's and Boys' Suits, Overcoats, Shirts, and various styles of shoes with prices.

J. M. PRICE

Sixth & Main Sts.

OREGON CITY, OREGON

One Block South of Suspension Bridge