

Constipated All His Life.

MR. and MRS. WILBERT THOMPSON,
801 Main St., Peoria, Ill.
MULL'S GRAPE TONIC CURED HIM.

Wilbert Thompson never knew a well day until last June—he had been constipated all his life—many doctors treated him, but all failed to even help him—his health failed rapidly and on January 21, 1903, Mrs. Thompson asked us to suggest a treatment for her husband—We thought the case too serious and recommended that a specialist be consulted—but he also failed to help the patient—NOW HE IS WELL.

Mull's Grape Tonic Cured Him

Mrs. Thompson first wrote us as follows: "My husband, aged 23, suffers from sharp pains in his stomach and sometimes thinks it is his heart. Let me know by return mail what causes the pain, if you can. Mr. Thompson has been treated by several doctors, but they have given him up."

We promptly advised that a first-class specialist be consulted. We quote: "We want to sell Mull's Grape Tonic, because we know it will cure constipation, but see, a bottle is no object to us when a human life is at stake, and if your husband's case is as serious as you state, we suggest you consult a reliable specialist, not the advertising kind, promptly." At the same time, knowing that Mull's Grape Tonic could do no harm, we advised its use until a physician could be consulted. January 25 Mrs. Thompson wrote that a physician had been consulted. He diagnosed the case as being chronic constipation and dyspepsia. His treatment was followed faithfully, but there was no perceptible improvement in Mr. Thompson's health. Then he began taking Mull's Grape Tonic and on Sept. 3, 1903, we received the following letter from Mrs. Thompson:

"You will remember that I wrote to you last January in regard to my husband's health. It is four months since he quit taking Mull's Grape Tonic for constipation, which he suffered from since birth. He took just 24 bottles of it and is perfectly cured. He is much stronger and has gained considerably in flesh. I cannot thank you enough for Mull's Grape Tonic. It is worth its weight in gold. Just $12 cured him and he has spent hundreds of dollars with doctors who did him no good. Now I have given my case to you and expect your early reply. I also have constipation, have had for three years. Kindly let me know as I am sure it will cure me if you say it will, as it did all you claimed it would in my husband's case. I await an early reply."

Very respectfully yours, MRS. W. H. THOMPSON, 801 Main St., Peoria, Ill.

NEEDY.

The past few days have been very warm and wild spring flowers are blooming.

John Jesse was hauling mill feed one day this week.

Ed. B. Miller was in Aurora Monday on business.

George Scramlin put in a phone for J. D. Ritter one day the past week.

Rudy Ritter is getting along all right and will soon be up and about.

The social party at Mr. Polk Gribble's was well attended and all enjoyed themselves. A fine luncheon was served at midnight. The time was spent in playing games and instrumental music.

The public sale at Jim Mishley's was well attended and good prices were realized for what was sold.

Percy R—— don't get hot; we have another word to offer; don't try to carry water on both shoulders as you will surely (take a tumble).

We learn that the teacher at Needy will give an entertainment by her school in the near future.

Our school, taught by Miss Anna Bachman, is all right, and rapid advancement is being made by the pupils. The teacher is thinking of giving a basket social sometime in the future.

All of these diseases are attended by intense itching, which is almost instantly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Salve and by its continued use a permanent cure may be effected. It has, in fact, cured many cases that had resisted all other treatment. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Howell & Jones.

HIGHLAND.

The annual election of the Highland Sunday school officers took place Sunday evening under the supervision of Rev. Wettlaufer with the following results: Supt., Mrs. Ada Dunlap; asst. supt., Robt. Rutherford; secretary, Pearl Miller; treasurer, Geo. Rutherford; chorister, G. R. Miller; organist, Mrs. E. Baker; librarian, Vena Mayfield; asst. librarian, Beth Bowman. The superintendent announced that Sunday school will be held at 10 a. m. instead of 2 p. m., as heretofore. Rev. Wettlaufer preached a very interesting sermon Sunday evening to an appreciative audience. His text was Romans, 8-1.

Fred North lost one of his valuable work horses by death.

The famous debate on Womens' Suffrage between Mrs. and Mrs. G. R. Miller took place at the Grange Hall as previously announced. At the regular time which the Grange usually devotes to literary work and known as the "Lecturer's" hour, the decks were cleared for action, and the battle commenced. It was an able argument presented by both sides to an attentive audience. The Judges, Worthy Master Wright from Molalla Grange No. 40; Sister Ginter from Central Grange and Sister Peck, from Clarks, decided in favor of the affirmative, which Mrs. Miller represented. The event is a thing of the past, but the lesson taught will long be remembered.

Miss Essie Gard from Parkplace, is visiting in Highland at present among her numerous friends and sojourning at her sister's, Mrs. Miller.

Bardel Van Dagne's smiling face is seen once more in Highland.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

Frank Burley, our village blacksmith, met with an accident the other day while shoeing a horse; it kicked striking him on the forehead just above the left eye, cutting quite a gash; several stitches were required to hold the wound together. A half inch either way would have struck the temple or the eye.

