

Personal Mention

Adam Knight, of Canby, was in the city Wednesday. J. E. Mitts, of Macksburg, was in the city Wednesday. H. Schrader has returned from a trip to Hillyard, Washington. T. M. Allison, of Boring, was in the city Wednesday on business. E. P. Morcom, an attorney of Woodburn, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. John R. Cole, of Molalla, were in the city Wednesday. Dr. Harvey Hickman has returned from an extended visit in Eastern Oregon. Miss Alexander, of Pendleton, was the guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Moody. George C. Armstrong, of Redland, was transacting business at Oregon City Wednesday. Mrs. T. P. Randall and little daughter leave Monday for a visit with eastern Oregon relatives. C. N. Wait, of Canby, Democratic candidate for Representative, was in the city the first of the week. Ira Lawrence and family have returned from near Seattle and expect to make their home at Oregon City. Mrs. E. C. Hamilton on Wednesday went to Hood River to attend her brother who is ill with typhoid fever. Dr. Leininger has returned to Albany after a visit with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Moody, in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Peacock, of Holdhan, England, arrived in the city Thursday for a visit with their uncle, Robert Kelland. Howard M. Brownell, son of State Senator George C. Brownell, of Clackamas county, arrived in Medford last evening, and will probably locate here.—Tribune.

Local Events

A choice assortment of new goods arriving daily at The Fair. 3-23tf Last Saturday evening, Mr. Lake May, of Canemah, was tendered a surprise party by a jolly company of his young friends. Miss May Marks last Friday evening entertained at her home on the West Side the members of the First Congregational church choir. My land plaster is now in. At the Parkplace Cash Store, W. A. Holmes, Prop. County Superintendent of Schools Zinser on Monday made the April apportionment of county school funds. The apportionment amounted to $4 per capita and the amount of funds so distributed was $32,692. All persons indebted to Fairclough Bros. are requested to call at their office at their old stand and settle all accounts before the 14th day of April as they will return to their mines after that date. This notice appears but once. There is plenty of State School money to be had at 6 per cent interest. Loans can be had from one to ten years. Gordon E. Hayes, agent. Beginning Monday, April 9, the Brunswick restaurant will be located in the building across the street from its present location and one door south of Huntley Bros' drug store, while extensive repairs are being made to the present quarters. James Knockard is plaintiff in a divorce suit against Agnes Knockard whom he married in December, 1903. Desertion is charged and the custody of one minor child is conceded the defendant. Judge McBride has granted May N. Mooney a divorce from Patsy J. Mooney. The latest styles and patterns in dress hats. Miss C. Goldsmith. Arthur, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Armstrong, of 407 North Jersey street, died a few minutes before noon on Monday, March 26, of pneumonia. He was 12 years, two months and thirteen days old—and had been ill but a brief time. The family moved here from Oregon City, to which place the remains were sent for burial on Tuesday.—St. Johns Review.

R. L. Holman, leading undertaker. Next to Harris' grocery store, Oregon City, Oregon.

Logus & Goodfellow, management of the skating rink, are generous in their efforts to entertain the public. Last Friday evening they arranged a programme of races and other interesting contests at the rink that was greatly enjoyed by a large audience. On the following night they engaged the Armory and with Cooke's orchestra entertained a large number of young people at a dancing party. On Tuesday, evening, April 10, they will hold a mask carnival at the rink.

A dispatch from Walla Walla in Tuesday's Oregonian said: "The team chosen this afternoon to represent Pearson's Academy in debate for championship of eight schools of the Inland Empire, was Ralph Dimick, of Oregon City; W. Yarnell, of Goldendale, and Ira Camp, of Walla Walla. The finals are to be held with Colfax High School here next month, on the shipping subsidy question." Mr. Dimick, who is mentioned in the dispatch, is a brother of G. B. Dimick, of this city.

Our patterns are the latest designs. Our styles are exclusive. Miss C. Goldsmith.

