ASSIST A WORTHY CAUSE
 The captain of the Salvation Army wants some money. What for? To partition off room, and fit up two single beds, clean and vermin proof, that can easily be kept clean. That any poor, homeless, friendless, penniless brother, or sister that is in need, can be kept off the street for the night, and started off with new courage and hope in the morning. The Captain would be glad to call upon you and explain the purpose and need.

 "Can I sit in your hall for the night?" was the question asked by a young man Tuesday night. Homeless, and penniless, and workless, through sickness, and when questioned, hungry too. Also anyone having cast off garments, men's, women's or children's shoes, etc., we would be glad to receive such.
 Yours respectfully,
CAPT. AND MRS. STAYNES.
ANNUAL SALE.
 The ladies of St. Paul's Guild are busy preparing for their annual sale, which will take place about December 15th. Many useful and fancy articles suitable for Christmas gifts will be on sale at that time.
"HOOLIGAN" COMING TO TOWN.
 Another dramatization of the Sunday comic supplement is due. This time it is "Hooligan" who is portrayed under the calcium light, the "Hooligan" who manages to get into all sorts of trouble only to bob up again next week with the same smiling countenance. In his stage clothes "Hooligan" has a broad expansive smile that is as good as a tonic and while the plot will not tire anyone the comedy is there for all of "Hooligan's" mishaps for the past few years have been boiled down into a three hour entertainment.
 Yet there are claims made for "Hooligan" this time that there are somewhat beyond the average farce comedy. "Hooligan" is on earth for pleasure and nothing vulgar is allowed to creep into his talk or mannerisms. He is not like the average tramp of the average "tramp" comedy. He can sing and dance and he can find trouble always awaiting him but when he laughs it off it is only to plunge into fresh difficulties for the enjoyment of the audience.
 The plot contains many skillfully contrived situations and uproariously funny complications. Manager A. J. Aylesworth, who brings his company from New York, offers a piece full of snappy, witty dialogue, a charmingly costumed chorus, excellent scenic environment and a medley of songs, dances and specialties.

 "Hooligan's Troubles" will be presented at Shively's Opera House on Monday, November 20.
 "I owe my whole life to Burdock Blood Bitters. Scrofulous sores covered my body. I seemed beyond cure. B. B. B. has made a perfectly well woman of me." Mrs. Chas. Hutton, Berville, Mich.
WELCOME EXCURSIONISTS.
 Portland Business Men Spend Thirty Minutes at Oregon City.
 The Portland Business Men's Excursion reached Oregon City on schedule time at 12:40 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.
 There was waiting at the depot a committee, consisting of business men and representatives of the Oregon City Board of Trade, who formally welcomed the visitors to the city, J. E. Hedges acting as spokesman.
 Mr. Hedges congratulated the business men of Portland and the people of the entire state in their efforts to get together and work in harmony, bespeaking for the state an unprecedented growth and development in consequence of harmonious action and co-operation. Following a stop of thirty minutes the excursion train continued its way.
 Among the business men of the city who greeted the visitors at the depot, were: John Adams, J. U. Campbell, F. T. Griffith, Judge T. F. Ryan, C. H. Dye, and G. A. Harding, of the Board of Trade; E. G. Caulfield, Frank Busch, J. E. Hedges, W. S. U'Ren, C. G. Huntley, Sam Selling, Wm. Andresen, C. D. Latourette, J. W. Cole, L. E. Jones, C. W. Kelly, W. F. Miles, L. Adams, W. L. Block, Wm. Willson, H. S. Moody and R. C. Ganong, representing the business men of the city.
 A household necessity. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. It cures burns, cuts, and wounds of any sort; cures sore throat, croup, catarrh, asthma; never fails.
 The little folks live Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Pleasant to take; perfectly harmless. Positive cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma.
