TERSELY-TOLD TALES OF THE WEEK'S DOINGS.

Are You Going to Run—

You will need blank petitions. You can have them in any quantity, at the Enterprise office. You may have your platform printed thereon, if you so desire.

Sent to Asylum—

August Moeschler, aged 20 years, and an employe at a sawmill in the interior of the county, was committed to the asylum at Salem Saturday evening. The young man is a native of the state of Wisconsin.

Workman at Mills Crushed—

W. R. Reddick, head sawyer at the Willamette Pulp & Paper Mills, was caught beneath a large spruce log last Friday afternoon and painfully injured. The log slipped from mits fastenings and, knocking Mr. Reddick to the floor, severely crushed the muscles of the left leg, over which it rolled.

Now Located at Portland—

Albert M. Grilley, who will be remembered as a former secretary of the Oregon City Y. M. C. A., has just returned from Boise, Idaho, where for three years he has been in charge of the Association work in that city. Mr. Grilley is now located in Portland where he has charge of the physical culture work in the Portland Y. M. C. A.

Officers Elected—

The Saturday club of the Congregational church held its annual meeting at the parsonage Saturday night and elected the following officers for this year: Miss May Mark, president; Miss Hilda McGetchie, secretary; and Miss Lena Gadke, treasurer. The reports show that the club is on a good financial basis and will enter upon a prosperous year.

Schneberk-Amberger—

A pretty wedding took place Monday morning at the Catholic church at 8 o'clock, when Miss Anna Amberger was united in marriage to Matt Schneberk. The ceremony was conducted by Father Hildebrand. Edward Preischoff acted as best man and Miss Rosa Hoss as best lady. The wedding dinner was served at the St. Paul House and only intimate friends of the two couple were present.

Killed Beavers Illegally—

D. S. Kimberly, of Damascus, was arrested Monday on Pudding River by Deputy Game Warden Clyde Diek for illegal trapping. Kimberly was caught with ten beaver hides in his possession. Pleading guilty to the charge when arraigned before Justice Knight at Canby, Kimberly was fined $20 which he paid when brought to this city. The killing of beaver is prohibited by law for twenty years.

New Lodge Organized—

A new lodge was organized in this city Friday evening under the direction of State Organizer G. F. Streets, of Portland, known as the Fraternal Union of America. The lodge originated in Denver, Colorado, and is a beneficial organization. The following officers were temporarily elected: Linn E. Jones, first master; Frank Newton, secretary; Dr. Meissner, physician. Already the new lodge has the required number for the charter list.

More Divorce Suits—

Two suits for divorce, desertion being alleged in each case, were filed last week by Portland attorneys. Katie Wallace asks to be legally separated from Herman S. Wallace and the right to resume her maiden name. Katie Henderson. They were married at Portland in 1902. Emmet A. Stieger charges Grace G. Stieger, whom he married at Victoria, B. C. in 1898, with abandoning him during the following year.

Circuit Court Monday—

Circuit Judge McBride convened an adjourned term of the November term of the circuit court Monday. During the day the following proceedings were had: A decree of divorce was granted in the suit of William E. Moore against Jennie F. Moore; orders of default and reference were made in other divorce suits as follows: Victor Pirard vs. Maria Pirard; Wm. C. Bates vs. Ora F. Bates; Nellie M. Smith vs. Hallie W. Smith. The suit to quiet title to land in Milwaukee in the case of Zimmerman vs. Hawkins took up the time of the court during the day.

Will Advertise the County—

Five hundred dollars was last week appropriated by the County Court for 16 pages in "Oregon," a booklet being prepared by the Portland Board of Trade. This book is to be composed of 480 pages, and each county contributing is to have part. Clackamas County will receive 300 copies, and thousands will be circulated by the Portland Board of Trade. Sixty thousand copies will be printed. The law authorizes each county to expend $500 annually for advertising purposes. Last year Clackamas gave that amount to exploitation at the Lewis and Clark Fair.

