E. P. CARTER THINKS IT'S ABOUT TIME FOR A NEW DEAL.

Admonishes Republicans of Danger of Continuing One Man Dictatorship.

Editor Enterprise:—

In reading an account of the Republican "love feast" held in Portland the other day, I notice that the meeting decided that it would never do to allow the candidates selected by the direct primary method to go before the people until the leaders had held a convention to ratify the nominations and formulate a platform on which to go before the people.

Did it never occur to the leaders that the time has come when the great mass of the voters don't care a "tinker's dam" for a platform promulgated by a few self appointed leaders, but what they do want is honest, competent men to fill the county and state offices; men free from control and dictation by these same leaders.

For a good many years it has been the custom for a certain class of Republican leaders, when in control of a nomination to declare their undying allegiance to the Republican party, and their willingness to support whoever might be nominated for the various offices, regardless of their fitness or unfitness for office. And not a man in Clackamas County who knows anything about the politics of the county for a number of years past, but who has seen these same loyal leaders have made all kinds of trades and combinations with the several other parties of the county in order to elect their own henchmen and defeat everyone not willing to come under their control. The writer has always believed that loyalty to duty and to the people should come before loyalty to any political party, especially when a party was dominated and controlled by its own unprincipled bosses, who had no interests in the welfare of the county and state, except to advance their own political interests.

When we look at the condition of the politics of the state and county, is it not about time that we dispensed with the services of the leaders, in the way of formulating a platform and principles and let the people select their own candidates and elect them on the broad principles of honesty and fitness for the various offices, and dispense with the services of a large share of political deadbeats who, for a number of years back, have been making an election campaign so expensive that few men can afford to run for office.

There is one thing dead sure if the bosses undertake to defeat the will of the people in regard to the direct primary law they will elect a Democratic set of officers at next Spring's election. But what do the bosses care for that? better that, and we can even conceive of their conniving at such an end, than that they should lose their grip on the voters of the county.

Reform is in the air and it seems to me that now if ever is the time for the people of Clackamas County and the whole state to break loose from boss rule and corrupt politics and have a general house-cleaning to the end that the Republican party of Clackamas county need not be any longer a laughing stock for the whole state, as a party owned and controlled by one man.

Yours for a new deal,
E. P. CARTER.

CLEVERNESS AND CHARM.

Woman's Greatest Charm is a Glowing Complexion.

Every woman's aim should be to cultivate a fresh, blooming complexion. Nature may not have made her attractive in form and feature, her charm of a clear skin and a healthy complexion can be had if she will only try for it. The greatest enemy of a good complexion is constipation, and if it were known how many Oregon City ladies have improved their appearance through using a simple laxative remedy on sale at Huntley Bros Co.'s drug store it might surprise you. Laxakola Tonic Tablets are a perfect combination of dandelion, cascara and other vegetable extracts known to have a peculiarly beneficial action upon the skin. They open the pores, enrich the blood, aid the natural changes of the skin, quicken the circulation, put new color in the cheeks and cure chronic constipation by regulating and encouraging the action of the bowels. Huntley Bros. Co. would not continue to recommend this remedy if it did not possess unusual merit, and unless Laxakola Tonic Tablets do benefit you as claimed we will return your 25 cents without the least argument.

WOULD BE STATE PRINTER.

Wm. J. Clarke, editor of the Gervais Star, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. Clarke is an active candidate for the Republican nomination for State Printer and proposes to conduct an active campaign among the people. On the theory that the office of State Printer cannot be abolished until the close of the next printer-elect's term, in event the proposed constitutional amendment abolishing the office is adopted by the people at the June election, Mr. Clarke is making an active canvas for the nomination. Mr. Clarke contends that since the proposed legislation abolishing the office will not be submitted to a vote of the people until June, when a State Printer is to be elected for a term of four years, then if the office is abolished, it would not effect the officer-elect.

HUSBAND HAS MANY GRIEVANCES.

To "knock and queer" one's husband with his employers is considered ample grounds for divorce by Morris Gumbert, a Portland musician, who has instituted divorce proceedings against Ray Gumbert whom he married at Portland in July, 1897. In an extended complaint Gumbert accuses his wife with a wholesale interference between himself and his employers. Gumbert further complains of the gross extravagance of his wife whom he charges with having managed to keep him practically penniless the major part of their married life. As an instance of the wife's spendthrift habits, Gumbert alleges that she purchased at one time a seal skin jacket for which she paid $50. After wearing the garment for a week, it is charged that she sold it to the dealer for $25 and then purchased a similar garment for $60. At another time the wife is accused of having driven the plaintiff from the house into the street with a mouthful of partially masticated food.

