TERSELY-TOLD TALES OF THE WEEK'S DOINGS.

Silverton Defeated Oregon City—
The junior basketball team of the Oregon City High School went to Silverton Saturday afternoon where they played a game with the Silverton High School team. The members of the Oregon City team are: Caleb and Bernier, guards; Cole and Telford, forwards; and Smith, center. A number of enthusiasts accompanied the team. The Silverton team won the game by a score of 15 to 11.

Successful Dancing Party—
If there is not another dancing party during the year that a great many Oregon City people attend it is the annual party that is given by the members of Columbia Hook & Ladder company on Washington's Birthday. That was responsible largely for the immense gathering at the Armory last Thursday night when the members of this company entertained more than 150 couples at one of the most pleasant dancing parties ever given in this city. Music for the occasion was furnished by Parsons' orchestra, of Portland, and it was indeed of a high order.

The Indian Won—
J. Burns, who claimed to be the heavyweight champion of Montana, was knocked out in the first round Sunday afternoon by Indian Joe Schildt. On account of rumored intention on the part of the authorities to interfere, only a select few were invited to witness the fight, which took place at Metropolitan Park, near Canby, about six miles south of this city. The Indian was far superior to the alleged Montana champion, who was found to be a laborer residing near Canby. Schildt weighed 242 pounds and Burns 255 pounds. Ed. Rechner, of this city, umpired the contest.

Three Burglaries—
Three burglaries were committed in this city last Friday night when the hardware store of C. W. Frederick, the meat market of Brown & Welch and the bakery on Seventh street were entered and ransacked. In all three instances, entrance was accomplished by removing a panel from the rear door. At Frederick's store and the bakery only a few copper coins were taken but at the meat market about $5 in small change was taken from the till. About ten days ago, three other business houses in the heart of the city were burglarized. The robbers are believed to be the work of local characters although the officers as yet have no definite clue on which to work.

Commission House Started—
Through the agency of the Oregon City Board of Trade there has been esablished in this city a commission house. This commercial organization has long realized that such an institution is essential to the proper marketing of agricultural products at remunerative prices for the producers. In the absence of any such enterprise Oregon City has not been a good marketing point and has suffered correspondingly in a business way. The Board of Trade has interested Captain B. L. Snow, recently of Hutchinson, Kansas, in the project. Mr. Snow is an experienced commission dealer and with the co-operation of the city's commercial organization and the business men, of which he is assured, great benefit will accrue to Oregon City as a marketing point. Under conditions that have heretofore prevailed, the market has been easily glutted and the producer has been compelled to seek other markets.

A Serious Washout—
As a result of last Wednesday's heavy rain storm, a 20-foot stone embankment bordering on the Southern Pacific underground railroad crossing at Third street crumbled away, carrying with it much earth from beneath the main track, which is badly undermined. The operation of trains over the railroad will not be seriously interfered with, since a sidetrack will be utilized for passing trains. There were no accidents in connection with the cave-in, since the workmen were employed in other parts of the improvement work. The washout, which is about 400 yards south of the passenger depot, was reported to Agent Fields just in time for him to intercept the southbound Eugene local, which was about to leave the station. The condition of the track following the cave-in is such that but for timely discovery the train would have been precipitated over the 20-foot embankment.

"Buck" Becomes a Benedict—
Washington's birthday is an anniversary that in the future will be doubly celebrated by W. B. Jennings, who is best known locally as "Buck" Jennings, the good hearted fisherman. For it was on that day that Mr. Jennings, the good hearted fisher-gle-blessedness and became a benedict. The important event was celebrated at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. A. S. Abernethy, 1118 east John street, Seattle, last Thursday, when Mrs. Emma Alcott, of Seattle, became Mrs. W. B. Jennings. The bride is a native of Pennsylvania but has resided for several years at Seattle and other points on the Sound. Her son-in-law, E. C. Millon, is attorney for the Northern Pacific Company. The groom is widely known throughout Clackamas county as the son of the late Berryman Jennings, a

A FAMILY SAFEGUARD

Dr. Green arranges with the niece of Dr. Roscoe to handle her famous Uncle's Great Throat and Lung Cure.

The best family safeguard is a reliable household medicine that will cure croup, coughs, colds, chilly sensations, running eyes and nose, sore throat and bronchial affections—that will keep the children proof against all contagious diseases. Such a medicine is Roscoe's German Syrup, which has a record of 35 years in the cure of consumption, catarrh and all lung and bronchial troubles.

The fame of German Syrup as a consumptive cure, since its purchase by Dr. Green from the niece of the famous Dr. Roscoe, has extended to all parts of the earth. It has big sales everywhere.

pioneer of 1847. Mr. and Mrs. Jennings will reside at the old home on the Jennings farm near this city and have the best wishes of numerous friends for much happiness.