Dr. Strickland and J. W. Murrow are having kennels built for their fine bred Collies. These are an intelligent set of dogs and are not cross as some people imagine. Just treat them kindly and they will be all smiles; did you ever see a dog smile? Well they can.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beard at their home at Maple Lane, were pleasantly reminded of the 30th anniversary of their wedding when a party of about forty friends invaded their home and spent the evening. The time was most enjoyable passed in the pursuit of numerous games. Delicious refreshments were served after Mr. and Mrs. Beard had been presented with a number of very valuable and useful gifts and at a late hour the party dispersed after wishing for the host and hostess many happy returns of the anniversary.

The Enterprise job office is prepared to print cards for candidates on short notice. The candidate's photograph will be printed on the card, when desired, at a slight advance in price. Cards are not expensive, and are a genteel means of introduction to the voters. Candidates of all parties are invited to call and see samples.

NO COLLAR ON MR. JAGGAR.

"I wish to state to the Republican voters of Clackamas county that I am not wearing a 'Brownell collar,' neither am I wearing a 'Porter collar,' neither am I wearing nor will I wear the collar of any other man or clique," said ex-Representative Frank Jaggar Wednesday. "I make this statement," stated Mr. Jaggar, who is a candidate on the Republican ticket to succeed himself as Representative from this county, "in refutation of the charges that are being made by my opponents who assert that I am controlled by Brownell. I defy any one to show an instance during the last session of the state legislature, of which I was a member, in which my vote was influenced by Senator Brownell or any other consideration than the best interests of my constituency."

SILVER WEDDING.

WILSONVILLE, Or., March 24.—The most important social event which has occurred here for a long time was the celebration of the silver wedding anniversary of Hon. J. L. Kruse and wife which occurred on March 24. About 40 relatives and friends were in attendance and were highly entertained and feasted. First by music on the violin and organ, by Homer Kruse and Rev. Mr. Liesman. When dinner was announced the guests headed by their host and hostess marched to the dining room where they partook of a bountiful feast, while they were treated to all the latest music which was rendered by Prof. H. A. Kruse. After all were served with dinner the time was passed very pleasantly with music, songs and story telling. Mr. and Mrs. Kruse live on their beautiful farm 2 miles north east from Wilsonville, where they have resided continuously during their wedded life. Two children, a boy and a girl, have come to them as a result of this union, both of whom are now at home. Mr. Kruse has served his county in the Oregon Legislature and is now a candidate for re-election. Prominent among those present were Rev. Mr. Liesman and family; H. A. Kruse and son; Mrs. A. Kruse, (mother of J. L. Kruse); Fred Elgisen and family; C. T. Toozee and wife; Chas. Baker and wife; Frank Baker and sister, and Mr. Ernest Kruse. EX.

Attorney General Crawford was asked yesterday if a voter who had registered as a Democrat could appear at the clerk's office later and change his declaration to Republican, or vice versa, and that officer gave it as his opinion that he could not, says Thursday's Statesman. He says he can find no authority in the law for so doing. The law expressly provides that a man cannot register more than once for the same election and he thinks that a change as implied in the question would be practically a new registration.

HUNTLEY BROS.

LAURA FRANKENFIELD.

In those cities where Miss Frankenfield has been appearing in her strong emotional roles, she has become well known, and she has rapidly risen to be acknowledged as one of the foremost actresses in the West. Her name alone is sufficient to draw packed houses. It is not to be wondered at that local managers are anxious to book her. All know her to be a finished and painstaking artist and that she always has a well balanced company and a fine play, but all do not know of her literary genius. When the great novel, "Quo Vadis" was at its zenith, Miss Frankenfield conceived the idea of dramatizing it. "It would be great," said the dramatic managers, "but it can't be done." "It can," said Miss Frankenfield, and she at once proved it. Eventually the dramatization was sold and has been played from ocean to ocean, and has been one of the greatest productions ever brought out. Miss Frankenfield has dramatized the play she is appearing in this season, "Her Double Life". It is from the pen of Wilkie Collins and has already been pronounced the season's success. Miss Frankenfield appears as "Mercy Merrick". The company will appear here on March 15.

OFFICE OPEN FOR REGISTRATION

County Clerk Greenman announces that beginning next Monday, March 12, he will be at his office in the Court House for the accommodation of the mill voters and others desiring to register, during the following hours, in addition to the regular office hours of the day:
Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, from 7 to 8 o'clock.
Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings, from 5 to 6 o'clock.

The intellectual, emotional actress, Miss Laura Frankenfield, who made such a hit with our theater goes last season as "Mrs. Alving" in "Ghosts" will be with us again next Thursday evening, at Shively's Opera House, when she will present that beautiful play "Her Double Life". This has been especially dramatized for Miss Frankenfield from Wilkie Collins "The New Magdalen," and our people have a rare treat in store. Miss Franken-ress of the entire territory she covers, which is large. Last season the tour extended to the coast and engagements were played in the leading cities. "Her Double Life" is a most pleasing story and sparkles with lines of heart interest, thrilling climaxes and situations. Best of all, the ending is most pleasing and everyone leaves the theatre feeling happier and ready to take up the next day's duties with lighter heart. After all, we get enough gloom in this world of ours, without going to see it enacted on the stage.
