TERSELY-TOLD TALES OF THE WEEK'S DOINGS.

Would be a Cadet—

Carl F. Ganong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Ganong, of Vanemah, was one of six young men who last week at Portland took the examination required of applicants for appointment to a cadetship in the Annapolis Naval Academy.

Revising Rural Routes—

Inspector of Rural Routes Clement and Postmaster Randall are inspecting the five free delivery mail routes that are operated from the Oregon City post office for the purpose of extending the service and perfecting the system which is giving the best satisfaction. Where expedient the present routes will be extended for the accommodation of other families not now served and, if necessary, the creation of additional routes will be recommended.

Passes Away in Salt Lake—

Mrs. H. L. L. Clark, of Oregon City, received a dispatch from Salt Lake yesterday announcing the death of her brother, Walter S. Moss, on February 28, in that city. Mr. Moss was the son of the late Sidney W. Moss, a pioneer of 1842, and was born in Oregon City on July 10, 1848. He began his career as a printer and newspaper man on the Enterprise of his native city, and followed that business in Salem and Portland until about 1890, since which date he had been in the theatrical business as advance agent. In addition to his sister, Mrs. Clark, he leaves two half-brothers, A. L. Richardson, Boise, Idaho, and S. T. Richardson, Oregon City.—Sunday Oregonian

Contains Much of Interest—

The Argonaut for March 3, 1906, is replete with articles of interest to book-lovers. There is another, the last, installment of letters from California writers, in which they name the books they liked best in 1905; Ella Higginson, Christian Binkley, and Elizabeth Knight Tompkins are among those represented in this week's symposium. The book reviews and literary gossip have been contributed by specialists on the various themes dealt with. The short story, entitled "A Custom of the Family," is by the late Leonard Kip (brother of Bishop Kip); it is a curious, quasi-psychological study in heredity. The tale has for its motif an ancestral duty that compels the head of a noble French family to commit murder at least once in a generation. The recent annual dinner of the Gridiron Club of Washington, D. C., with its amusing travesty of the Panama Canal situation is entertainingly described. The editorial, dramatic, and society departments are full with up-to-the-hour comment and information.

Kicked by a Horse—

J. Burley, a blacksmith at Ely, received a painful injury last Thursday afternoon when he was kicked by a horse. He was struck just over the eye to the probable permanent injury of that member.

Wedding Anniversary Celebrated—

In honor of the seventeenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly, a pleasant surprise was given them recently at their home. Progressive whist was the amusement indulged in, and the prizes were won by Web Burns and Anna Hosey. Refreshments were served, and the evening was happily spent.

McKinstry in Divorce Court—

Cruel and inhuman treatment and drunkenness are the charges preferred by Dora M. McKinstry in a divorce filed here against Richard McKinstry. The parties were married at Kalama, Wash., in October 1902. They gained some local notoriety a few weeks ago when the husband and a companion, both intoxicated, went to McKinstry's home and joined in abusing Mrs. McKinstry who finally procured and ax and drove her tormentors from the premises after thrashing her husband's associate whom she delivered over to the authorities. Nellie C. Hague, who was married to Richard Hague at Sherlock, New York, in March, 1888, has also filed suit for divorce alleging desertion.

"As You Like It"—

Three students of the Barclay High school graduating class Friday morning presented to the scholars of the school Shakespeare's play "As You Like It," scene 3, act 1. The play was class the Shakespearean play, "As You acted out in every particular, which was quite surprising to the pupils. Miss Lizzie Roos represented Rosalind; Miss Vera Phillips, Cecelia, and Russell Wood the character of Duke Frederick. Unique costumes were worn by the different characters with good effect. The front part of the room was decorated for the occasion. Another scene of act 2, scene 2 will be rendered some time in the future and in a short while the ninth grade will produce a scene from the "Merchant of Venice."

Twenty-fifth Wedding Anniversary—

The following was received too late for last week's issue. A very pretty party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Millard J. Warnock Monday evening at their home "Grey Gables" in Mount Pleasant, the occasion being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. Miss Katherine Warnock and Miss Sellers, a niece of the bride, received the guests. The rooms were beautifully decorated in yellow and

FOOD for OLD and YOUNG

August Flower keeps the children healthy and strong— Full of vigor and frolic the whole day long. So when Mamma needs more they rush off in high glee. And shout to the druggist: "Please give it to me!"

Inability to get up brisk and fresh in the morning, lack of appetite, pallor, muddy complexion and poor spirits—these all indicate a disordered stomach and bad digestion—in adults and children, too. They also indicate the urgent need of taking Green's August Flower regularly for a few days.