A typographical error last week made the Enterprise say that Xenophon, the fine imported Percheron stallion, owned by an association of Clackamas county farmers, was imported to this country in 1900. This animal was not imported to the United States until 1904. Xenophon was foaled in 1902 and is consequently in his fourth year. This correction is made to set right any incorrect impression that may have been formed relative to the age of the horse which is a beauty and all that is represented.

Miss Emma S. Waterous, well known in Oregon City and Portland, died at Samaritan Hospital, at Salem, at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, aged 69 years. She was born at Grand Blanc, Genesee County, Michigan, December 26, 1836, and was the daughter of John H. and Polly Waterous. Miss Waterous came to Oregon in 1865 and lived several years at Oregon City, but for the past 15 years has been a resident of Salem. The deceased was a sister to Mrs. E. D. Kelly, of this city. Funeral services were held yesterday at the crematory, near Portland, Rev. P. K. Hammond, of this city, officiating.

The latest styles and patterns in dress hats. Miss C. Goldsmith.

Last Friday evening at the Y. M. C. A. building, Chas. "Strangler" Smith, a physical director of wide experience, gave a physical culture exhibition before a large and interested audience. He gave a number of interesting demonstrations, showing his remarkable strength and what physical culture is capable of accomplishing. If he receives sufficient encouragement from the people of Oregon City it is the purpose of Mr. Smith to lease the Y. M. C. A. building and equip the same as a gymnasium and athletic club. Preceding Mr. Smith's exhibition Friday evening, there was played an interesting game of basketball between two local teams.

"Bernhardt's Barnstorming Tour," by Jerome Hart, in the dramatic number of the Argonaut for March 31, 1906, breaks the strange silence of the press on the forthcoming appearance of the actress in this city. Mr. Hart's article is an appreciative biographical sketch of Mme. Bernhardt; the story of her newest play, "La Sorciere," and the opinions of the Paris dramatic critics are given at length. Letters from Paris, London, and Manila, give the most recent stage gossip; an amusing sketch of theatrical criticism as the manager, the actors, and the audience would write it; the history of the performances in San Francisco's Italian theatres, and several other entertaining features make this beautifully illustrated issue a striking number.

Rev. Anna H. Shaw, the foremost woman orator of the world today, will speak at Shively's opera house in this city next Monday evening April 9th, at half past seven o'clock. The admirers of Miss Shaw are so many that no church in the city was deemed large enough for the audience, hence the engagement of the largest hall in town. On two different years Rev. Anna Shaw has packed the Chautauqua auditorium at Gladstone Park with people who came for miles to hear her, in fact her national fame made her one of the greatest attractions the Chautauqua ever had. No admission will be charged to this lecture, but a collection will be taken to defray expense. Miss Shaw comes as President of the National Woman's Suffrage Association as the star speaker of the great campaign now on in Oregon. On Monday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, a complimentary reception to Miss Shaw and her companions, Miss Kate Gordon of New Orleans, and Miss Mary Anthony will be given at the home of Mrs. C. H. Caulfield where hundreds of ladies will have an opportunity of meeting the famous orator personally.

STAFFORD.

And still it is fine weather in Stafford, and Frog Pond; perhaps a few little domestic breezes which soon pass over. However the farmers are busy finishing up and preparing the ground for potatoes. This is the year to plant lots of spuds. Mr. Bethie sleeps under the influence of an opiate most of the time. The physician says that is the only thing which can be done for him now to ease his suffering. There was a telephone meeting at the store Tuesday evening, and quite a crowd was in attendance. The Farmers' line have signers to put in telephone and the present line offer to sell out for $1200. There are always plenty to grasp at anything new, and the line is out of whack sometimes, but all lines are so at times, more or less, and as it is understood by many, the Farmers' line (so-called) does not connect with long distance, but the slower and more conservative minds prefer to wait and see what they will see. Will Fredricker was kicked by a horse last week. Mr. Keller has got into his new house which was built to replace the one burned, and Henry Schatz is engaged to paint it. Zack Elligsen's family have been sick with sore throat, fever and general weakness, and the two youngest had gatherings in the head. Mrs. Geo. Elligsen's father is with them, sick with a cancer in the stomach. Mr. Saum has shut down the mill for the season and sold the logging team. Mr. Saum's health is very poor. Stafford has been delivering potatoes at Oswego for 40 and 45c per sack.

