You Will Be Satisfied WITH YOUR JOURNEY

BECAUSE

There are so many scenic attractions and points of interest along the line between Ogden and Denver that the trip never becomes tiresome.

If you are going East, write or inform us and get a pretty book that will tell you all about it.

W. C. McBRIDE, General Agent PORTLAND, OREGON

The windstorm last Saturday was disastrous to old fences.

CANBY.

F. M. Barnore was in Oregon City on Thursday of last week on business.
Frank Patch and Roy Burdette were in Silverton visiting friends two or three days last week.
Bill Powers of the C. & R. store spent Christmas in Portland.
The home of A. L. Snell, was the scene of a family gathering on Christmas day. Several chickens were slaughtered for the feast. J. F. helped to get away with four of them. We are sorry for—
A new fence has been erected around the grounds of the white school house, north of the city. It adds to the appearance of the place.
Mrs. Bradle is teaching in the place of Mrs. Matthews this week in the public school. Mrs. Matthews is sick in a Portland hospital.
A. R. Shank went to Oregon City on Monday of last week to see his mother, who is suffering greatly from rheumatism.
Rev. O. E. Ames spent the holidays with friends in the vicinity of Vancouver, Washington. He returned in time to teach school on January 2.
Fred Roth has returned to the O. A. C., Corvallis, having spent the holidays at home with his mother.
Miss Swanby, of the Aurora public schools, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Wang.
There was a large attendance at the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School last Sunday. And this after Christmas.
Fred Clemons has returned to Willamette University, Salem, after spending the holidays in Canby.
Preaching services at the Central Point M. E. Church on Sunday morning January 7, 1906, by the pastor; at Canby in the evening.

REV. CARLISLE P. B. MARTIN, L. D. Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." Sold by Huntley Bros. Drug Co.

STAFFORD.

A week so far without rain. One new-comer said he had been told by reliable parties that it rained 52 days every month in Oregon, which was a "slam" on our delightful climate.
Mrs. Powell, who underwent an operation the 4th of December for appendicitis has been discharged from the St. Vincent hospital and is at the home of her husband's sister in Portland.
C. M. Gage, who came so near having his right arm taken off in the edge at Linton, is about ready to be discharged from the hospital, but it will be some time before he regains the use of it.
Mr. Behle, who has been paralyzed and blind and helpless for a number of years, has a new medicine for his eyes, and has strong hopes of regaining his eyesight. It has been said if it were not for hope the heart would die.
The new teacher seems to be getting along all right and has recalled the discarded books, and finds time for the relatives.
John Sager and Frank Keikel have been blasting for Mr. Nimic.
The storm of Saturday threw down some fences, broke off about 30 feet of the old rotten stub beyond Polvika's house, which has been a menace to the traveling public, and somewhat demoralized the telephone lines.

LOGAN.

Mr. and Mrs. Olds, of Oregon City, are visiting Mr. Partch's family this week.
New Year was spent very quietly by the majority, but the young people attended a party at Mr. Jubb's and report a most enjoyable time.
One young man who attended the ball at Damascus had the misfortune to have his horse get loose during the evening and start off for better pasture, and up to the present has not found it. He had to get a "hoss" to take his girl home.
Saturday night of this week something killed six head of Mr. Swale's sheep.
Monday Mr. Clark Stewart made his first trip as a cream collector for the creamery, to succeed Wm. Watts.
Mr. McMurray is moving on the Chase ranch.
Rev. Poole is holding a series of Bible readings, or something of that sort, at Stone church.
School will be resumed on Monday next at Lower Logan.
Saturday next the installation of officers will take place at Harding Grange. Come all tardy members, and show yourselves.

CLARKES.

The Clarkes farmers are all busy plowing for oats.
Mr. Kleinsmith, W. Bottemiller and G. Peck, were butchering some pigs for Mrs. C. Kleinsmith, which Mr. Bottemiller took down to Oregon City last Saturday.
The wind was blowing rather hard last Saturday and took down all sizes of green timber and some rail fences, not much damage was done.
Fred Schrubie has gone to California for a winter's stay.
Mr. Martin has moved into his new house, all good girls and boys are allowed to come and shake their feet in his new house, I suppose.
Clarkes saw a little snow last week, about two inches, it stayed only two days.
Some coyotes have been heard in Clarkes—I suppose there will be more around before spring.

MT. PLEASANT.

