TERSELY-TOLD TALES OF THE WEEK'S DOINGS.

New Record Reached—
County Clerk Greenman reports that the receipts of his office for the month of November aggregated $775.40. This is the largest sum in fees received in a single month in the history of the office. Much of the receipts came as fees from the circuit court which held its semi-annual session during the month.

To Collect Poll Tax—
J. E. Witzig, supervisor of the road district at Gladstone, has brought suit in the justice court against Carl Johnson to collect a delinquent road poll tax of $3 which Johnson refuses to pay. Johnson is a Swedish fisherman residing on the Clackamas river near this city, who was recently fined $50 in the circuit court for fishing without a license.

Court in January—
Judge McBride has granted a decree of divorce in the suit of H. D. Boyles against Violet Boyles. The divorce suit of Flora Troge against Henry Troge has been dismissed, reconciliation having been effected between the parties who reside near Damascus. Judge McBride will not convene court again in this city during December, as expected, and will not have another sitting here until January 8.

Surprise Party—
A pleasant surprise party was given Genevieve Shaver Thursday afternoon at her home on Water street, the occasion being her 12th birthday. Those present were: Evelyn Harding, Marie Sheahan, Alice and Zena Moore, Clara Fields, Pearl and Opal George, Belle Cassell, Joe and Eddie Sheahan, Gilbert and Ray Morris, Edmond Bollack, Byron and Orrin Moore, Emerson Hoeye, Clara Fields and Joe Sheahan won prizes in the peanut game.

In the Divorce Court—
Judge McBride Saturday granted a decree of divorce in the case of Sarpia P. McDowell against Lowt. Edward McDowell. The custody of a minor child was also awarded the plaintiff. This was Attorney Howard Latourette's maiden case. Alleging desertion and failure to provide, Lydia Hooper, of Portland, has filed suit for divorce from Samuel H. Hooper to whom she was married at Portland in May, 1894. Plaintiff asks for the custody of the minor children.

Talent for Chautauqua—
Secretary Harvey E. Cross, of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association, left the first of the week for San Francisco, to attend the annual meeting of delegates representing the various Pacific Coast Assemblies when plans will be arranged for the co-operation of these Associations in the holding of this year's Chautauqua Assemblies. While the probable talent that will be engaged for this year's meetings has not been determined, it is understood that the effort to procure the services of Senator LaFollet, of Wisconsin, will be renewed this year. An unsuccessful attempt was made last year to engage this national celebrity.

No Change in Rates—
Contrary to numerous verbal and published reports, there will be no change in present schedule of rates on the O. W. P. & Ry Co.'s lines between this city and Portland, says the Oregon City Journal correspondent in Saturday's paper. Treasurer Fred S. Morris of the company said yesterday in speaking of these reports: "The Oregon Water Power & Railway company is a business institution, conducted on business principles, and in the future, just as in the past, it will run cars to and from Oregon City for business purposes. No change will be made in the present tariff of passenger fares until it is shown to be good policy to make the change."

G. A. Steele Candidate for Treasurer—
George A. Steele, it is rumored, has entered the political arena as a candidate for the Republican nomination for state treasurer. This gives Clackamas county two candidates for this office, as County Judge Thomas F. Ryan has been in the field for several months and is understood to have built up a considerable following in different parts of the state. Mr. Steele was postmaster of the city of Portland at one time; has been chairman of the Republican state committee and has been the committeeman for Oregon on the Republican national committee. In connection with his brother, James Steele, he built the line from Oregon City to Portland, now owned by the Oregon Water Power & Railway Co., and was identified with street railway building in Portland.

Beat Husband's Drunken Companion.
Tiring of the weekly debauches of her husband, who makes a practice of becoming intoxicated every Sunday with strangers, whom he invariably takes home with him to assist in abusing his wife, Mrs. R. McKinstry, last Sunday afternoon became enraged and arming herself with an ax handle, assaulted Joseph Busch, her husband's companion, whom she beat severely and then called the police, to whom she surrendered the disturber, who was lodged in jail on a charge of disorderly conduct. Busch was badly handled, and although armed with a club, with which he attempted to defend himself, was not equal to the emergency. Sunday's fracas at the McKinstry home is the culmination of a series of similar quarrels, but this is the first instance in which any of the participants have landed in jail. McKinstry was not arrested.

Full of vigor and frolic the whole day long. So when Mamma needs more they rush off in high glee. And shout to the druggist: "Please give it to me!"
Inability to get up brisk and fresh in the morning, lack of appetite, pallor, muddy complexion and poor spirits—these all indicate a disordered stomach and bad digestion—in adults and children, too. They also indicate the urgent need of taking Green's August Flower regularly for a few days.
It's a reliable old remedy for all stomach troubles, never fails to cure indigestion, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, and is a natural tonic for body and mind. Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

Charman & Co., City Drug Store

Wednesday was a holiday of celebration for Estacadians. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon every business house in town closed, and all the people visited the brick factory to witness the manufacture of the first pressed brick. After a brief dedicatory speech by Mr. G. W. Morrow the ponderous machinery was set in motion, and the Estacada brick factory was at work manufacturing a fine quality of pressed red brick from clay out of the earth not farther than a hundred yards from the factory. When the big press turned out the first brick the crowd gave a loud hurrah. About 400 brick were made, and nearly everybody carried one away with them to keep as a souvenir. The plant is ready for continuous work, and will turn out 20,000 brick daily. Manager Belknap and Superintendent Smith have completed one of the best brick plants to be found anywhere in the west. Already the company is figuring on making large additions to the plant.—Estacada News.

Many delegates from the county and Oregon City workers on Monday and Tuesday attended the Clackamas County Sunday School convention that was convened here Monday afternoon. The object of the convention was to adopt methods to secure more systematic and aggressive Sunday School work in the county and to accomplish this a committee was appointed. A permanent organization to aid in the work was effected.

Temporary organization of the convention was had by the election of Rev. E. S. Bollinger as chairman and Rev. R. C. Blackwell, for secretary. The principal speakers were Rev. W. C. Merritt, international field worker for the American Sunday School Association and J. P. Conder, who is in the employ of the same Association. Monday Rev. Merritt gave a talk on "Christ as the Ideal Teacher" and afterwards conducted a round table on a series of important Sunday School questions. Mr. Conder spoke on "The Vision Necessary for a Sunday School Worker." Both of these gentlemen at public meetings Monday night and Tuesday night delivered addresses along Sunday School lines. The concluding meeting of the convention was held Tuesday night.

$25,000 FOR A STORY.

Think of it! Twenty-five thousand dollars for a story! The highest price that has been similarly paid in America to any author. And this for just the exclusive right to print the story in this one publication—no right to publish it in book form being included. Consider the quality of merit, the intensity of interest this story must possess to command this extraordinary price. The "White Company" has ever been accepted as the greatest work of any author, and by far superior to his own "Sherlock Holmes" tales—but "Sir Nigel," says Conan Doyle himself, surpasses them all.
Conan Doyle receives this fabulous sum for his "Sir Nigel," which begins in the Sunday Magazine part of next Sunday's Record Herald. Do not fail to buy the Record Herald for next Sunday, December 3, as this great romance by the world's greatest writer of romantic fiction will be the sensation in the literary world for months to come.

Pool, a thorough bible student, of Seattle, Washington, will conduct the readings and he will be able to preside over a class of 100 members. For any further information, address J. L. Mumpower, Box 12, R. F. D. No. 2, Oregon City, Oregon.

When I find a remedy that does all that is claimed for it I am only too pleased to make the fact known to others. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills the best remedy I ever used."
