Braun vs. Edna Braun; Eleanor N. Dodson vs. Nelson H. Dodson. Orders of default and reference were entered in the following divorce suits: Abbie Geraldine Miller vs. Thomas Miller; Chas. Emmet Drake vs. Mary Elizabeth Drake.

Oregon Agriculturist and Rural Northwest and the Enterprise, both one year for only $1.50, the price of one paper alone.

Mike Bowman, of New Era, was in the city Tuesday visiting his old friend, "Captain Fritz." Finding fault with Fritz's unpolished shoes, Bowman insisted on paying for a shine that was obtained from a local artist who made a charge of 35 cents for the service. The bill was cheerfully paid by the good-natured New Era carpenter who fully appreciated the joke from which he got his money's worth.

The place that does the business—drop in and get acquainted with the people. The Planet, Kelly & Ruconich, Props. Mrs. M. J. Moreland and Mrs. M. M. Burns, of this city, are both great grand nieces of Alexander Hamilton, the anniversary of whose birth was commemorated at the Portland Hotel Wednesday night by the American Patriotic Club. Their grandfather, John Sconce, on their mother's side, was a nephew of the brilliant statesman.

Weinhard's celebrated Columbia beer, the best in the world, on draught at The Planet, Kelly & Ruconich, proprietors. A burglar early Monday evening ransacked the rooms at the Brunswick House and a private residence in the business district of the city. A suspect, who was detected by the officers later in the evening, was arrested, but he was not the right man and he was released. Nothing of value was taken from any of the rooms visited.

There is plenty of State School money to be had at 6 per cent interest. Loans can be had from one to ten years. Gordon E. Hayes, agent. The people of Oregon City are to enjoy a treat at the Armory tomorrow, Saturday, evening in the way of a dance for which music will be furnished by the Milwaukie band of 18 pieces under the auspices of which the affair will be given. The Milwaukie Band boys are capital entertainers and assure their guests a thoroughly enjoyable time tomorrow night.

Oregon Agriculturist and Rural Northwest and the Enterprise, both one year for only $1.50, the price of one paper alone. Mrs. Lydia Howlett and O. L. Barbur were married at the groom's residence on Fifth street Wednesday evening at 7:30. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. S. Bollinger of the Congregational Church and the witnesses were the friends of the bride and groom. Mr. Barbur is night watch in the Willamette mills, and the boys are ready to give him a hearty reception after returning from the honeymoon journey. This week the Enterprise received an unsigned communication from Neely, relative to a difficulty between two residents of that place. It is contrary to the policy of this paper to publish any communication when the author is unknown. And so far as printing reports concerning neighborhood difficulties, it would be better for all concerned if these things did not get into print at all. However, the communication will be held until the author is learned. Don't fill your system with cheap alcoholic patent medicines, but drink pure whisky that is fully matured for that tired feeling. At The Planet, Kelly & Ruconich, proprietors. George Brown, H. Hannegsen and Web Burns have been appointed a committee on general arrangements by Columbia Hook and Ladder Company No. 1 for the annual dance that is to be given by the company on Washington's Birthday, Thursday, February 22. This is an annual event with the Hooks and they propose to make this year's party a repetition of previous successes. Parsons' orchestra, of Portland, will be engaged and a delightful party is in prospect. Geo. A. Brown, of Maple Lane, has a good four-year old cow, also a three and 1/2 months old calf for sale, or will exchange for hay.

Decrees of divorce were granted by Judge McBride Tuesday as follows: Mary A. Green vs. Wm. H. Green; Wm. C. Bates vs. Ora F. Bates. An order of default and reference was entered in the divorce suit of Mary Hockinson vs. Albert Hockinson. Ada Burrows, who became the wife of James M. Burrows at Seattle in 1901 has filed suit for divorce on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and infidelity. Ed. and A. R. Mendenhall, of Portland, are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

If you are not now a subscriber to the Youth's Companion, subscribe for that excellent paper together with the Enterprise, both papers one year for $2.50. Articles of incorporation in the sum of $5000 have been filed here by the Oregon City & Farmers' Independent Telephone Company, the incorporators being: W. H. Bonney, C. G. Huntley, H. S. Mount, and E. G. Caulfield, prominent business and professional men of this city. The purpose of the corporation is the forming of a mutual telephone company for the operation of a mutual exchange in this city by which about 500 subscribers to rural telephone lines in the interior of the county may be afforded connection with the business houses of Oregon City.

Gloves and Mittens—Chopped Prices 6c, 23c, 40c, 79c—Red Front. CARUS. We are having plenty of rain and muddy roads. Mr. Cooper, our post-master, has been quite sick for the last week. The Eldorado school will give a basket school Saturday night, January 13. The dance at Bob Bullard's Saturday night was quite a success. Fred Geren returned to Salem Monday.