Mrs. Dan O'Neil and Miss Holmes spent several days in Portland last week visiting Mrs. M. H. Hensley and her daughter, Mrs. William M. Thornton, at The Norton.
Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Taber have returned from Hillsboro, where they spent Christmas with their daughter, Mrs. L. M. Hoyt.
Miss Clementina Bradford has returned to Portland, after a pleasant visit with friends at Locust Farm.
Miss Helen Elizabeth Riggs is at home again, after having spent three months with Mayor and Mrs. A. E. King, at Ilwaco, Washington.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Barker Lawton, went to Vancouver last Sunday, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Stauffer.
Mrs. Jennie Steibley has returned from New Mexico, to Mt. Pleasant, where she will make her home with her sister, Mrs. L. H. Andrews.
Mr. Bonnie Netzer and sister, Miss

Dora, spent Christmas day with their sister, Mrs. C. Pearly Andrews.
Miss Mona King has returned to Ilwaco, after an extended visit with relatives.
Mrs. W. B. Stafford and daughter, Miss Roma, spent Friday in Portland.
Lester M. Marrs has returned to Corvallis, after spending the holidays with his parents.
Mr. and Mrs. James Burdette of Salem, spent Christmas week with Mrs. Burdette's mother, Mrs. C. E. Myres.
The Mt. Pleasant school is undergoing some much needed repairs during the holiday vacation.
School will open next Monday.

Sickening Shivering Fits
of Ague and Malaria can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This a pure tonic medicine; of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to Quinine, having none of the drugs bad after effects. E. S. Munday, Henrietta, Texas, writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice until he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At Howell & Jones Drug Store; price 50c, guaranteed."

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

Mr. Murrow has started out with a kennel of Scotch Collie dogs, and is building a corral for them.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ely visited in Portland on New Years day.
Mr. St. Clair's son and wife came for a visit New Years at the old folk's home.
Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Swan, of Portland, visited Mrs. Matchett the last day of the old year.
The high wind of last Saturday did considerable damage, blowing fences and small buildings down. It also broke a window in Everhart & Co.'s store.
The Christmas exercises at the little church were well attended and all had a nice time, the best of order prevailed. There seems to be a tendency of some young people to make such places a time for boisterous conduct, and girls fifteen years of age are as bad sometimes as unruly boys. This was noticed last Sunday night at the U. B. Church when two girls would have made their mother blush had she been present. Girls, beware, some day you will regret your conduct.

UNION HALL.

Jan. 2.—Charley Nash and family, of Oregon City, were visiting Perry Burns and family a few days ago.
Mr. Joseph Perringer was visiting at the home of Mike Hurlas on New Years Day.
Otto Striker is going to work in Adkins logging camp.
Several from here went to Canby last Saturday night to join the lodge at that place.
Bud Hilton and wife were visiting his mother and brother last Sunday.
Mr. Engle's daughters were visiting Mr. Julius Moshberger and family last Sunday.
John Molsen and wife took New Year's dinner with Charles Pipka and family.
Jace Mattock was in these parts looking for wood as timber is scarce on his place.

Impoverished Soil

Impoverished soil, like impoverished blood, needs a proper fertilizer. A chemist by analyzing the soil can tell you what fertilizer to use for different products.
If your blood is impoverished your doctor will tell you what you need to fertilize it and give it the rich, red corpuscles that are lacking in it. It may be you need a tonic, but more likely you need a concentrated fat food, and fat is the element lacking in your system.
There is no fat food that is so easily digested and assimilated as

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil

It will nourish and strengthen the body when milk and cream fail to do it. Scott's Emulsion is always the same; always palatable and always beneficial where the body is wasting from any cause, either in children or adults.
We will send you a sample free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

MULINO.

Hurrah for 1906. Happy New Year to everybody. The young people of Mulino spent a very pleasant evening Sunday at the home of Mr. August Erickson, watching the old year out and the new year in, after the clock struck twelve, they pulled taffy and amused themselves in general. We're young but once.
Monday evening, January 1st, Mr. Lee and Rev. T. Wiles celebrated their 58th birthday at the home of the pastor. A dainty supper was given in honor of the two just mentioned, also Mr. Grant Ashby, of this burg, celebrated his 49th birthday on the 29th of last month.
Did you hear the latest? Mr. Lee Adkins of Union Mills and Miss Nannie Looney, of Molalla, were married a few days ago. We sincerely wish both of them much joy and happiness all their life long.
Albert and Elmer Erickson of this vicinity, have gone to work for their uncle, in the logging camp at Kelso, Washington where they will remain for the winter.

BORING.

Jan. 2.—There has not been anything in the Enterprise from this section of the county for some time, but that is no sign that Boring is dead. Every thing and everybody around Boring are prospering. Boring can boast of two butcher shops, both of which are doing a thriving business; a new blacksmith shop has been put up by a man from Dakota. It had been said there was no business for a blacksmith at Boring, but the smith is kept busy and part of the time has to have a helper.
The Boring school is going to make some needed improvements.
J. W. Boring made a trip to Oregon City and Portland last week for the school and purchased a new bell for the school, which will be installed soon.
Mr. P. Vetsch, wife and family, have returned home from a three weeks' stay in California.

