Went Single—Returned Double.

Dave Adelstein, foreman of the suit making department in the Oregon City Manufacturing Company's woolen mill plant in this city, perpetrated a surprise on his many Oregon City friends by returning from San Francisco Tuesday morning accompanied by Mrs. Adelstein. Dave never gave the slightest intimation as to the real purpose of his trip to San Francisco during the holidays and it was generally thought among his friends that he had just gone for a visit with relatives. But instead, Dave lost no time in his six days' absence. Last Saturday morning at San Francisco, he married Miss Mae Ernst, a charming young woman who, with the beginning of the New Year, becomes a resident of Oregon City. Mr. Adelstein will continue in his position at the woolen mills and Mr. and Mrs. Adelstein have the sincere wishes of his many friends in this city for much happiness and a full measure of the good things of this life.

Congregationalists Hold Annual Meeting—204 Members.

The members of the First Congregational church held their annual business meeting Tuesday night. Encouraging and satisfactory reports were received from the various church officers. The membership is 204 and the outlook for the ensuing year is exceedingly hopeful.

With all obligations of the old year met and the regular expenses of the new year well covered by subscriptions, the church is in a condition to add improvements to its already well equipped property. The pastor's salary remains $900 per annum and free manse, and Rev. Mr. Bollinger will enter upon the eighth year of service March 1.

C. H. Dye and Mrs. M. A. Stevens were elected trustees to succeed themselves. The officers for 1906 are: Pastor, Rev. E. S. Bollinger; trustees, C. H. Dye, L. Adams, J. M. Mark, Mrs. M. A. Stevens and Mrs. M. M. Charman; deacons, C. H. Dye, James Wilkinson, L. H. Andrews, Robert Warner, O. A. Cheney; Sunday School superintendent, C. H. Dye (re-elected); assistant, John Lowry (re-elected); clerk, Miss Buchanan; treasurer, Mrs. T. L. Charman; solicitors, Mrs. C. D. Latourette, Mrs. J. A. Roake, John Lowry, A. B. Humphreys; ushers, James Wilkinson, John Lowry, John Ross, B. L. Beard, Emery Dye and Emil Gordon.

On Monday, New Year's Day, Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Porter, of Canemah, assisted by numerous relatives and friends celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Porter have resided in Oregon City since 1878. Mr. Porter now being 72 years of age, Mrs. Porter's maiden name was Amanda M. Dey. She was married to Mr. Porter January 1, 1856, in Erie county, Pennsylvania. For many years following Mr. Porter's marriage he was employed in transporting crude oil from one of the first oil wells discovered in that section. During the Civil War Mr. Porter served in the Eighty-third Pennsylvania Infantry. There were born to Mr. and Mrs. Porter nine children, of whom five are still living as follows: Charles E. Porter, of Baker City; Clarence W. Porter, Fairbanks, Alaska; Mrs. A. C. Walls, Mrs. J. B. Lober and Mrs. Robert Bukowsky, all of Portland.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903. "Having been troubled with Lumbago, at different times and tried one physician after another, then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried one more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of sufferers." Sold by Huntley Bros. Drug Co.

At the regular January meeting of Maple Lane Grange No. 296, P. O. H., which will be held tomorrow, Saturday, Past Master Beard will install the following officers:

Brown; gate keeper, Sarah Gillett; Ceres, A. Spilinter; Flora, Bessie Crawford; Pomona, Myrtle Darling; lady assistant steward, Blanche Mautz; organist, Anna Shortledge.

Two Noted Women Visitors. The ladies of Oregon City are entertaining two noted women this week, Mrs. Von Rydingsvard and Miss Laura M. Clay, of Lexington, Kentucky. Miss Clay is a daughter of Cassius M. Clay and a niece of Henry Clay and inherits the public spirit and good sense of both of those famous men. During her stay in the city Miss Clay is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. U'Ren, at their beautiful home at Green Point. On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Eva Emery Dye gives a reception in her honor and on Saturday evening, Miss Clay will speak at the Congregational Church to which the public is invited. Two choruses from Queen Esther will be rendered by the choir in compliment to Miss Clay.

