Rates Specified in existing signed contracts with Lighting Customers will be modified accordingly, after January 1, without further notice.

PORTLAND GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY

C. G. Miller Contract Manager for Oregon City.

room where a bountiful and elaborate dinner was served in courses. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Moran, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ely and children, of Ely, Miss Maud Moran, Mrs. E. Matchett and Miss Jennie Wisner. Thirty-five years of married life is not always allotted to many, and when we read of seventy divorce cases in one term of court, we surely can look upon a long career of married life as something to be admired among our best citizens and have many friends who will heartily wish them a long and happy life together.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burley and son Miles visited at St. Johns on Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Matchett and Mrs. Gillett were delegates from here to the County S. S. Convention held in the Congregational church in Oregon City.

Mr. Will Henry, of Portland, visited friends here last Sunday.

Mr. Will Henry of Portland visited friends here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Comer took their little boy to the hospital at Portland to have an operation performed.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. West is quite sick.

Mr. O. S. Sherrard, who has been spending the summer here, went last Tuesday to Tacoma, Washington, to visit his sons.

The rumor that the arc light is to be removed from Lewellen's corner to the corner of Everhart's store is regretted, but that don't help the matter.

Mr. Peebler has been visiting her parents for the last few days.

Mrs. B. J. Helvey was visiting Mrs. John Burns last Sunday.

Mr. B. J. Helvey went out to Dix Bros. saw mill last Sunday.

Sturges brothers are running their saw mill at present.

Mr. Hammelman is also having a lot of land cleared.

Mr. C. P. Burns and wife were visiting at Grandma Knotts last Sunday.

Brights Disease And Diabetes

Announcement of the Discovery of the Cure.

The stockholders of the John J. Fulton Co. of San Francisco announce to the world the curability of Chronic Bright's Disease and Diabetes based on hundreds of cures and two years of demonstration disclosing about 87% of recoveries. In attestation of these momentous facts we present the names of some of the stockholders, business and professional men of this city, every one of whom had to have previous opinions reversed and be satisfied of the genuineness of the discovery before investing in this corporation, viz: Hon. Barclay Henley, Attorney and ex-member of Congress; Thos. Kirkpatrick, capitalist; Hon. D. M. Burns, President Candelaria Mining Co.; A. E. Shattuck, President Pacific States Type Foundry; Edward Mills, President Bullock & Jones Co.; Capt. Roberts, President Sacramento Transportation Co.; D. E. Bender, capitalist; Wm. Sharp, capitalist; W. B. Bradford, Alaska Packers Ass.; C. W. Clark, capitalist (Sacramento); W. C. Price, capitalist (Pasadena); G. E. Bates, Attorney; E. O. Miller, Attorney; Chas. McLane, Agency Director N. Y. Life Ins. Co.; Judge Bigelow, ex-Supreme Judge State of Nevada; Col. D. B. Fairbanks, Cashier Petroleum Savings Bank; R. D. Sessions, Attorney So. Pac. R. R. Co., and many others.

The list of the cured runs into hundreds and includes druggists and physicians. The 13% of failures was largely among cases that were at death's door and many such recovered.

The Specifics that have at last conquered these dread diseases are known as the Fulton Compounds. The Renal Compound for Bright's and Kidney Disease is $1; the Diabetes Compound is $1.50. We have established an agency in your city and you will find pamphlets and Compounds at Charman & Co., City Drug Store.

Mr. Corbett called on James Wilkerson last Sunday.

John Thomas was visiting T. J. Grimes last Sunday.

John Helvey is working for his uncle near Silverton.

Mr. John Robins is having some land cleared this winter.

Charles Spangler, of Carus, passed through here a few days ago with a load of farm machinery.

The people of this vicinity would like to see our road supervisor open up the balance of our new road just any time now.

SPRINGWATER.

It was stated that Mr. Kiggins had sold a part of his farm to a Mr. Cooper of Kansas. He did, and Mr. Cooper paid $50 on the same, but when the time set to close the deal came around, Mr. Cooper failed to appear.

There will be a Christmas tree. Everybody invited.

Springwater voters are pleased with the outcome of the Oregon City election. If they did not have a direct interest in the election, they have an interest in the welfare of the whole of Clackamas county.

STAFFORD.

Thanksgiving passed off very quietly.

