

Kitchens in the Tropics.

The kitchens of tropical countries, such as are to be found in our Spanish-American lands, are like cells from the thickness of the stone walls—often two or three feet deep—and the projecting, omnipresent veranda, which gives a smothered shade and which looks out on a court. The cell resemblance is enhanced by the iron bars at the windows and the heavy double doors, which look as if they could resist a siege. The walls are whitewashed, and the floors are of tiles. The dining room is often separated from this room by a long staircase. Outside the kitchen in the court will stand table and closets to supplement the scant furniture of the small, hot apartment with a furnace-like fire.

Making an Old Pen as Good as New.

"My pen is spoiled, and I have no other," said the bookkeeper. The machinist happened to be in the office, and he took the pen and held it over the gas jet for thirty seconds. "You can make an old pen as good as new," he said, "by holding it over a flame like this for half a minute and afterward dipping it in cold water." He dipped the hot pen in cold water as he spoke, and it sizzled slightly. "Now try it," he said. The bookkeeper tried the pen and exclaimed joyously, "By George, it's as good as new again."

Two Expressive Quotations.

Some sentences are like autographs; you feel that they must have been written by these people; no one else could have written them.

Such is this, by Talleyrand: "To succeed in the world it is much more necessary to possess the penetration to discover who is a fool than to discover who is a clever man."

And Napoleon's character is drawn full length in this sententious remark of his: "I command or I am silent."

Love of Gain.

To cure us of our immoderate love of gain we should seriously consider how many goods there are that money will not purchase, and these the best, and how many evils there are that money will not remedy, and these the worst.—Colton.

Wishes He Was.

Mrs. Peck (contemptuously)—What are you anyhow, a man or a mouse? Henry Peck (bitterly)—A man, my dear. If I were a mouse I'd have you up on that table yelling for help right now!—Exchange.

Seeing and Believing.

"You don't agree, then, that 'seeing is believing'?" "Not much! I see some people every day that I never could believe."—Philadelphia Ledger.

REV. CARLISLE P. B. MARTIN, L. D. Of Waverly, Texas, writes: Of a morning when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble. Sold by Huntley Bros. Drug Co.

OGLE MOUNTAIN MINING CO.

At a meeting of the board of directors of said company, held January 5th, 1906, we take this means of expressing our feelings to all those who were willing to share with us.

Just two years and a half ago, the Ogle Mountain Mining Co. was incorporated. At that time there was nothing but a good prospect with good promises of becoming a good paying mine, with the proper management, and the necessary funds to develop the same. The faith the incorporators had in their undertaking has never been shaken, so they commenced selling shares on November 1, 1902 and have continued to sell the same until the 5th day of January, 1906.

With some one hundred investors we are pleased to say that we have now completed our first undertaking and have put the mine in operation and have produced the first good brick that has ever been produced in Clackamas County, Oregon, and are more than pleased to say that it is only one of the many that we expect to produce in the future, and can safely say that they will be much larger than the first one, as we only ran the mill six days with success. We extend our hearty thanks to all those who so kindly assisted us in our undertaking and will say to the public that we have withdrawn the stock from the market for the present. If more machinery is needed in the Spring, we will place a limited amount of stock on the market at that time, at such prices as circumstances will warrant.

IT DRAWS HARD

On a woman's vitality to do work for which she is unfitted, and we wonder how some of the women of our land live through a single season of pleasure or dissipation. They will say with tears in their eyes, when they mention the subject at all, "it is a hard pull," that with pain, weakness and weariness they are "almost dragged out."

Many, in this condition, resort to alcoholic stimulants and "invigorants," the after effects of which are very injurious. Dr. R. V. Pierce, forty years ago found that women were being misreated through ignorance or carelessness and determined to devote his life and energies to their relief.

Having found the cause of their suffering, he next sought for the means of relief, and found in Nature's laboratory—the earth, certain roots which had remarkable and valuable medicinal virtues for the cure of these ailments.

Using chemically pure glycerine, of proper strength instead of alcohol, he prepared extracts of these, and the result was so satisfactory that the combination became his "Favorite Prescription." The roots used are: Lady's Slipper root, Blue Cohosh root and Golden Seal root. The world knows it as Dr. Pierce's FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION, which has the wonderful unparalleled record of a half-million of cures in the last forty years.

Write to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for advice, given without charge. "I am glad to be able to testify as to the merits of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the many ills that women suffer with," writes Miss Gertrude Mitchell (President of the Ladies' Christian Endeavor Society) 43 Columbia Street, E. Detroit, Mich. "After many years of suffering and pain, I took your medicine and in a short time began to feel stronger, became more regular and did not have the bearing-down pains which had held me for so long. I shall never cease to be very grateful that it was brought to my notice. I have no pains, and feel much stronger generally."

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by this disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
