Invitations have been issued by the German Society of Oregon City and Clackamas county for their second annual mask ball that will be held at the Armory, Saturday evening, February 3. This society was only recently organized but has a large membership. Its principal object is to advance the social life among its members and that the purpose is being attained one finds convincing evidence by attending one of their social affairs. The dance given a year ago was largely attended and was quite an event. If you are looking for bargains in Millinery call on Miss C. Goldsmith. Judge McBride in the state circuit court Tuesday afternoon heard argument and took under advisement the suit of John Gaffney, a wealthy farmer residing near Milwaukie, against his two sons, Michael and Dan Gaffney. This is a suit brought by the father to have set aside deeds by which he two years ago transferred to the sons the title to about 70 acres of rich land of the value of about $14,000. The father bases his suit for the setting aside of the deeds on the grounds that the sons caused him to become intoxicated and secured his signature to the papers by which he claims to have been defrauded out of his property. If you are not now a subscriber to the Youth's Companion, subscribe for that excellent paper together with the Enterprise, both papers one year for $2.50. Owners of the Oregon City Planing Mills Company, Ben Kuppenderer, W. Kuppenderer, and John A. Moehnke, are contemplating the formation of a stock company, with a capitalization of $25,000, for the erection of a planing mill, sash and door factory and dry kiln at Willamette. reports the Telegram. Three sites have been offered for this purpose by the Willamette Falls Company on the flat portion of ground near the banks of the river, and a guarantee has been given of free light and power for a period of five years. Should the project be carried to a successful termination, the planing mill now located on Main street, near Twelfth, will probably be removed to Willamette. Prepare for the Direct Primary. Plenty of blank petitions for candidates at the Enterprise office. Last Thursday evening Miss Margaret Goodfellow entertained the Gypsies and a few invited friends at her home on Eighth street. In an interesting conundrum contest four were equally correct in submitting their lists but Miss McBride was the lucky one in cutting the cards and received the prize. Fred Nelson demonstrated his artistic abilities in a drawing contest and captured the honors. A word game followed and in this Mort Cockrell exceeded in forming the longest word and received the prize. An excellent lunch was served by the hostess who was assisted in entertaining by Miss Marjorie Caufield. Afterwards some time was given to a spirited contest in the guessing of charades. Miss Goodfellow's guests were: The Misses Dalton, Caufield, McBride, Cheney, Shaw, Bollack, Pratt, Pope and Walden; Messrs. Osmond, Pratt, Latourette, Nelson, Goodfellow, Cochran, Cockrell, Stipp and Newton. Best Thread 3 for 10c. Millinery at half or less.—Red Front. The Democratic banquet committee met Monday night to make arrangements for the banquet to be given at the Willamette hall Thursday evening, February 8. It was decided by the committee to name the banquet the second biennial banquet of the Clackamas county Democracy. The banquet will begin at 8:30 p. m. and 50 cents a plate will be asked. The committee on invitations will do all in its power to have Governor Chamberlain and other prominent Democrats in the state present on this occasion. Chairman Stafford called the meeting and the following committees were appointed: Invitations, Harry Draper and H. F. Latourette; refreshments, Mr. McGiashan and Mr. Stafford; music and hall, Ed Jack. H. F. Latourette was elected treasurer. These committees have authority to appoint subcommittees and the different committees will be glad to receive any suggestions that may be offered by any Democrat in the county. Next meeting of this committee will be held next Monday night. Weinhard's celebrated Columbia beer, the best in the world, on draught at The Planet, Kelly & Ruconich, proprietors. Facing the fact that many school officers of Clackamas county are handicapped by lack of knowledge of the school law, County Clerk Greenman is still receiving letters from school Clerks advising him that their respective districts have levied a special tax, and requesting him to extend this tax on the assessment roll, says the Telegram. County School Superintendent Zimser has in the past furnished each district with copies of the school law, but officers have evidently failed to read that section that provides notification of the levying of a tax must be filed with the County Clerk prior to January 1. As a result, many school districts will receive no school money

THE BANK OF OREGON CITY

Gave a Pan-Cake Banquet. Last summer seven young men of this city spent their vacation at Newport, and following their return home, much has been heard about the beauty and attractiveness of that resort, especially as it appeared to the members of the party who did their own cooking. These young men capably sustained the role of host at Willamette Hall Monday evening when they entertained in a most novel and interesting manner about thirty invited guests. The seven young men—Will Logus, Harry E. Draper, Jos Goodfellow, Dr. H. S. Mount, Livi Stipp, C. W. Pope and Ted Osmond had donned facial disguises and greatly resembled a bunch of frontiersmen, the interior arrangement of the hall being in harmony therewith. Pope conducted a "21" game in true frontier style where, at a slight outlay, the tenderfoot was made acquainted with the game. Goodfellow was superintendent of mixologists at the "Reception," a cleverly improvised bar, where all sorts of drinks were prepared by a judicious mixture of sweet cider, grape juice and mineral water. Goodfellow was relieved during the evening by Osmond, Draper and Mount, who proved themselves equally skilled in the mixing of palatable and other drinks. During the evening several of the young gentlemen guests were hailed before a "court" presided over by C. G. Huntley as judge, with Franklin T. Griffith as prosecuting attorney and H. S. Moody, court clerk. Fines were imposed for some alleged misdemeanors, Dr. Morris being adjudged guilty of extracting teeth without pain. Dancing was pleasantly indulged in music being furnished by a stringed orchestra from Portland. At midnight a pan-cake banquet was served and the pan-cakes, by the way, were pronounced "as good as mother used to make," even if the feast was prepared entirely by the young men. In addition to the flap-jacks, however, there was also served sandwiches and coffee. This number on the program was carried out under the personal supervision of Logus, who in his impersonation of a German cook, was ludicrously funny. Following the banquet the party dispersed, the guests having been most satisfactorily and pleasantly convinced of the original and entertaining qualities of their hosts. A Grim Tragedy is daily enacted in thousands of homes, as Death claims in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and Colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley, of Oakland, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. RESOLUTIONS. Whereas, It has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe to remove from our midst our beloved and highly esteemed brother, G. C. Bacon, therefore be it Resolved, By Oregon City Assembly No. 7 United Artisans, that while we bow in humble submission to the will of God, we mourn the loss of our brother, who was taken from us so suddenly and whose departure leaves desolation and sorrow, where but a few short weeks ago was happiness and prosperity. Resolved, That the heartfelt sympathy of the Assembly be extended to the family of the deceased in the hour of their bereavement, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes; a copy transmitted to the wife of the deceased; a copy published in our local paper; and that our charter be draped in mourning for a period of 30 days, in memory of the deceased brother. G. F. EVERHART, H. M. STEVENSON, MRS. M. CURRAN, Committee. Dated at Oregon City, Or., December 26, 1905. RESOLUTION. Whereas, the Great Master above, has seen fit to remove from the midst of the family of our sister Maggie Smith her loving and affectionate sister, therefore be it Resolved, by Eagle Creek Grange No. 297, that we express and extend to Sister Maggie Smith and her parents our heartfelt sympathy in this, their time of sorrow and bereavement, and be it further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to sister Maggie Smith and a copy to the county papers. MILLIE McCONNELL, E. N. BATES, DORA BRACKETT, Com. It's folly to suffer from that horrible plague of the night, itching piles. Doan's Ointment cures, quickly and permanently.