Mr. D. R. Dimick was around getting signers for Mr. Adah Knight of Canby to have him appointed for road supervisor again. The people in this vicinity would be pleased to see Mr. Knight appointed again as he has given good satisfaction.
Mr. Richter is hauling potatoes to Canby.
Your humble correspondent had the pleasure of listening to some very fine phonograph music over the phone last night. It is nice when one can sit in his own home and hear some one miles away play just the same as though you were with them. Thanks to the one that was furnishing the music.
Mr. Streigic went to Canby on business last Thursday.

HIGHLAND.

Highland is still on top. The new year has come with cold, damp weather.
Our school vacation during the holidays is being enjoyed very much, by both teacher and pupils.
We are glad to see the smiling faces of the Misses Blanche and Nettie Miller among us during the holidays.
The quilting at Mrs. Ada Stevens on last Friday was well attended, and all report a good time.
The new store building in Highland is quite an improvement, it will soon be opened by Mayfield Bros., with their new stock of goods. They will have direct communication with the city over the phone which we believe to be a great benefit to Highland.
Mrs. C. Krohn has moved to Mt. Pleasant to reside.

CARUS.

Jan. 3.—Everybody seems to have enjoyed themselves New Years.
Mrs. Bebee, who has been quite low with pneumonia, is up again.
Will Jones, from Colfax, Washington, is visiting friends and relatives in this burg.
Misses Edith and Mary White spent last week with their sister, Mrs. John Mulvaney at Union Mills.
Jack Griffith and Rachel Lewis spent Sunday with her parents.
G. Thomas spent Tuesday night with Ed. Howard and family.
There was a party given at the home of Albert Schoenborn Monday night. An enjoyable time was had and we wish them to have another one in the near future. Those being present were: Misses Kate Jones, Emma Inskeep, Edna and Iva Irish, Rosa and Lizzie Burgess, Bertha Howard, Lizzie Lewis, Clara and Elsa Schoenborn, Pearl Trullinger, Ada Gregory, Sarah Thomas, Mabel and Iva McCarthy, and Mrs. Gregory; Messrs. Fred Spangler, Emerson Spatz, Evan Lewis, Richard, Willie and John Davis, Charley and Albert White, Tommy Evans, Dewey Thomas, Ralph and Norman Howard, Clyde and Sydney Smith, Lawrence Derringer, Virgal May, Fred and Willie Geren, Frank Anderson, Oscar Erickson, Albert, Robert, Henry and Harry Schoenborn, Joe Jones, Frank Thompson and E. and George Gregory.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hand, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Boring spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Tacheron.
At the annual election of officers, of the Boring M. E. Sunday School, O. W. Boring was elected Superintendent and H. Knox, assistant superintendent, Miss Violet Perret secretary-treasurer; Miss Alice Perret, librarian, and H. Bigford, organist.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Vullermire, of Portland, spent New Years with Mrs. Vullermire's sister, Mrs. Tacheron.
Mr. E. Richey has sold and traded his place here, for property at Gresham and will move there within a few days. Mr. Richey is one of Boring's oldest residents, and his smiling face will be missed by all.
There is to be a singing school organized here Thursday night.
Watch meeting was held Sunday evening.

TWILIGHT.

The new year is here again and finds us all well and happy.
Mr. Geo. M. Secrest, who is tired of farming, has moved to Oregon City, and is now engaged in the feed stable business.
Mr. Jay Hylton has been home spending the Christmas vacation.
Mr. Adolph Joehke was home from Portland Sunday and made calls on several of his friends.
Miss Joseph, the Twilight teacher, has been spending her vacation at her home in Woodburn, and resumed her school duties Tuesday morning.
Mr. Geo. Kelland spent New Year's day with the family of Mr. Engle, at Central Point.
M. J. Lazelle returned to Corvallis Wednesday to resume studies at Oregon Agricultural College.
An enjoyable party was held in Twilight Hall New Years' Eve, and the neighbors all went home pleased after watching the new year in and making good resolutions.
Lester Morris returned to Corvallis Tuesday evening. He is attending the Oregon Agricultural College.
Geo. Lazelle has sold a coop of six cockrels from his barred Rocks to a prominent Washington poultry man.
Mr. Oliver Johnson of John Day, who is now an O. A. C. student, was the guest of M. J. Lazelle one day last week.

VIOLA.

Grandpa Tenny has been suffering with tonsillitis.
Clara Sevier is cooking for the sawmill crew at Fischer's.
The new year's service at Viola by Rev. Patton and Dr. B. F. Rowland, of Portland, were well attended.
Loren Tenny made a business trip to Oregon City Saturday.
The Epworth League spent a pleasant evening at Mr. Carlson's Wednesday.
Charles Landers is putting up an addition to his new house.
John Hamilton has rented a farm of Mr. Randolph.
Mr. Copeland and family are planning as soon as they have sufficiently recovered the effects of typhoid fever. Several men have been in Viola of late wanting to purchase W. D. Brown's store. We are much in hopes