Miss Clay came out for the Lewis and Clark Fair, and still lingers delighted with the hospitality of Oregon and the Pacific coast. She has large property interests in Kentucky that will presently call her back to Lexington, but for the present she is deeply interested in the suffrage movement, of which she is one of the national officers.

HOLD FIRST MEETING

MAYOR CAULFIELD AND NEW COUNCILMEN TAKE CHARGE.

Chief of Police Burns is Retained—New City Prosecutor and Street Commissioner.

Mayor E. G. Caulfield and Councilmen-elect Wm. Andresen from the First Ward; E. P. Rands and W. R. Logus, from the Second; and Jos. N. Harrington from the Third, having been sworn in, assumed their chairs in the Council Wednesday evening and effected a re-organization of that body for the ensuing year. Councilman A. Knapp, of the Second Ward, was elected president of the Council, defeating H. E. Straight for the place. City Recorder W. A. Dimick, was re-elected by unanimous vote and will serve another year.

Mayor Caulfield announced the following standing committees for the ensuing year:

Finance—Andresen, Rands and Knapp. Streets and Public Property—Rands, Williams and Straight. Health and Police—Straight, Harrington, and Justin. Fire and Water—Knapp, Logus and Brandt. Cemetery—Williams, Harrington and Rands.

The following appointments by Mayor Caulfield were confirmed by the Council: Chief of Police, Chas. E. Burns; Night Officer, E. L. Shaw; Special Officer, George Hanlon; City Prosecutor, J. U. Campbell; Street Commissioner, J. C. Bradley; City Surveyor, H. A. Rands.

Mayor Caulfield made a short inaugural address in which he referred to the financial condition of the city which he considered not alarming. The total of outstanding warrants in the general fund is only a few hundred dollars greater than a year ago, but a greater deficit exists in the road fund. But with the increase in the assessable values of the city and an additional levy of one mill for municipal purposes, the Mayor believed that the city will not only be enabled to live within its means during the ensuing year but at the same time accomplish a very material reduction in its obligations.

The annual report of City Recorder Dimick showed that during the year warrants aggregating $9397.19 had been issued, on the general fund, two of the principal items of expense being Police $2262.65, lights, $2257.57. The total receipts of the city during the year were $17,674.11 while the disbursements for the same period aggregated $16,353.52. The total outstanding indebtedness of the city closely approximates $100,000 and is made up of the following items: Outstanding warrants general fund, $23,637.28; bonds, $50,000; sewer improvement bonds, $27,368.39. During the year bonds in the sum of $2000 were redeemed, leaving a total bonded indebtedness on January 1 of $75,230.81.

The bond of Jack R. Caulfield, city treasurer, in the sum of $5000 with J. W. Cole and E. Matthes as sureties having been approved by the Mayor, was accepted and placed on file.

D. OF R. INSTALLATION AT CANBY. Tuesday evening, January 2, 1906, a large and enthusiastic number of Rebekahs from Canby, New Era, Oregon City and other points, met at Knight's Hall, Canby, the occasion being the installation of the officers of Kirk Lodge No. 124, D. of R., by Harriet Bates, D. D. P. and assistants. At the conclusion of the ceremonies, a fine banquet was spread to which all did ample justice. Dancing and social conversation held the crowd until the "Wee sma' hours," when they wended their several ways homeward, breathing a Happy and Prosperous New Year to Kirk Lodge and its members.

The following are the corps of officers for the ensuing year: P. N. G., Mariah Swansby. N. G., Jennie Eccles. V. G., Anna Dedman. Secretary, Ola M. Gurley. F. S., Howard Eccles. Treas., Laura K. Bair. Warden, Annett Wait. Conductor, Grace Patch. I. S. G., Vermette Batdorf. Chaplain, Ella Koehler. O. S. G., Geo. Meeks. R. S. N. G., Harriet Bates. L. S. N. G., Mamie Knight. R. S. V.