THE ROACH COMPANY ON MONDAY EVENING.

Manager Shively announces that the Roach Dramatic Company has been engaged for the week of October 30.

The Roach Company will open with the comedy drama in four acts, entitled "My Sweetheart." The play is interspersed with comedy and good situations.

The Roach company has been highly recommended both by the press and public from other cities where they have been playing as the best company in this east. This company is direct from the east and with them they have the ever popular and California's favorite, Miss Bessie Courtwright.

To this company there are two features. The first is the skill and aptitude with which each member of the organization adapts different characters represented throughout the week in the different plays. The second feature, like the first is peculiar to the Roach Company, and consists in the distribution of presents to the patrons of the house. Though it may seem startling, it is a fact that during the week nine costly and beautiful presents will be given away absolutely free to lucky coupon holders.

No. 1 present will be a high grade sewing machine; No. 2, ladies' bicycle; No. 3, gentleman's bicycle; No. 4, and 5, two talking machines; No. 6 and 7, two cameras; No. 8 and 9, two mandolins. Everybody purchasing a ticket for the Roach company will have an equal chance of getting one or more of these presents.

These handsome gifts are now on exhibition at Miles & McGlashan's grocery store. The prices for this engagement are 15c, 25c and 35c and seats are now on sale at Huntley's drug store. With each children's ticket is given one coupon, with each 25c ticket 2 coupons, and with each 35c reserved seat ticket, 3 coupons. A drawing is conducted each night by the committee appointed from the audience, and some of the above gifts are awarded at each performance, so if coupon holders are disappointed one evening they may be fortunate the next. Get your tickets now.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

E. D. Kelly Elected to Succeed Wm. Sheahan as Councilman.

At a regular adjourned meeting of the Oregon City Council Tuesday evening, E. D. Kelly was elected to succeed Councilman Wm. Sheahan, of the Second Ward, whose resignation was accepted. J. M. Tracey was the other candidate and the vote was 5 to 3 for Kelly who promptly took the oath of office and received his certificate of election which had been made out, "according to program," in advance of the meeting. Mr. Kelly will serve until the regular election in December when the vacancy will be filled.

Councilman Koerner offered a motion asking that the question of granting the proposed freight franchise to the O. W. P. & Ry. Co., be regularly submitted to a popular vote at the municipal election in December, but the proposition was defeated by a vote of 5 to 3, the detailed vote being: For—Knapp, Koerner, and Williams. Against—Brandt, Chapman, Justin, Kelly and Mason; not voting, Straight. By the same vote the Council moved to adjourn until Friday evening, a motion to the effect that the next meeting of the body be held on the regular meeting night for November being sidetracked by the usual 5 to 3 vote.

The contract for improving Fifth street was awarded John Bittner.

Waiting doesn't pay. If you neglect the aching back, Urinary troubles, diabetes, surely follow. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve back-ache.

Cure every Kidney Ill. W. H. Kelly, engineer employed on the Union Pacific R. R., living at 391 2d street, Portland, Oregon, says: "For several years I was bothered more or less with kidney trouble, particularly if I contracted a cold when it was sure to seat itself in the region of the kidneys. I wasted a lot of time trying medicines which did not help me, but finally learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box. The first few doses helped me so much that I continued taking them until I had used six boxes. They relieved me entirely and since I stopped taking them there has not been the slightest sign of a recurrence. I have advised others to use Doan's Kidney Pills and shall continue to recommend them."

MULE-FOOTED HOGS.

B. E. Moore, a farmer residing near Sherwood, this week marketed with Chas. Albright a number of mule-footed hogs. Other than their hoofs, which are quite similar to those of the mule, these animals do not differ essentially from the hog family as it is known in this state. The mule-footed breed, while rare and practically unknown in this section is not uncommon in the middle Eastern states.

Originally the breed came from a species of wild hogs in Kentucky. Being captured, the raising of this breed proved profitable. The stock from which Mr. Moore's herd was raised, was brought to Oregon five years ago from Illinois and are a peculiarly hardy animal. It has been the experience of Mr. Moore that they are immune from cholera. While a part of Mr. Moore's herd are but an eighth or a sixteenth breed, they retain the mule-foot feature of the original stock.

No one would ever be bothered with constipation if everyone knew how naturally and quickly Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the stomach and bowels.

"Wasn't trying to commit suicide? Why, she jumped off the end of the pier into thirty feet of water and sank like a stone!" "I know, but she just explained to the man who rescued her that she had learned to swim at a correspondence school." — Houston Post.
