D. R. Dimick Will Enter Race For Sheriff—Candidates for the Other Offices.

In writing up the news concerning the various candidates for the different offices some candidate may be left out, but the Enterprise will be glad at any time to rectify any such mistake. It is not the intention of the Enterprise in these preliminary writ-ups to take any part whatever, for or against any candidate but may do so in the future if conditions warrant such a stand.

Still Another for Sheriff.

D. R. Dimick will not generally much of a contest for County Sheriff and the present indications are that the present incumbent of that office, J. W.
Meldrum, will be retained without any opposition.

DISSOLUTE LAD MAY LOSE.

Unusual Suit Filed in Clackamas County Circuit Court.
John W. Meldrum, administrator of the estate of James McNamara, deceased, has filed in the state circuit court a suit against James Edward McNamara et al the purpose of which is to determine the rightful disposition of an unappropriated balance of $1500.51 belonging to the estate.

In 1892 James McNamara died leaving an estate worth about $4000. By the terms of a will, the deceased directed that the estate be equally divided between his two grandsons, James Edward McNamara and John T. McNamara, the bequest being conditioned, however, on the two young men developing into sober and industrious citizens. In event either or both of the grandsons violated the conditions of the will, then it was provided that such part of the estate was thereby forfeited should go to an only sister, residing in England.

James Edward McNamara, the elder of the brothers, attained his majority in 1903 and received his share of the estate amounting to $1727.68. John T.
McNamara, the younger of the two, became of age in April, 1905, and at that time was an inmate of the state penitentiary, having been sent up from Washington county. The conditions of the will having been violated, the administrator refused to give the dissolvent relative his share of the estate.
Decedent's sister, who was named as the substitute beneficiary in case either or both of the grandsons did not live up to the terms of the will, also died and the suit filed today is to determine what disposition shall be made of the remaining $1500.

PENSIONED BY GRANGE.

O. K. Kelly to Receive Monthly Sum for Life.
State Master B. G. Leedy and wife have just returned from Atlantic City, N. J., where they attended the National Grange as representatives from Oregon, said Sunday's Oregonian. Mr.
Leedy said that, while the delegates were finely treated and there was a large attendance, the National Grange held in Portland a year ago was the most important in point of work accomplished. Especially does Mr.
Leedy say that The Oregonian reports of the Portland gathering were more complete and superior in every way than those of the recent gathering at Atlantic City. One of the important changes was the retirement of Aaron Jones as National master, who presided at the Portland meeting, and who had been master for a number of years, and the election of ex-Governor N. J. Bacheider, of New Hampshire, as National master.

State Master Leedy regards the new master as an able man. A New Hampshire paper says of him: "In choosing as its master a New Hampshire man in the person of ex-Governor Nahaum J. Bacheider, the National Grange has followed a wise course. Mr. Bacheider is known in Grange work throughout the United States, and his best efforts have ever been put forth for the betterment of the agricultural interests."

It may be of interest to Oregon grangers to know that the National Grange took advanced steps in the matter of introducing elementary agriculture in the public schools and strongly indorsed President Roosevelt's attitude toward the railways.
An appropriation of $6000 was made to place three deputies in the field to arouse an interest in the extension of the Grange work. One of these deputies is for the West.

The National Grange also made provision to pension O. K. Kelley, founder of the Patrons of Husbandry, by paying him $100 a month for the remainder of his life.

FOR A HIGH SCHOOL

Oregon City Graduates May Take Advantage of Law

BARCLAY ALUMNI WOULD HAVE COUNTY INSTITUTION.

At Annual Reunion, Committee Is Appointed to Further the Project.

At the annual reunion of the Barclay High School Alumni Association Saturday night Mrs. George A. Harding, E. J. Noble and Howard F. Latourette were composed a committee to do everything within its power to further the project for establishing within Clackamas County a high school. The members of this committee will at once familiarize themselves with the state law relating to the establishment of county high schools, and proceed to active work. They will be assisted by other graduates of the city schools, says the Telegram.

The object of the members of the Alumni Association is, of course, to secure the establishment of a county high school in Oregon City. Their first step will be to circulate a petition to the County Court, which will probably place the matter before the electors at the June election. This petition must contain the signatures of 100 or more taxpayers of this county.

To the County Court is left the authority to determine the location of a county high school, but it is generally considered that Oregon City would be the natural location for the first school, as the law authorizes counties to operate any number of county high schools in different localities.
Oregon City has no high school, but has only part of one, giving instruction in the ninth and tenth grades, when the student is graduated. Several years ago an 11th grade was maintained, but this was abolished.

The establishment of a county high school would probably mean that the present High School of Oregon City would be abolished. The county institution would be supported by a special tax of all the property in the county, which would be levied in the same manner and collected in the same way that other county taxes are levied and collected. Any graduate student from the eighth grade of any district school in Clackamas County would be eligible to attend a county school without the payment of tuition.

The first step to be taken is the circulation of a petition, which must be presented to the County Court, when the proposition will be left to the voters. The Court may call a special election for the purpose, but as the general state election is approaching it is not likely that the county would go to the expense of a special election. If a majority of all the votes cast are in the affirmative the County Court shall locate the school "in some suitable and convenient place within 30 days after the vote is canvassed." The statute says:

"The County Court shall also estimate the cost of purchasing a suitable lot, erecting a building and furnishing the same for the accommodation of such school, with the cost of conducting such school for the next 12 months; provided that the County Court or the High School Board may rent suitable rooms for the accommodation of the school. If rooms can be obtained in the public school build-

MONEY FOR STATE

Million Dollars is Needed by Oregon in 1906

OF THAT AMOUNT $625,000 WILL BE RAISED BY COUNTIES.

Clackamas County's Share Is $20,- 937.50—Cost of State Institutions.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 2.—The State Board of Tax Apportionment today made the annual estimate of the revenue necessary for state purposes for 1906 and apportioned the amount among the several counties according to the rate fixed by law. The total revenue required is found to be $1,- 028,909.08, of which over $150,000 is covered by surplus not applied and over $277,000 by miscellaneous receipts, leaving an even $600,000 to be raised by apportionment among the counties. The tax of each county is as follows:

Baker	$14,625.00
Benton	12,625.00
Clackamas	20,937.50
Clatsop	13,250.00
Columbia	6,625.00
Coos	12,687.50
Crook	8,125.00
Curry	2,500.00

A GOOD RECORD.

During the year 1905, the total amount of county warrants endorsed and entered on the books of County Treasurer Cahill was $33,122.26 as against $34,883.54 for the preceding year. This difference of $1761.28 represents a saving of that amount to the taxpayers in the management of county affairs.

A LECTURE ON CHRISTIAN SO- CIALISM.

The Rev. J. W. Wells, of Ashland, Oregon, will deliver a lecture on Christian Socialism and the prophecies of the Bible at the regular meeting of the Socialists of this county, in Knapp's hall next Sunday, January 7, at 2:30 p. m. The Rev. Wells has been speaking at a number of places in the county during the past few weeks, and has been well received where he has been.
The Socialists expect to lay new plans for the coming election and conduct a more vigorous campaign than ever before. They are especially elated over the success attending the meetings held by Arthur Morrow Lewis at 7 different points the past month. A new executive committee, press committee, and several other officials will be elected Sunday to serve for next year.