No Gambling Will be Allowed—

Acting under the instruction of Mayor E. G. Caufield, Chief of Police Burns last Friday visited the saloon men of the city and other resorts where games have been conducted in the past and notified the proprietors that no games of any character will be tolerated by the new administration. They were advised that all violations of the law will be prosecuted. The laws relating to minors and saloons will also be strictly enforced. It is not the purpose of Mayor Caufield to inaugurate a moral crusade or to make any spectacular demonstration but in an interview he has stated that he intends to make of Oregon City a town, the government of which is to be as free from censure as it is possible and those who remember his administration of municipal affairs during his two terms as Mayor six years ago will remember that he is a man of action. Cigar nickle-in-the-slot machines will not be disturbed.

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. G. G. Green gives alert personal attention to his great humanitarian contract.

In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles or consumption. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them or urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. New trial bottles, 25c.; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

Noblett Would be Sheriff—

C. R. Noblett, of Needy, evidently believes something in the old saying that to the early bird belongs the worm, at any rate, he has not waited until the Democratic political field has been thoroughly scamped over for candidates for the nomination for Sheriff. On the contrary, Mr. Noblett when in the city from his farm home in the Southern part of the county informed the Enterprise that he will seek the Democratic nomination for Sheriff in the primaries that will be held in April. "Charlie," as this faithful follower of the untrifled is generally known, served for a number of years on the Oregon City police force and from the experience there acquired with the criminal and other classes, his friends are firm in insisting that he would make a formidable candidate for the Republican nominee to tackle and in addition his supporters claim that he possesses the other requisite qualifications for the office to which he aspires.

STRAIN TOO GREAT.

Hundreds of Oregon City Readers Find It So.

The hustle and worry of business men.

The hard work and stooping of workmen.

The woman's household cares.

Are too great a strain on the kidneys.

Backache, headache, sideache, Kidney troubles, urinary troubles follow.

John J. Keating, painter, of 301 1-2 1st St., Portland, Ore., says: "I had dull aching pains in my back for a number of years. They were often so severe that I had to quit work for two or three days at a time. The kidney secretions were irregular and scalding and I suffered also from dizziness and headaches. My back was always lame and sore in the morning. Physicians failed to help me and no medicine did me any good until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They relieved the urinary difficulty and the heavy aching in the back disappeared."

Plenty more proof like this from Oregon City people. Call at Mr. C. G. Huntley's drug store and ask what his customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A TALENTED ORGANIZATION.

Chas. A. Taylor's Players Are to Appear Here This Friday Evening.

Theatre patrons are promised a rare treat, when "Her Marriage Vow" a melodrama of exceptional merit, presented by Charles A. Taylor's celebrated New York company, comes to this city To-night Friday, Jan. 12.

The play deals with railroad life. The hero is a railway telegraph operator, and the heroine an engineer's daughter. The villain is the son of the superintendent of the road, and the wicked woman is the president's daughter. The other members are nearly all connected with the road. The number of thrilling situations are many and well placed. At the end of the third act the villain assaults and binds the hero, who is supposed to switch a local train into the siding so that the Limited may pass in the other direction. The villain throws the switch—a collision is imminent, when the soubrette breaks from a room in which she has been locked and releases the hero, who smashes a window in the switch house, jumps through, and after a hand to hand fight with the villain and his accomplices, turns the switch in time to avert the catastrophe.

The presenting organization is one of exceptional merit that has played long and successful engagements in all the cities on the coast. From here they return to Portland for the third week. We are accorded but too few such attractions and a large audience should greet their appearance here.

Deserves Your Patronage.

The growth of a community and the success of its local institutions depends entirely on the loyalty of its people. It is well enough to preach "patronize home industry" but except the service given at a home institution equals that of out-of-town enterprises, this argument carries no weight and is entirely disregarded, as it should be. But with Oregon City people it is different. A few months ago E. L. Johnson established the Cascade Laundry. It is equipped with the latest improved machinery and is daily turning out work that is equal to any and superior to much of the laundry work that is being done in Portland. Being a home institution and furnishing employment for many Oregon City people it is enjoying an immense patronage. The high standard of the work being done commends it to the general public. Laundry left at the O. K. barber shop will be promptly called for and delivered to any part of the city. Telephone 1204. E. L. Johnson, proprietor.

Read letter from this prominent business man.

OMAHA, NEB., Dec. 15, 1905.