Mr. Powell took his wife to the hospital to be operated upon for appendicitis. She had been in bed a week suffering from it, and work came that she was to be operated upon Monday. All are anxious to hear that she will come out of it all right, as she has endeared herself to a wide circle of friends in the two years she has been in Stafford.

Mr. Scott and wife, who is a sister of Mrs. Powell, are caring for the home and attending the store in the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Powell.

Mrs. Weddle, another young married lady, was ordered to Southern California for an affection of the bronchial tubes and left on Saturday for Los Angeles. All hope for her speedy recovery and return to her husband and young family.

Mr. George Saum Sr., returned home last Saturday, bringing his bride. This is his third venture, and quite a romance, as he had never seen the lady until the day he met her at Portland by appointment, as she alighted from the California car. They had corresponded some time and had first been attracted to each other by the introduction of a mutual friend. Mr. Saum was unfortunately taken in in Portland at the home of a niece, and has not entirely recovered his usual health yet.

The band boys braved the inclemency of the weather and filled their appointment at Willamette on Tuesday night. There is never any backing down with the band boys, some of them from Shafer's hill went on foot loaded down with instruments, umbrellas and lanterns, and Joe Nimic, the youngest of the band, walked from Stafford.

Mrs. Mollie Steiner, nee Jaster, and her husband, are at her fathers for a few days. Her husband, who is a carpenter, is putting up a new woodshed for Mr. Jaster.

CURE FOR SORE NIPPLES.

As soon as the child is done nursing apply Chamberlain's Salve. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the child to nurse. Many trained nurses use this with the best results. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Howell & Jones.

MT. PLEASANT.

Mt. Pleasant extends her very best wishes to the Enterprise for another successful year.

Mrs. Dan O'Neill spent Sunday with relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hart and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Andrews and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Andrews and Mr. Newton Voorhees, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Andrews.

Mrs. L. M. Hoyt and children of Hillsboro, spent the latter part of last week with Mrs. Hoyt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Taber.

Mrs. M. S. E. Lawton, Mrs. Dan O'Neill Mr. and Mrs. Ward B. Lawton, Miss Mary Holmes and Miss Mona Elizabeth King were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Warner Thanksgiving.

Mrs. W. M. Thornton, of Rose Farm, is ill at "The Norton," in Portland.

Mrs. R. H. Taber is confined to her home with rheumatism.

Mrs. Elizabeth Warner is expected home soon from man extended visit with Mayor and Mrs. A. E. King, at Ilwaco, Washington.

Mrs. Jack Marrs has returned from Corvallis where she spent Thanksgiving with her son, Lester, who is attending college at that place.

A SUGGESTED IMPROVEMENT.

I'm glad we have Thanksgiving' day. But wouldn't it be splendid if there could only be some way To skip one, when it's ended?

Somehow it seems that pa ferigits There's any cause for laughter, And only wants to give us fits For livin', the day after.

He growls around and seems almost To think we're all agin' him; All day it's nothin' but a roast, As though old Nick was in him.

I'm glad Thanksgiving' comes, but, say, They'd be less hate and scorn in The world if we could skip a day Beginn'in' the next mornin'.

—S. E. Kiser.

The pie social at the church did not bring out a very large attendance, but the literary program, though brief, was good. The receipts of the social were $4.25. Arrangements are already started for a Christmas entertainment.

Mr. Chas. Stewart, who has been very ill, is slowly recovering. His advanced age is very much against a permanent recovery.

Thanksgiving Day passed quietly, not many were being entertained.

Mrs. May Fairclough is spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. Lewellen, while her husband is in the mines.

Mr. James Murrow has been attending the poultry show at Corvallis, and returned as usual with his share of ribbons.

Last Wednesday, the quilt was disposed of that has been offered for some weeks. Mrs. Turney, of Oregon City, winning the prize.

Little Opal Selly is quite sick.

Moses Skinner moved his family down to Portland, where he has a position as cook for a boarding house.

Elmer Dixon has been attending the poultry show at Corvallis acting in the capacity of Judge.

Chas. Dicky has taken a position as solicitor for a life insurance company and is writing up policies.

Last Friday Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moran celebrated their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary. Just at the noon hour to the music of a wedding march played softly by their youngest daughter, Maud, the bride and groom entered the parlor and taking their places accompanied by their son Mahlon and daughter, Mrs. Ely, the impressive words were again repeated and responded. After congratulations, the happy company repaired to the dining
