Sneak-Thief Gets $50-

While G. Fischer, merchant at Logan, was temporarily absent from his store last Thursday, some one enter-ed a rear window and appropriated of the cash, amounting to about $50 from the money drawer. Mr. Fischer has strong suspicions as to the gullty party, but no arrests have yet been made.

Dies While at Work-P. Stuve, a laborer, working in the Barton sawmill, died suddenly last Wednesday night in his shack at Barton. Coroner Holman of this city investigated the death, and on the certificate of a physician that Stuve's death was caused by heart disease, decided that an inquest was unnecessary. Stuve, was a recent immigrant from California.

Died at Willamette-

Dale Zernon Hyatt, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Hyatt, died Saturmorning at the family home in Willamette, after a brief illness, aged 2 years and 6 months. Death was due typhoid fever and complications resulting from bronchitis. The funeral was held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the residence and the interment took place at Mountain View. cemetery

Awarded a Gold Medal-

School of this city has been awarded a gold medal for exhibits in the educational exhibit of the Benedictine Sisters at the Lewis & Clark Exposition. St. John's School exhibited the grammar course and received very favorable comment from the judges. This medal was awarded for the collective exhibit from the seven Catholic schools in Oregon that are conducted by the Benedictine Sisters. The exhibit will be turned over to the school.

The badly decomposed remains of W. C. Lichtenthaler, a German batchelor aged 58 years, were found Saturday morning at his cabin about two miles from Wilsonville, this county. Coroner Holman made an investiga-tion that went to show that the deceased came to his death from natural causes. No inquest was considered necessary. Lichtenthaler was last seen alive about ten days ago and from the condition of the body when discovered, it is thought that the man had been dead for more than a week. Other than one brother, the dead man has no relatives in this country.

More Time Granted-

Judge Frazier, of Portland, granted an extension in time until yesterday in which counsel for the plaintiff in the injunction suit of Wm. Andresen against three members of the Oregon City Council could present their brief. This is the suit wherein Councilmen Mason, Justin and Chapman, employes of the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company, are sought to be restrained from voting on an ordinance granting to that company a 35-year freight franchise to Main street. Attorney O. W. Eastham has withdrawn as one of the counsel for Wm. Andresen, the plaintiff, and in prosecuting the suit Bruce C. Curry will be assisted by

An Old Tax List-

G. L. Hedges.

In re-arranging some old records in the court house basement a few days ago, preparatory to installing therein the Clacamas county exhibit that is being returned from the Lewis & Clark Exposition, Jailor Peter Neh-ren discovered the tax list of 1858. The record is of especial interest by reason of the many old pioneers whose Captain and Mrs. Staynes are the new officers in charge of the Oregon at that early day. Decidedly different from the modern record book with its colored ruling and durable binding is this record which consists of several sheets of hand-ruled blank paper, all of the wording being in ink. At that time the total amoun of assessable property in the county was $1,947,180. On this valuation, taxes aggregating $14,396.26 was raised. This amount was distributed among the following funds: Territor-ial tax, one mill, $1947.17; school tax one mill, $1947.18; county, 5 mills, $9735.90; polls, $769. Found Dead In Cabin-

Mr. Sheahan Resigns-

Wm. Sheahan, for many years foreman at the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company's mills in this city, has resigned his place and left this week for New York state where he has several offers of similar employment in the mills of that state. Mr. Sheahan was a member of the Oregon City Council and a respected and progressive citizen. It is not probable that anything will be done towards electing another alderman to complete the unexpired portion of Mr. Shea han's term in the city council since the regular annual election is to be held in December. Mr. Sheahan was especially popular with the large force of operatives at the paper mills and he goes from the city with the best wishes of these men together with the people of the city generally for success and a generous share of the good things of this world wherever he may be located. On Saturday afternoon the employes of the mill pre-sented Mr. Sheahan a beautiful gold

MISS CONYER'S CONCERT.

The musical peolpe gave Miss Mary Conyers an enthusiastic farewell at Woodmen Hall Monday evening. Beautiful autumn leaves were utilized in prettily decorating the hall. A more entertaining programme had not been presented in this city for years and the various contributors were enthuslastically encored, each number being truly a gem.

Miss Holland, the young planist, made a decided hit with her wonderful playing and pleasing grace. It is

is not without reason?

If her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy or congestion of any organ, it is at this time likely to become active and, with a host of nervous irritations, make life a burden.

At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to begin their destructive work. Such warning symptoms as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, dizziness, headache, dread of impending evil, sounds in the ears, timidity, pal-pitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life when woman's great change may be expected. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Com-

Califf Made Good-

Many Oregon City fans witnessed the two concluding league baseball games of the season at Portland, Sunday, Portland taking both games from Frisco by scores of 3 to 0 and 2 to 0. In the afternoon, Califf. Oregon City's young twirler, was given a chance and made good by shutting out Frisco which got only two hits. Regarding Califf's work, the Oregonian on Monday, said: Buck Keith, who officiated as umpire in the games played yes-terday, has a good word for young Califf, who pitched the second game for Portland yesterday. Keith says that, in his opinion, the youngster is one of the cleverest pitchers he has ever seen. "I have seen a great many in my day," said Keith after yesterday's game, "but for coolness and re-serve the young fellow produced by McCredie takes the bakery. He ought to make good with ease, for he has control and curves to spare. After Nealon hit that long drive I expected him to go up in the air, but he kept plugging away, and deserves great credit for pitching such a good game. He deserved to win, and I am pleased that he did, for the youngster deserv-es success." Keith is a veteran um-pire, and is capable of giving a de-CIVES RELIEF AT ONCE. WIFE WOULDN'T LEAVE SWEDEN Despondent Over the Fact, Nels Swa din Suicides by Hanging.

Despondent because his wife would not come to America from Sweden and discouraged with his worldly lot, Nels Swadin, suicided at Boring by hang-ing last Thursday morning. The deceased was aged 41 years and had lived at Boring less than a year. Other than a wife in Sweden, he had no other known relatives in this country. Swadin had been acting strangely for a number of days, threatening to end his life. He was being watched by neighbors who were arranging to have him examined for commitment to the asylum. Thursday morning the suicide terrorized the residents of Boring by going from house to house in quest of a gun. Being a powerful man physically, he frightened the peo-ple of the town who refused to provide him with the desired fire arm. A close watch was kept over the man, while help could be summoned, but he cleverly dodged his keepers only to be discovered a few minutes later hanging from a rafter in a barn. The body was hurriedly cut down, but life was extinct. Coroner Holman was notified and an inquest being had, a verdict of death by hanging with suicidal intent, was returned.