Oregon City Girl Makes a Hit—
Miss Adaline A. Miller, who lived at Oregon City for several months prior to last Summer recently assumed the leading role in the production of "Under Two Flags," by amateurs of Astoria. Of the efforts of the young amateurs, the Astorian in an account pays Miss Miller the following complimentary mention:

"What was by far the best amateur performance that has been staged in Astoria for some time, was witnessed last night at the Star theater by an audience only limited by the capacity of the building, when the stirring four-act military drama, "Under Two Flags," was presented. The cast of the play was composed of local talent, and the perfection of detail with which the individual parts were carried out, speaks well for the ability of the participants. It would be hard indeed to select any particular star among the players, as each one performed their part assigned to perfection, though it might be said that Miss Adaline A. Miller, as Lady Venitia Corona, was especially good, showing real talent for her part."

Suit to Set Aside Ordinance—

Capt. J. T. Apperson and Mary S. Barlow, property owners, have instituted suit in the circuit court against Frank Busch, the purpose of which is to have set aside as null and void an ordinance recently enacted by the Oregon City Council by which a portion of Moss and Eleventh streets between Main and Water streets was declared vacated, on the petition of Mr. Busch, the defendant. Plaintiffs allege that by the action of the council the defendant is given the use of a strip of land with a 70 foot frontage. They ask that the court set aside as invalid the ordinance and perpetually enjoin the defendant from erecting any buildings on any portion of the vacated streets, complaining that such proceeding will injure their property rights to the extent of $2,000 damages. The ordinance by which the streets were originally vacated was passed by the Council on the strength of a petition presented by Mr. Busch containing the signatures of all of the adjacent property owners who now contend that they signed the petition without a knowledge of its contents. H. E. Ross appears as attorney for the plaintiffs.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidney once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 600 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

James Downey, living at Willamette Falls, Oregon City, Ore., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills for backache and kidney trouble. Their beneficial effects were apparent in a short time. I may not have been troubled as badly as a good many people but I would advise anyone in need of a kidney remedy to go to Huntley Bros' drug store, procure Doan's Kidney Pills and they will not be disappointed in the satisfactory results which will follow their use."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

MAIL CARRIERS APPRECIATED.

One Rural Patron Voices His Sentiments in Verse.

In making his rounds one day recently, the carrier of R. F. D. No. 1 from the Oregon City office found in the box of one of his patrons a four-verse contribution to "The Rural Free-Delivery Carrier." To the poetry, which is herewith reproduced, was affixed the name of Wm. Gardner:

The Rural Free-Delivery Carrier.
The mail-man on his weary round,
Six days a week, may be found.
He brings the mail right to our door,
The like, was never heard before.

No matter what the weather is,
The mail-man must attend his biz;
And as he jogs along each day,
Delivers mail along his way.

His faithful horse trots sprightly on,
And pulls the cart he rides upon,
And from the rain to keep him dry,
An umbrella he raises high.

Some think, to carry mail is fun,
And would like to live upon his run;
But Uncle Sam could not prevail,
On me, at least, to carry the mail.

Nervous Women

Their Sufferings Are Usually Due to Female Disorders Perhaps Unsuspected

A MEDICINE THAT CURES

Can we dispute the well-known fact that American women are nervous? How often do we hear the expression, "I am so nervous, it seems as if I should fly," or, "Don't speak to me." Little things annoy you and make you irritable; you can't sleep, you are unable to quietly and calmly perform your daily tasks or care for your children.

The relation of the nerves and generative organs in woman is so close that nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous debility, the blues, sleeplessness and nervous irritability arise from some derangement of the organism which makes her a woman. Fits of depression or restlessness and irritability; spirits easily affected, so that one minute she laughs, the next minute weeps; pain in the abdominal region and between the shoulders; loss of voice; nervous dyspepsia; a tendency to cry at the least provocation—all these point to nervous prostration.

Nothing will relieve this distressing condition and prevent months of prostration and suffering so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. M. E. Shotwell, of 103 Flatbush Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"I cannot express the wonderful relief I have experienced by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered for a long time with nervous prostration, backache, headache, loss of appetite. I could not sleep and would walk the floor almost every night.

"I had three doctors and got no better, and life was a burden. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has worked wonders for me.

"I am a well woman, my nervousness is all gone and my friends say I look ten years younger."

Will not the volumes of letters from women made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound convince all women of its virtues? Surely you cannot wish to remain sick, weak and discouraged, exhausted each day, when you can be as easily cured as other women.

Deserves Your Patronage.

The growth of a community and the success of its local institutions depends entirely on the loyalty of its people. It is well enough to preach "patronize home industry" but except the service given at a home institution equals that of out-of-town enterprises, this argument carries no weight and is entirely disregarded, as it should be. But with Oregon City people it is different. A few months ago E. L. Johnson established the Cascade Laundry. It is equipped with the latest improved machinery and is daily turning out work that is equal to any and superior to much of the laundry work that is being done in Portland. Being a home institution and furnishing employment for many Oregon City people it is enjoying an immense patronage. The high standard of the work being done commends it to the general public. Laundry left at the O. K. barber shop will be promptly called for and delivered to any part of the city. Telephone 1204. E. L. Johnson, proprietor.