FOR CONGRESSMAN

HON. WALTER L. TOOZE.

Walter L. Tooze, candidate for congress from the First district, is a man of sterling qualities. He has been in the hop growing business for years. He was once a merchant, a dealer in produce and comes from the ranks of man, not the tool or convenience of the political boss. He makes a square and open fight upon a platform built by HIMSELF. Mr. Tooze did not wait to see which way the wind was blowing but wrote his platform and scattered it broadcast throughout the district, never fearing criticism nor the adverse opinions of others. His platform was not made to fit the occasion, but represents a work upon which he has spent over 20 years of his life. It simply embodies those things which he has always believed and labored for. The Tooze platform stands unique and alone. It came out first and has been most favorably received. It touches upon all the important issues before the people today. It distinctly and openly advocates such relief as this First district is well entitled to and deserves.

Mr. Tooze is a man whose silver-toned voice has been heard in every hamlet, town and city throughout the state of Oregon for the past 20 years, advocating the cardinal principles of the great Republican party. He is "the friend of the laborer and producer" and if elected to congress the laboring man and the producer will have a friend who will be fearless, active and aggressive in their interests.

FARM FOR SALE.

My farm, situated on the Molalla Prairie one mile south of Molalla, Or., containing 162 acres, nearly 100 acres under cultivation; 30 acres more nearly ready for the plow; balance pasture. All fenced; plenty of timber for farm use; living water in pasture; good building, orchard, etc. Must be seen to be appreciated. Terms to suit purchaser. Price $43 per acre. DR. J. J. LEAVITT.

CANBY.

Prof. Drew of Willamette University, Salem, addressed a large audience in the interest of the University, at Canby and Central Point on Sunday, March 25. Mr. John Stalnacker has been laid up with lagrippe for a few days. He is now convalescing. It is rumored that Canby is to have a banking institution in the near future, also another general merchandise store.

W. C. Hawley addressed a large audience in the City Hall, Canby, in the interest of his candidacy on Thursday evening of last week. The speaker was introduced by Mr. Vinyard. Mr. Hawley has many friends in this vicinity who will vote for him at the primaries on April 20th. Geo. H. Brown the potato merchant of New Era, was in town shaking hands with Prof. Hawley on Thursday last. Mr. Ed. Miller of Needy was in the city, meeting old friends one day last week. Mr. Carlson was a Woodburn visitor on Saturday last. He leaves this week for Cowlitz County, Wash. Rev. F. S. Clemon and Mr. A. J. Burdette made a trip to Oregon City on Monday.

The infant child of Rev. and Mrs. O. E. Ames, died on Monday night. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. and Mrs. Ames have the sympathy of the community. W. H. Everest representing the International Conservatory of Music, was in our city this week. Rev. Mr. Templeton, formerly of the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, and of the Bowery Mission, New York, preached in Canby this week.

"I have been somewhat costive, but Doan's Regulators gave just the results desired. They act mildly and regulate the bowels perfectly."—George B. Krause, 306 Walnut Ave., Altoona, Pa.

SCIATICA CURED AFTER TWENTY YEARS OF TORTURE.

For more than twenty years, Mr. J. B. Massey, of 3222 Clinton St., Minneapolis, Minn., was tortured by sciatica. The pain and suffering which he endured during this time is beyond comprehension. Nothing gave him any permanent relief until he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One application of that liniment relieved the pain and made sleep and rest a possible cure. If troubled with sciatica or rheumatism why not try a 25 cent bottle of Pain Balm and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain. For sale by Howell & Jones.

BROWNELL A POOR MAN!