Will and Julia Miller, of Highland, spent Sunday and Monday at the home of Tom McCarghy. Miss Lizzie Burgess visited with her aunt at Eldorado Tuesday. Mrs. Lewis called on Mrs. E. Howard and Mrs. W. Davis last Thursday. Mr. Clyde Smith of Mulino, spent Sunday with Albert Schoenborn. App Jones came home Tuesday from Fisher, Washington, where he has been working on the rock quarry. Miss Belle Gregory was the guest of Edith White Sunday. Mr. Mitts and wife spent the evening with Mr. Spence and wife Monday. Say, Jacob, what is the attraction across the canyon? Charley Jones, a prominent wood cutter of Beaver Creek, is helping his brother in law, Allen Edwards, clear land.

STAFFORD. Mrs. Weddle is better. She is sojourning in South. Mrs. Ed. Sharp, who has twin boys three weeks old, was taken alarmingly ill Monday, and Dr. Mount was hastily summoned. We understand she is better today. The Kruse-Baker telephone is kept quite busy extending its usefulness. The Baptist church is holding a series of meetings since the new year began. The first Sunday evening in every month the German minister has English services, when the house is usually full to hear him preach, both English and German turning out regardless of the weather. Mrs. Powell is expecting to be able to return home in a few days from St. Vincent's hospital. C. M. Gage, the flesh of whose arm was so badly crushed in an edge at Linton, was discharged from the hospital last week, and returned home. His arm is doing remarkably well, but he is weak yet and has to go and have it dressed by the physician at stated intervals. The Misses Adin and Mrs. Mary Peters made Mrs. Gage a pleasant visit last week.

WILHOIT. Talk about your lovely winters! Match us if you can. Oregon winters cannot be beat. John Trullinger has a nice band of goats, but it keeps him busy keeping them inside the fence. What are you going to do about it John? L. B. Trullinger has taken a contract to slash 36 acres for John Shepard. The slashing is to be done this winter. Miss Mabel Paulson is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ike Johnson at their home in Vancouver, Washington. Miss Judith Paulson is visiting friends in Portland for a few days.

SCOTT FOR JUDGE INTEREST OF FRUIT

MILWAUKIE MAN TO OPPOSE DIMICK FOR NOMINATION.

CLACKAMAS HORTICULTURISTS WILL HOLD RALLY.

Issues a Statement Defining His Policies—S. A. D. Hungate for Surveyor.

Various Topics of Interest To Be Discussed in This City, Saturday, January 20.

Richard Scott, of Milwaukie, a successful Clackamas county farmer and stock raiser, has announced that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for County Judge at the primary election in April. In announcing his candidacy, Mr. Scott has issued the following statement concerning his policies: To the Citizens of Clackamas County, Oregon: I herewith announce myself as a candidate for the nomination of County Judge on the Republican ticket to be voted for at the next primary election.

C. W. Swallow and J. C. Zinser, president and secretary, respectively of the Clackamas County Horticultural Society, have issued an invitation to the fruit growers of Clackamas county to attend a "Fruit Growers' Rally" that is to be held at the county court house in this city, Saturday, January 20. In that time various topics of vital interest to horticulturists will be discussed by men who are experienced orchardists. A large attendance of the fruit growers of the county is desired at this meeting which promises to be one of the most interesting ever held in the county.

If nominated and elected, I shall stand, especially for three things: First—For good roads. Second—For as near equal taxation as it is possible to get according to income. Third—For an economical administration of all county affairs.

The programme for the day will begin at 10 a. m., and will include addresses as follows: "The San Jose Scale and Best Methods of Checking"—J. H. Reid, Fruit inspector first district. "The Old Apple Orchard"—H. M. Williamson, editor of the Rural Northwest.

Since I, with Judge Meldrum's help, was the originator of the present mode of working county roads, although at that time opposed by nearly the whole county, you all know my position on the question of good roads. I consider them of more importance to the rural population than any other one thing.

At Wednesday's session officers for the ensuing year were re-elected as follows: President, Dr. J. R. Cardwell; vice-president, Col. Harry Hayes; second vice-president, J. H. Reid; secretary and treasurer, Professor E. R. Lake.

As to the second point, I believe, and I think you will agree with me, that the farmer pays more taxes according to his income than the large corporations and as long as our tax laws are in the present shape, this is an evil difficult to remedy. But I am an evil difficult to remedy. But I am able under the present conditions, this shall be remedied.

During the afternoon session, J. H. Reid, fruit inspector for Clackamas and Multnomah counties, was presented with a fine hat, the compliments of the Portland fruit dealers.

As to the administration of county affairs in an economical way, my record as County Commissioner for six years is well known to you and I am not ashamed to ask you for your support on that record.

I know I will have a hard fight to win the nomination and hope my friends throughout the county will rally to my support and do all they can to help me.

Respectfully yours, RICHARD SCOTT. Dated at Milwaukie, Oregon, January 9th, 1906.
