

Shor Sidehead Stories...

TERSELY-TOLD TALES OF THE WEEK'S DOINGS.

Insane From Milwaukee—
Mrs. Louis Fuchs, of near Milwaukee, has been sent to the asylum. Mrs. Fuchs is aged 42 years, and her mental affliction is of a melancholy character.

Some Clackamas Potatoes—
Jerome Donley, of Sunnyside, one day recently dug from one potato hill 37 merchantable and 18 small potatoes. They were of the Burbank variety, of which Mr. Donley had two acres planted that produced remarkably well. The land was highly fertilized the two acres, prior to being cultivated for potatoes, having served as a poultry yard.

An Old Veteran Dies—
A. H. Miller, aged 84 years and a veteran of the Civil War, died last Friday night at the home of his son, J. O. Miller, in West Oregon City. The deceased came to Oregon from Kansas with his son, who, with two daughters, one residing in Kansas and the other in Chicago, survives him. Funeral services were conducted Sunday under the auspices of Meade Post G. A. R., of this city, and interment followed at Mountain View Cemetery.

More Divorces—
Barbary Kary, in a divorce suit filed Saturday, asserts that when she was married to Karl Kary, in Iowa in 1890, he was a sober industrious man. Five years later it is alleged he contracted the drinking habit and is now a habitual drunkard, for which reason she asks for a legal separation and the custody of two minor children. After but four months of wedded life, in which bliss appears to have been a minus quantity, E. L. Wyatt is suing Bessie Wyatt for a divorce. The parties were married at Midwell, Idaho, last August.

Sutains Fractured Skull—
Anton Habelt, of Dodge, reports that while working on the dam that is being constructed in the Clackamas river at Cazadero, by the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company, John Goebel, on Tuesday of last week, sustained a fracture of the skull. Goebel was working at some excavation work when a huge rock, weighing 500 pounds became dislodged and in falling struck the unfortunate man on the right side of the head. Goebel died of his injuries last Saturday and burial services were conducted in Oregon City Monday.

Dynamite Caps Explode—
W. W. Porter and W. H. Moody, workmen employed on the construction of the South End Road in this city, narrowly escaped with their lives Friday afternoon. As it was both men were severely burned and bruised by the exploding of several dynamite caps with which they were working. A box of these caps exploded, both Moody and Porter being badly burned in the face and on both arms. Fortunately for them the exploding caps did not ignite a box containing several pounds of powder on which the dynamite caps were resting at the time of the explosion.

Married at Portland—
Mr. William Bauer, of Barlow, and Miss Bessie Armstrong, of Aurora, were married at Portland, Wednesday, December 6, 1905, in the presence of a few intimate friends. Mr. Bauer is a young man of sterling qualities, and is well known in Barlow and surrounding country, and is the senior partner in the general merchandise firm of Bauer & Tull at Barlow. The bride has resided in this locality for a number of years, and by her winning ways and accomplishments has made a large circle of friends who join with the Borealls in wishing the newly married couple a happy and prosperous journey down life's pathway. Mr. and Mrs. Bauer are "at home" and will be pleased to meet their friends.—Aurora Borealls.

Oregon City Girl Given Recognition—
Another talented young Oregonian is receiving recognition in the East. Miss Wilhelmine Joehneke has been engaged by the board of directors of the public schools of New York City to deliver a series of illustrated lectures on the Hawaiian Islands in various schools of the great city. Miss Joehneke lived two years in the Islands and on her return went to Chicago, where she graduated with honors from the University of Chicago last June. Since her graduation she has been traveling as correspondent for New York papers in the South and Southwest, and while on her travels delivered lectures. Miss Joehneke's parents reside near Oregon City, where she was born. She is a niece of Mrs. W. C. Dunlaway of Portland.—Sunday Oregonian.

More Domestic Infelicity—
Because her husband told her that when she wore a certain hat, and anelock she looked like a sporting woman, Ivy Vorbeck Porter, of Portland, has filed suit for divorce from Lester Porter, to whom she was married at Portland, in August, 1904. After hearing this indignity upon her, the husband is charged with striking the plaintiff in the face and compelling her to go to her mother's home where she has resided and managed to support herself by employment as a stenographer. Defendant is now a resident of Ketchikan, Alaska. E. H. Thompson objects to living with his wife's parents, alleging that his father-in-law frequently curses and abuses him and for that reason asks to be legally separated from Emma Thompson, whom he married at Portland in April, 1903. Alleging desertion at Stella, Washington, in 1902, Marcella Young is seeking a divorce from Earle

GOOD for OLD and YOUNG

August Flower keeps the children healthy and strong. Full of vigor and frolic the whole day long. So when mamma needs more they rush off in high glee. And shout to the druggist: "Please give it to me!"