It's a reliable old remedy for all stomach troubles, never fails to cure indigestion, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, and is a natural tonic for body and mind.

green, violets and daffodils being profuse. A very enjoyable evening was spent during which Mr. Richard R. Taber in a very neat speech presented the bride and groom with an elegant chair, a gift of the company. One feature of the evening's entertainment was a memory contest, in which Mrs. Warner won first prize, and Mr. R. H. Taber the consolation. At a late hour the guests were invited to the dining room where dainty refreshments were served. About seventy friends and neighbors were present to extend best wishes and congratulations to the bride and groom.

SOME REASONS.

Why Oregon City People Should Follow This Valuable Advice.

Because the proof is in Oregon City. You can easily investigate it.

Not necessary to experiment with some untried remedy.

Profit by the experience of a citizen.

Harry M. Shaw, linotype operator at the Enterprise Office, and living at 605 E. Fifth Street, Oregon City, Or., says: "Sitting for hours a day bent over a type setting machine finally rendered my back so lame and sore that I had to go to a physician, but did not get any noticeable benefit from the treatment. Three years ago I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills, got a box and began using them. They gave me the first relief I had been able to obtain and finally gave me complete relief from any trace of pain. The nature of my work sometimes causes some soreness in my back and whenever this occurs I always resort to Doan's Kidney Pills and never in vain. I can conscientiously advise anyone in need of such a remedy to go to Huntley Bros' drug store, here in Oregon City, procure Doan's Kidney Pills and give them a trial."

RESORTS TO ABUSE.

(Continued from page 1.) that is pending against him. Most finally did he attempt to establish an alibi in that connection by reading from the Senate Journal to show that he was at Salem in attendance on the State Legislature on the day the crime is alleged in the indictment to have been committed as well as the two days preceding and the two days following, the burden of this evidence being to disprove the possibility of his being at Oregon City at the time and where the crime is charged to have been perpetrated.

But in this connection the Senator failed to state for the information of his auditors that in addition to numerous special trains that were operated by the railroad company for the accommodation of the state's legislators, there were run during the session three regular trains between Portland and Salem by which it was possible for him to make the trip to Oregon City and return the same day or early the following morning and at the same time be in attendance and participate in the deliberations of the Senate at both the morning and afternoon sessions.

Those acquainted with the routine of the Legislature, know that it was not an uncommon thing for members of that body residing at Portland or in this city, to take the afternoon train out of Salem, following the afternoon session, spend the evening in this city, and return to Salem the following morning in ample time to be present and be recorded as present and voting at the session of either House during the forenoon of the following day.

Even admitting that the Senator was at Salem continuously from January 8 to 12, the indictment alleging that the crime was committed on January 10, the Senator failed to inform his audience that a Federal indictment like a state or district indictment does not have to specify the exact date on which an offense has been committed. An information charging the commission of a crime on the 10th of a month, is perfectly valid and obtains against the same crime if it was committed on any day within several days previous to the date named in the indictment and no one knows this to be the fact better than does Senator Brownell. Hence, the extreme absurdity of his defense.

In conclusion, the Senator became eloquent in a brief discussion of Citizenship, endorsed Statement No. 1 and lauded Johnathan Bourne for what he is doing towards educating the people on this subject.

Charles Lakin, of Milwaukie, was chairman of the meeting and the Milwaukie Band furnished music during the evening.

In addition to Senator Brownell, the following named candidates for nomination on either the legislative or county ticket, also spoke: C. H. Dye, George Randall, W. W. Smith, and J. H. Gibson, Representative; D. R. Dimick, and Eli C. Maddock, Sheriff; Richard Scott and G. B. Dimick, Judge; J. A. Tufts, Treasurer; R. L. Holman, coroner, Mayor Wm. Schindler also made a short talk.

SWORN STATEMENT BY J. K. MORRIS.

Owing to the fact that there has been some talk among voters of Clackamas County, that if I am elected Sheriff of Clackamas County, I will appoint W. W. H. Samson as my chief Deputy. This I have openly denied, and in order to further refute and deny the above report, I make the following affidavit:

STATE OF OREGON,
County of Clackamas.—ss.
I, J. K. Morris, being first duly sworn depose and say, that if I am elected to the office of Sheriff of Clackamas County, Oregon, at the coming State and County election to be held on June 4th, 1906, that I will not appoint W. W. H. Samson, as my deputy in said office, during my continuance therein; and I further state and swear that if I am elected to said office, said W. W. H. Samson will not in any manner or way be connected with said office during my term therein.

J. K. MORRIS,
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 7th day of March, 1906.

OREGON CITY GIRL IN CALIFORNIA.

The following flattering notice of Miss Mary Adelle Case, of this city, who is pursuing her musical studies in California this winter, recently appeared in a California paper:

"At 10:30 high mass the choir under the direction of the organist, G. C. Burrier, sang in a creditable manner, selections from Gounod, Megand and other composers. As an offertory Miss Case from Palo Alto, sang the famous Gounod-Bach Ave Maria. Miss Case is an artist of such remarkable abilities that a few words regarding her work are altogether merited. Miss Case originally comes from Portland, Oregon. She has spent several years in New York in the pursuit of her art under one of the ablest French and Italian teachers, as well as with a Lillie Lehmann pupil. Miss Case sings with a wonderful control of voice, and every note of her song proclaims her a true artist."

