HAVE READY CASH.

It Is the Greatest Moving Force In the Business World. One of the greatest millionaires of our country lived before he made his millions on $8 a week and at a time when his income was $10,000 a year. He saved all the rest of his salary for judicious investments. He had been a poor boy, accustomed to a frugal mode of life. He began his career in the city sweeping out a store for $3.50 a week. Later he was advanced to $7.50. The mode of living which he was obliged to adopt as a boy he considered quite good enough for later years, especially when he saw that by denying himself for awhile longer he might make the experiences and hard knocks he had gained count for more than a mere living. He might have argued that he Executor of the Last Will and Testawas doing pretty well to earn $10,000 a year and that he deserved to enjoy it. But he preferred to use his earnings to make more money that some day he might be able to dispense with a salaried position altogether. And this man had a wife, too, who was farsighted enough to be willing to live on a small sum when it meant an easier road for both by and by.

Ready cash is the greatest moving force in the business world. It speaks with the loudest voice, and its possession represents business acumen. Of course there are exceptions in cases of inheritance, etc., but the exception onby proves the rule.

Cornelius Vanderbilt worked day and night, saving every penny, until he had $3,000, the nest egg about which gathered one of the largest fortunes ever amassed in America. The principle of thrift inculented by those hard, self denying years made him a great financier.-New York Commercial.

GULLIBILITY OF SHEEP.

A Comical Study of the Extreme of Animal Stupidity.

The utter stupidity of sheep is perhaps nowhere more strongly evidenced than in the perfect satisfaction with which a ewe that has lost her lamb will take to a strange lamb around which has been fastened the skin of her dead offspring.

Considering that the skin of the dead lamb is often merely thrown loosely over the back of the living lamb, sometimes hanging almost to the ground on one side or the other and making the lamb appear the quaintest kind of animal imaginable, the ewe's guilibility in this respect is remarkable. There can be no other explanation of her satisfaction than that she really thinks the muffled little stranger is her own progeny; otherwise she would give it no attention whatever.

Its appearance does not seem to count nor even its voice. Its smell is everything, which may be seen in any flock of ewes and lambs, for while the mothers certainly appear to know the bleating of their own children, the identification is always completed by the ewe sniffing the coat of her lamb.

I have been looking at two such quaint families in the lambing pens recently, and the picture of a sedate ewe placidly attending to two weird little creatures which look as if they have January, 1906, which is the time been half flayed (one of them was actually dragging its second skin in the straw) was the most comical study of animal stupidity which could be imagined.-London Express.

Beauty and the Beast.

"How do you do, Mrs. Venus?" exclaimed a gentleman of that lady's acquaintance. "Pruy, what brings you out so early in the day?"

"Oh, I've just been to the photographer with my pet pug Pongo" (which she carried in her arms, "and we have had our portrait; taken together. saucy little laugh.

"And what a little beauty he is, to be sure," replied Jo'maso inadvertently as he tenderly stroked poor Pongo's eranjum.

And then he smilledy remembered and became hat and cold in turn, and they parted strangers forevermore.

FURIOUS FIGHTING.

"For seven years." writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won, and oured my diseases, by the use of Electric Bitters.
