TERSELY-TOLD TALES OF THE WEEK'S DOINGS.

Wife vs. Mother-in-law—

W. T. Patton alleges that his wife, Bertha E. Patton, besides calling his mother and sisters objectionable names, refused to recognize them on the street. He wants a divorce. They were married at Portland, in April, 1902.

Registration is Good—

The total registration of Clackamas county voters up to last Saturday was 3129 out of a total voting strength of about 4500. It is estimated that all of the voters of the county will have registered before April 10, the date the books will be closed for the primary election.

Died in West Oregon City—

Blanche, the 18-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Whitten, died of quick consumption last Friday night at the home of her parents in West Oregon City. The deceased young woman was popular with a wide circle of acquaintances who deplore her untimely death. Funeral services were conducted Sunday.

Oregon Patents—

Granted this week. Reported by C. A. Snow & Co., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C. Joseph E. Henner, Haines, carbide; William H. Kennedy, Portland, cattle or stock guards; Casper Koehler, Canyon City, hay stacker; Charles K. Sitton and J. H. Williams, Portland, take-down square. For a copy of any of the above patents send ten cents in postage stamps with the date of this paper to C. A. Snow & Co., Washington, D. C.

Yoran's Dog Has Whooping Cough—

Dogs and other animals are subject to diseases of a more or less common character but there is a fine pointer dog in Eugene that is said to have a well developed case of whooping cough. It is the real whooping cough and one person who suggested that it might be merely tonsillitis was nearly knocked down by the owner who asserts that he knows whooping cough from the mere ordinary imitations. The owner of the animal is Darwin Yoran and he said yesterday that the night before when the fire bell rang the poor dog got started on a spell of coughing and strong remedies had to be applied at once to relieve his suffering. The dog has a regular cough, with a whoop at the end of it and when he tries to bark the result is a miserable failure. The dog seems to realize that his talking apparatus is not like that of other dogs and he feels it keenly, and he only tries to bark when he forgets himself. The owner has been doctoring the dog for throat troubles but no improvement has been noticed yet.—Eugene Register.

Death at Gladstone—

Louis Earl Salisbury, aged 66 years, died of consumption Sunday night at his home at Gladstone. Although Mr. Salisbury had been ill for some time, death ensued very suddenly. Besides a widow, the deceased is survived by two children, Henry Salisbury, of this city, and Mrs. E. N. Rasmussen, of Portland. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday morning, Rev. A. J. Montgomery, of Portland, officiating.

Institute Rebekah Lodge—

Twenty-eight members of the Rebekah Lodge from this city went to Molalla Saturday night and instituted the Oak Rebekah Lodge at that place, starting out with 25 charter members. Mrs. J. J. Cooke of this city acting as instituting officer. After the exercises an elaborate banquet was given. The following officers were elected: Mrs. A. Albright, noble grand; Alice Boyles, vice-grand; Mrs. Dora Moody, recording secretary; Mabel Dungan, financial secretary; Mrs. Cornelia Boyles, treasurer.

After Right of Way—

L. B. French, a broker having offices both at Los Angeles and at Portland, has been spending several days in this locality interviewing the farmers and other property holders with a view to acquiring a right of way across lands extending southerly from this city. Mr. Page managed to keep secret his business associations in the enterprise but he is thought to have relations with some of the capitalists that are behind one of the proposed Valley street railway systems, extending from Portland to Eugene. Mr. Page is negotiating with property owners for rights of way on the east side of the river while the route for the proposed Valley line has been established on the west side from a point opposite Butteville.

Read the Argonaut—

In the Argonaut for March 10, 1906, the editorials, always pertinent, readable, and timely, are unusually vigorous and entertaining. The comment of a contemporary, accusing the Argonaut of ambiguity and inconsistency in its articles on the Chinese boycott and the exclusion questions, is answered with an emphasis and forthrightness that leaves no doubt as to its meaning. The Argonaut's "creed" is enunciated for the delectation of the pro-imperialists. The short story, "Revenge," by Don Mark Lemon, is a remarkable little tale of the desert. The dramatic personae are a fat man and a lean man, a gray lizard and a red lizard. Incidents of recent religious riots in Paris are described interestingly by the Paris correspondent. She says a Catholic party, similar to the Center

A GOOD NIGHT'S REST

SPEAK FOR IT

"Speak for it!" she cried to doggie. For she knew in her little heart, That German Syrup, home's great treasure, Could health and joy impart.

The greatest tonic on earth is a good night's rest. Restless nights and the terrible exhaustion of a hacking cough are dread dangers of the poor consumptive. Why this fear of the night when a few doses of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup will insure refreshing sleep, entirely free from cough or night sweat? Free expectation in the morning is made certain by taking German Syrup.

We know by the experience of over thirty-five years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders.

Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

party in Germany, may be the outcome of the trouble between the clericals and the anti-clericals. The dramatic criticisms are particularly happy, and the book reviews notice at length the most notable of the recent books.