Senator Brownell persists in representing that he is a poor man and at times would even lead his auditors to believe that it is only by almost super-human efforts that he contrives, in his destitute condition, to keep the wolf from the door. An investigation of the records at the court house, however, reveals that the Senator has managed to enjoy more than good health as a product of his "hard work" in the interests of "the common people" in his capacity as legislator from this county. We would respectfully refer the dubious Clackamas County voter to Book 56, page 71 of the records of mortgages on file in the office of the Recorder of conveyances for Clackamas county.

MONEY TO LOAN AT 6 AND 7 per cent. Farm security. U'Ren & Schubel.

In his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Representative from this county, County Recorder Henry E. Stevens, of Milwaukie, from the start has entirely disregarded the attention that is invariably attached to the numeral "13." Mr. Stevens was the 13th Republican candidate to enter the race, filing his preliminary petition on the 13th of the month. He was the 13th candidate to file his complete nominating petitions and in making his final filing, deposited with the County Clerk but 13 of the 25 petitions he had circulated. Mr. Stevens' number on the official ballot, however, will not be 13, as an Oregon City item in the Oregonian.

Oregon City anglers in almost countless numbers were busy Sunday, the opening day of the trout season, but few of them were successful in making satisfactory catches, the weather conditions being unfavorable. R. D. Wilson, of this city, who always manages to get trout if there are any to be had, sustained his reputation this year by returning, after a few hours' fishing in the Clackamas near this city, with five of the finest specimens of the trout family one ever sees. One of the speckled beauties measured 18 1/2 inches, another 16 1/2 inches, while the other three measured an even twelve inches each.

Deserves Your Patronage.

The growth of a community and the success of its local institutions depends entirely on the loyalty of its people. It is well enough to preach "patronize home industry" but except the service gives at a home institution equals that of out-of-town enterprises, this argument carries no weight and is entirely disregarded, as it should be. But with Oregon City people it is different. A few months ago E. L. Johnson established the Cascade Laundry. It is equipped with the latest improved machinery and is daily turning out work that is equal to any and superior to much of the laundry work that is being done in Portland. Being a home institution and furnishing employment for many Oregon City people it is enjoying an immense patronage. The high standard of the work being done commends it to the general public. Laundry left at the O. K. barber shop will be promptly called for and delivered to any part of the city. Telephone 1204. E. L. Johnson, proprietor.

In the future the Enterprise will give the following subscription clubbing rates: Weekly Oregonian and Enterprise, both one year, $2.25; Semi Weekly Journal and Enterprise, both one year, $2.00. Either call at Enterprise office or mail your order.

STATEMENT.

We are asked so many times, "What are you going to do about this spraying law?" We give the following: We advocate education to all as to the best methods of producing the best fruits. Instruction as to why, how and when to spray. We wish for friendly co-operation of all along this line. Later, if some few persist in being obstinate, and antagonistic to their own good and the welfare of the community, we shall favor having the law enforced. C. W. SWALLOW, Prest. A. J. LEWIS, R. H. TABER, THOS. F. RYAN, Board of Control. J. C. ZINSER, Secretary Clackamas County Horticultural Society.

The Clackamas County Horticultural Society will hold a meeting in the County Courtroom in Oregon City, at 10 o'clock, April 28th, where among other topics the following will be discussed: "Cherries," Pres. C. W. Swallow; "Walnuts," J. C. Zinser. Every person interested is cordially invited to attend. The charter list will be kept open until the close of this meeting.

George A. Brown, of Maple Lane, a carpenter of experience, offers his services to farmers and any one contemplating building. 3-16tf P. O.: Oregon City, R. F. D. No. 3.

Tomorrow, Saturday evening, at the Armory in this city the Milwaukie Band will give another of its delightful dancing parties. The members of this musical organization are capital entertainers, a fact they have demonstrated on numerous occasions, and the people of Oregon City are generous in their patronage of these parties. The attendance tomorrow night promises to be large.

Hon. Walter L. Tooze, candidate for the Republican nomination for Congressman from this district, will hold two meetings in this county next week when he will address the voters as follows: Estacada, at 1:30 p. m., on Thursday, April 12, and at Sandy, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening of the same day. Good music will be furnished and the other candidates on the county and legislative tickets are especially invited to attend.