Inability to get up brisk and fresh in the morning, lack of appetite, pallor, muddy complexion and poor spirits—these all indicate a disordered stomach and bad digestion—in adults and children, too. They also indicate the urgent need of taking Green's August Flower regularly for a few days. It's a reliable old remedy for all stomach troubles, never fails to cure indigestion, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, and is a natural tonic for body and mind. Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

Charman & Co., City Drug Store

M. Young, to whom she was married at Ashland, in September, 1900.

State Taxes Will be Much Lower

It is estimated that the total amount of revenue to be raised by taxation for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1906 for state purposes, will be approximately $625,000, including $25,000 necessary to be raised for the State Agricultural College. Multnomah county's appropriation will be $123,213.50, or $195,157.50. The marked decrease in the amount necessary to be raised is due to the fact that the referendum was invoked on appropriations amounting to $271,094.40 including in chapter 229 of the laws of 1905, for which there is no provision of law for incurring other than the act itself. Had the act taken effect, the amount to be raised would have been increased by that sum. Receipts for the current year, other than by direct taxation, amount to $220,000, which is nearly one-fourth of the gross expense, the principal items consisting of $112,000 from corporation fees and licenses; $28,000 from inheritance tax and $54,000 from tax on insurance premiums. It is apparent that by adopting approved methods for raising revenue in time all the expenses of the state will be met without a direct tax. The state levy last year was 6 4-10 mills. This year it should be less than 1 1/2 mills.—Exchange.

NEW SCHEDULE OF CARS.

Last Car Out of Oregon City Leaves at 10 O'Clock.

Superintendent of Traffic G. C. Fields, of the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company, has announced the change of the schedule of the company which took effect Sunday morning. Cars from Oregon City to Portland will leave as follows: Every hour from 6 a. m. to 8 p. m., inclusive. The 9 o'clock car in the evening, out of Oregon City, will go to Milwaukie only, and the next and last through car to Portland leaves Oregon City at 10 p. m.

From Portland the running time during the day will be the same as from this end. The first car leaves Portland at 6 a. m., leaving every hour thereafter until 9 p. m. After 9 o'clock there will be no Oregon City car out of Portland until 11:15 p. m., and this is the last car, which will arrive here at 12:15 and return to Milwaukie.

Under the new schedule the last car out of Oregon City to Portland leaves one hour earlier than at the present time, and from Portland the last car leaves 45 minutes earlier than the schedule that has been maintained during the Summer and Fall.

WILL INSTRUCT FRUIT GROWERS.

Another Series of Farmers' Institutes for Clackamas County. County Fruit Inspector J. H. Reid, of Milwaukie, is arranging for a series of meetings at various places in Clackamas county, and will be at Maple Lane Thursday, December 28, and at Milwaukie Friday, December 29. Mr. Reid will be accompanied by Professor Kent of the Corvallis Agricultural College, who will talk on "Fruit Pests," and will also give a lecture on dairying and on potato-growing, in places where these subjects have not been publicly discussed.

Professor Kent and Inspector Reid will also make trips in January to Clarkes, Molalla, Willamette, Marquam, Needy, Canby, New Era, Logan, Springfield, Damascus, Stafford, Wilsonville and other places, and will announce his dates for these places in a few days.

MRS. KROHN GETS NO DAMAGES.

Clackamas County Adopts New Plan for Caring for Paupers.

The Clackamas County Court has disallowed the claim of Mrs. W. Krohn for $2000 damages for injuries claimed to have been sustained by reason of a defective road near Highland.

As an experiment the Court has accepted the bids of J. W. Thomas, J. B. Gnyup, F. W. Sprague and Dela Dickerson for caring for the county charges at prices ranging from $7.50 to $15 per month per person, according to his ability and willingness to be of service. The proposals are sufficient to include all of the county's

COUGHING SPELL CAUSED DEATH.

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing, which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901."

Ballard's Horehound Syrup would have saved him. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Huntley Bros. Co. drug store.

AN EXCEPTION TO THE RULE.

"Do you believe in the survival of the fittest?"
"Generally, yes; but not when it comes to Thanksgiving turkeys."
