Landsborough came to this city from Grant's Pass about a year ago and in the meantime has been serving the Oregon City congregation as supply pastor. A month ago a call was issued by the congregation and accepted by the minister who is popular here. The editor found on his desk one day this week the following item pertaining to an honorable member of the City Council from the Second Ward: "Dr. Knapp wishes to announce that he is a candidate for Chief Engineer of the Oregon City Fire Department? He has been a good and faithful fireman, always on hand at the first tap of the bell. At the last fire at the woolen mills, the Doctor made a great hit. He climbed the flag pole, stood on top with his wooden shoes and gave orders through the silver trumpet, 'Wait! Wait a little! yes, yes.'"