A Heavy-weight Event—

Joe Schildt, Indian, alleged champion heavy-weight of the state, and Joe Roberson, colored, of this city, have been matched for a ten round boxing contest for a side bet of $200. The fight is to take place Sunday, March 25, at Metropolitan Park, near Canby, this county. Schildt recently knocked out Jim Burns in the first round of a 15-round contest at Canby. Roberson is not without some experience in the ring, and is known in sporting circles throughout the Northwest. He has several friends who feel confident that he will deprive the Indian of the state championship to which he claims title.

Cost Him Twenty Dollars—

Joe Schildt, alleged heavy-weight champion of Oregon, was brought under subsection here Monday evening. Becoming intoxicated, Schildt proceeded to take possession of a Main street saloon from which he was bodily ejected after being roughly handled. He was then taken into custody by Chief of Police Burns, who with the assistance of several spectators, landed the obstreperous pugilist of 254 pounds avoirdupois in the city jail. Schildt is the man who attained some little notoriety a few weeks ago by knocking out in one round of 15-rounds a man named Burns at Canby. In the saloon Schildt was having things pretty much his own way until half a dozen fellows joined forces and succeeded in ejecting the disturber. Tuesday morning in police court, Schildt was fined $20 which was paid by friends of the repentant pugilist.

Wedded Under Bower of Spring Blossoms—

A pretty Spring wedding was that of Charles T. Bates to Miss Annett M. Wait at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Wait of this city, Wednesday evening. Elroy Bates was best man and Miss Myrtle Wait, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The ceremony took place in the north parlor at 7 o'clock. Rev. Ames performed the marriage ceremony. The bride's gown was a golden and blue tweed with a corsage of rare lace. She carried a bride's bouquet. The bridesmaid wore a white gown. The groom and best man wore the conventional black. The house was tastefully decorated with orchids and spring flowers. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served to about twenty guests, most of the whom were relatives of the bride and groom. Both young people are popular in local social circles. They will begin house-keeping in a pretty cottage recently erected in the suburbs of the city by Mr. Bates.—Canby, Tribune, March 9.

A Plucky Schoolm'am—

But for the plucky action of Miss Hattie Fisher, a school teacher, and giving a prompt alarm, the residence of Will Armstrong, three miles south of this city, would have been burned to the ground Tuesday forenoon. While all the folks were away from the house fire broke out on the roof near the chimney. The school house is just across the road from the dwelling, and the flames had not gained much headway when they were discovered by Miss Hattie Fisher, the school teacher. She grabbed a pail of water and ran over to the burning house, followed by the school children yelling fire at the top of their voices. There was a long ladder leaning against the house at a sharp incline, and up this Miss Fisher went nimbly as a veteran fireman, and had nearly reached the blaze to throw the water on effectively when some men, whom the alarm had aroused, came to her assistance and the fire was put out before doing much damage. The ladder that Miss Fisher climbed and the distance she went up was a difficult proposition for even a man to negotiate, let alone a woman.—Aurora Borealis.

Oregon City Boys Honored—

The athletic team of the McMinnville College by unanimous vote elected J. N. Stevens captain of the 1906 track team. Stevens is a good athlete, and has been, for two years a member of the football and track teams on the latter handling the distance runs and his home is at Parkplace.

At a largely attended meeting of the baseball fans, William Callif, of Oregon City, was elected captain for 1906, says a recent report from the Pacific University at Forest Grove. Mr. Callif has played baseball 14 years at Oregon City and at Portland, playing on the High School and club teams at the former place and in the right field for the "Schillers" at Portland. He is a brother of Mr. Callif, who made good in professional circles last year and has been signed to pitch for McCredie on the Portland team this season. Last year Pacific first made a good start in baseball and this year Captain Callif and Manager Sparks plan to put out a winning team. They have had a large squad out to practice for the past week and the diamond is drying so rapidly that it can soon be scraped into condition.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Oregon City People Know How to Save It.

Many Oregon City people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill-health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is the statement of a citizen who has reclaimed good health by the use of this remedy:

"After having tested Doan's Kidney Pills for over three years I can conscientiously say that I know of no remedy for the kidneys that is its equal. Before using Doan's Kidney Pills in 1902, I had a constant soreness in the small of the back and to stoop or straighten caused the pain to catch me hard in the back. There was also a weakness of the action of the kidneys, very noticeable at night, and the secretions contained a sediment. Having tried one remedy after another without results I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills. I found benefit from the start, and in time they completely cured me of the aching and pain in the back, corrected the secretions and brought thorough relief. The above facts I related in substance in a testimonial given at that time, which I am pleased to confirm now."

Plenty more proof like this from Oregon City people. Call at Huntley Bros.' drug store and ask what their customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBarn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FOR U. S. SENATOR TWO OPEN LETTERS

H. M. CAKE, OF PORTLAND, ANNOUNCES HIS PLATFORM.

Declares His Views on Trusts and Corporations, Immigration Tariff, Etc.