Backache, "The Blues"

Both Symptoms of Organic Derangement in Women—Thousands of Sufferers Find Relief.

How often do we hear women say: "It seems as though my back would break," or "Don't speak to me, I am all out of sorts?" These significant remarks prove that the system requires attention.

Backache and "the blues" are direct symptoms of an inward trouble which will sooner or later declare itself. It may be caused by diseased kidneys or some derangement of the organs. Nature requires assistance and at once, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound instantly asserts its curative powers in all those peculiar ailments of women. It has been the standby of intelligent American women for twenty years, and the best judges agree that it is the most universally successful remedy for woman's ills known to medicine.

Read the convincing testimonials of Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Cotrely.

Mrs. J. C. Holmes, of Larimore, North Dakota, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I have suffered everything with backache and female trouble—I lie the trouble run on until my system was in such a condition that I was unable to be about, and then it was I commenced to use Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If I had only known how much suffering I would have saved I should have taken it months sooner—for a few weeks' treatment made me well and strong. My backaches and headaches are all gone and I suffer no pain at my monthly periods, whereas before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I suffered intense pain."

Mrs. Emma Cotrely, 109 East 19th Street, New York City, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I feel it my duty to tell all suffering women of the relief I have found in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

THE SOCIALIST MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the Socialists was held in Knapp's Hall Sunday, with a little more than average attendance. It was decided to hold the county convention on Saturday, April 7, and the next regular local meeting to be postponed to that day and meet in the morning at 10 a. m., and the convention be held at 2 p. m. The announcement was also made that the district convention to nominate a congressman for the first district on the Socialist ticket will be held in Knapp's Hall, Oregon City, on Tuesday, March 13, at 10 a. m. The State convention of the Socialist party will be held at 309 Davis St., Portland, March 12 and 13. The meeting was attended by several Portland Socialists and addresses were made by Thomas A. Sladden, State Secretary of the party, and J. D. Stevens, which were roundly applauded at some points. A resolution was introduced which proposed to suspend from the party for one year all members who had registered as other than Socialists. After considerable argument it was laid on the table until the next meeting. Adjourned to meet in convention April 7.

MOLALLA GRANGERS ACTIVE.

Hold Interesting Meeting With Instructive Discussions.

Molalla Grange No. 310 held a very interesting meeting March 3, reports the Enterprise correspondent. The Grange was organized here just four years ago.

Acting on the suggestion of the Worthy State Secretary, the grange has made a start for organizing a juvenile grange. Miss Kate Schamel and Mrs. Fourie were appointed matrons, with power to canvass for members and appoint the time for organization.

A resolution was passed favoring the payment of 10 cents by each member of the Grange in the state to be used in circulating petitions for initiating laws of interest to the Patrons of Husbandry. Seven applications were considered and one brother instructed in the third and fourth degree.

The third contest was closed which resulted in a decided victory for the married members, but when explanation was given showing the forces engaged in the contest it appeared that one single member had amounted to about two and one-half married members. Even the married members had to admit this was a very good showing.

Grange decided to invite Pomona to meet with No. 310 in July. Secretary introduced a "Harvest" march which promises to become of interest. Brother George Dimick was present and spoke on the fruit industry of the Willamette Valley and diseases which are a menace to the successful raising of the once renowned Oregon apples produced here. He favored the selection of the survival of the fittest. Such varieties that were hardy enough to be less subject to disease.

Brother Pierce Wright, a 7th Degree member of No. 40, was also a visitor. Brothers Lehman and Handershot surprised the Grange with their presence and each took away the Secretary's receipt for a year's dues.

If there is a grange in the state having a more real good time and successful meeting than No. 310 is now experiencing, it must surely be on the way of very enjoyable improvement for the mutual benefit of its members and the community in general.

Deserves Your Patronage.

The growth of a community and the success of its local institutions depends entirely on the loyalty of its people. It is well enough to preach "patronize home industry" but except the service given at a home institution equals that of out-of-town enterprises, this argument carries no weight and is entirely disregarded, as it should be. But with Oregon City people it is different. A few months ago E. L. Johnson established the Cascade Laundry. It is equipped with the latest improved machinery and is daily turning out work that is equal to any and superior to much of the laundry work that is being done in Portland. Being a home institution and furnishing employment for many Oregon City people it is enjoying an immense patronage. The high standard of the work being done commends it to the general public. Laundry left at the O. K. barber shop will be promptly called for and delivered to any part of the city. Telephone 1204. E. L. Johnson, proprietor.