The following is the platform on which H. M. Cake, of Portland, candidate for United States Senator, goes before the people asking for the nomination:

"I believe the public service corporations should be subject to government regulations and control. The power of regulation should be vested in the Interstate Commerce Commission, and should be exercised with due regard to the respective rights of the people and the corporation.

"Trusts or combinations of capital organized for the purpose of controlling the utilities and necessities of the country, to the exclusion of legitimate competition, are contrary to public policy; in derogation to the rights of the people, and should come under the ban of the law.

"I believe in preserving the dignity of our American citizenship, and hence I am opposed to the admission of the coolie labor of China, and the undesirable classes of Continental Europe.

"The growing commerce of Oregon demands the deepening of the bar of the Columbia River, the construction of the upper Columbia; the improvement of Coos Bay, Tillamook and Yaquina harbors; the dredging of the Willamette and the government ownership of the locks at Oregon City and Federal appropriations should be made securing these improvements.

"A tariff should be maintained for the protection of American industries and American labor. Where, however, the necessity for protection is removed by the growth and development of a particular industry, the tariff should be modified to meet the changed conditions.

"The reclamation of arid lands is one of the pressing needs of the northwest, and a condition to its greater development, and the efficiency of the reclamation service should be one of the first cares of the Federal Government.

"The Federal Constitution should be amended to provide for the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people, and I am in favor of the establishment of the parcel post."

SWORN STATEMENT BY J. K. MORRIS.

Owing to the fact that there has been some talk among voters of Clackamas County, that if I am elected Sheriff of Clackamas County, I will appoint W. W. H. Samson as my chief Deputy. This I have openly denied, and in order to further refute and deny the above report, I make the following affidavit:

STATE OF OREGON,
County of Clackamas—ss.

I, J. K. Morris, being first duly sworn depose and say, that if I am elected to the office of Sheriff of Clackamas County, Oregon, at the coming State and County election to be held on June 4th, 1906, that I will not appoint W. W. H. Samson, as my deputy in said office during my continuance therein; and I further state and swear that if I am elected to said office, said W. W. H. Samson will not in any manner or way be connected with said office during my term therein.

J. K. MORRIS,
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 7th day of March, 1906.
(SEAL) JNO. W. LODER,
Notary Public for Oregon.

The rates from some of the principal points are: Chicago, $25; Bloomington, Ill., $31.80; St. Louis, $30; Omaha, $25; Kansas City, $25; Council Bluffs, $25; St. Joseph, $25; Sioux City, $25; Denver, $25; corresponding rates will be made from other points and will appear to all points on Oregon lines.

Persons desiring to pay for tickets to bring anyone from the East or middle West to Oregon may deposit the amount required with the local agent of the S. P. The company will do the rest. For further information inquire at any Southern Pacific ticket office.

THE STORY'S THE THING—NOT THE AUTHOR.

John W. Luce & Company will issue about February 20th a novel entitled "The Girl in Waiting" by Archibald Eyre. The publishers were obliged to confess when asked for the name of the author that they did not know—had forgotten it, and no memorandum to indicate the authorship. In explanation of this rather odd situation the publishers maintain that it did not seem strange to them, since in

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN

Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim, we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick

Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to sick women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.

Her first letter:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful periods—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the female organs. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me.—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D. C.

Her second letter:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"You will remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them.—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and E. Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—it saved her life. Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters as the above, and offers ailing women helpful advice.

securing the American rights from a London publisher they were simply in search of a good story and after reading "The Girl in Waiting" they believed they had one. The matter of authorship was a secondary consideration which needed attention only when the time came to give credit on the title page. As a matter of fact, when the printers were ready for the title page the London office was called for the name of the author. It is claimed that the author has told a very unusual story in a very unusual way. The central figure is an English girl of good breeding and enviable social connections, but with a temperament of the accepted typical American girl, who defies English society conventionality and gives it an occasional twist, partly from pure fun and partly from a sense of justice. She is promised as unconventional as Becky Sharp, but a girl of rather better character on the whole.

Deserves Your Patronage.

The growth of a community and the success of its local institutions depends entirely on the loyalty of its people. It is well enough to preach "patronize home industry" but except the service give at a home institution equals that of out-of-town enterprises, this argument carries no weight and is entirely disregarded, as it should be. But with Oregon City people it is different. A few months ago E. L. Johnson established the Cascade Laundry. It is equipped with the latest improved machinery and is daily turning out work that is equal to any and superior to much of the laundry work that is being done in Portland. Being a home institution and furnishing employment for many Oregon City people it is enjoying an immense patronage. The high standard of the work being done commends it to the general public. Laundry left at the O. K. barber shop will be promptly called for and delivered to any part of the city. Telephone 1204. E. L. Johnson, proprietor.
