large.

ELECT CLEAN MEN.

Madras (Crook Co.) Pioneer. A Portland candidate is deluging ination for the United States Senate. such men at Washington. Immediately upon announcing his resignation as president of the State primaries should receive favorable Board of Horticulture and of the consideration. Oregon Development League in order that these organizations might be kept free from politics. His the- (Oregonian Coast Special.) ory of the direct primary law is that piring to be the Republican party's bold contrast is the untarnished pothe long years of unselfish and highminded effort for the best interests of party and state, of Hon. E. L. Jayne, and said: Smith. In this crisis in our country's development, when the people's best interests are at stake in the fight against corrupt capital, the people them in the United States Senate.

to the old machine methods.

A BUSINESS PROPOSITION.

Madras (Crook Co.) Pioneer. Hon. E. L. Smith, of Hood River. ly strong candidate for the United I have consented to stand. States Senatorship, for which office | "I fully appreciate the tremenidentified with the state's develop- Oregon, but to the interests of our the office is seeking. ment during the past 30 years, and great Nation, for the Senate of the none knows better than he her pres- United States in touch with the forces now directed charge, in the highest degree, the hamlet in the state demanded that over the meeting until after he taxpayer. A more substantial conceptance, if you are seen to pass over the meeting until after he taxpayer. A more substantial conceptance, the plate your neighbors will be sure Senate would not only be a just re- To you, my neighbors in our beauward to a man who has given a good tiful little valley, I may express my many of the best efforts of his life besitation in assuming so stupento the advancement of his state's in- dous a task. terests, but it would place him in a age of his state. There would be will be some assurance to you and to the state is best equipped to rep- of his long residence in Oregon to day. This may encourage Senator Burness sense in the election of E. L. omit nothing that my capabilities them with the great need of electing that tends to make it great, indusmen of high character to public of- trially, socially and commercially, fice. Good government has always morally and materially, that will be demanded this, but the recent exposures are showing the people that by Grand and capital, the country bearing and capital, the country bear and capital areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the influence at large and president of the areasonably good chance of dying from the areasonably good chance of dying from the areasonably carelessness and negligence in choosing their representatives, coupled the constitutes and the city, agriculture and combave been widely unsatisfactory. State Board of Horticulture of the ball and the city, agriculture and combave been widely unsatisfactory. State of Oregon, has voluntarily senator Clark's feat of building a state of the interest of the constitutes. posures are showing the people that with individual selfishness and dis- the interests of the people, and all the For the first time in American his- tendered his resignation as such railroad without bonds marks the expeople see how largely our national judgment, the objects of the trust tive expression of the popular will ended; be it government is controlled by the big trusts and combines, they are beginning to look about for honest as well willing to undertake the office with the investing public.—St. Louis Republic.—St. Louis Republic Republic Republic Republic Republic Republic Republic as competent men to represent them You ought not to accept a baser new duty. The individual elector whose advice and counsel have aleven the suspicion of corruption.

E. L. SMITH FOR SENATOR. Bend (Crook Co.) Bulletin.

As the Bulletin has previously stated, E. L. Smith, of Hood River. is such a man. His recent announcement to seek election to the United States Senate withdraws him from the gubernatorial race. While the Bulletin believes that Mr. Smith have not, as you know, waited for only their own interests and the it has officially in the past. could have served the public better at election times to promulgate my welfare of their own state. This ties of character and statesmanship that will make him a valuable memthat will make him a valuable memthat will make him a valuable memthat will state accredit me to the Senate enable them to choose a senator port as commissioner for the me the door of hope by introducing me to that mixture of woman and angel.

mercial interests" over the people at for Abraham Lincoln. For years he capacity, I have been trying to do of the people. Her choice ought When the meeting adjourned, has been prominently connected with for the interests of us all. public work in Oregon and nothing He has labored diligently for the wel- purposes of our great Republican ought to have a wide and intimate sioner A. H. Carson and many fare of the state. In no way can he President. He is but putting in knowledge of the people, of their others assured their retiring presthe mails with literature boosting to numbered with that prevalent class practice, electrony, the transfer of the middle of their needs. He should be able from would not forget the work he his candidacy for the United States of present-day "politicians" whose tal principles of the party to which of their needs. He should be able from would not forget the work he had done for the fruitgrowers and had done for the fruitgrowers and Senate, and there is doubtless not a every effort ends in subservience to I have devoted my whole life. There to reflect in his own person and had done for the fruitgrowers and voter in the state who has not received one or more of these communications. His "barrel" is said to be is not afraid of responsibility and about the fact that our party is de-States senate is supposed to be and wide open, and most of the papers would not shirk his duty. His long voted to the doctrine of justice to ought to be the noblest deliberawide open, and most of the papers and successful career in public af- all and special privileges to none. tive body on earth, Oregon ought Shaniko (Wasco Co.) Republican. fairs, his acquaintance with present- Theodore Roosevelt is committed to to give to that body the very best much per inch. In striking contrast day men and events, and his upright that principle, and as I support him that she has. is the dignified attitude of Hon. E. character unite in making him a man in that course in my humble capacis the dignified attitude of Hon. E. character units in making nim a main ity as a citizen, I should be proud didn't depreted in the second of whose class we have too few in ity as a citizen, I should be proud didn't depreted in the second of whose second of whose second of whose second of whose second of the L. Smith, of Hood River, who is also public life. We need many more of credentials from Oregon to speak Hon. E. L. Smith, of Hood River, and Bourne out for the senate hon-

Mr. Smith's candidacy for the sup-great policies. candidacy, Mr. Smith forwarded his port of the people at the coming

From the Oregonian.

Hood River, Or., March 7.-A after a free and fair discussion. it is for the purpose of securing a committee of representative business want you to bear in mind that it is free and uninfluenced expression of men and local political leaders last not my claim or my interests or my and clearness, his charm and digthe people's choice. The use of boo- night tendered a reception to Hon. ambition, or those of any other nity of manner, are such as bedle to corrupt public opinion and in- E. L. Smith, candidate for the nom- candidate that are at stake, but your fluence the primary election is in ination for the United States Sen- own interests and your own welfare. direct opposition to the evident in- ate. The reception was held in the Whatever has been in the past it is tent of the law, and is but a return parlors of Mount Hood Hotel. The now the Senator of the people to affair was in the nature of a love be named, and he should be named But the difference is not in meth- feast, and those present took occa- by the people, and for the people. od only. It goes further than that, sion to congratulate Mr. Smith upon If it is not to be so, this primary ready to go in a body to some man choice for United States Senator. eral days, and although somewhat sure you that I shall always be Their friends claim that Lowell of graft?" Why, an honorable term in the the millionaire plumber rubbed bis The Portland candidate's record weak, his response to the address of happy to retain, as I hope always to Pendleton, or Smith of Hood penitentiary.—New York Evening Mail. hands in ecstasy. "... ay is he so for corrupting and debauching welcome and indorsement was de-deserve, the good friendship of my River, furnish the best avenue of legislators, his open and shame- livered in happy vein. The open- neighbors, and I bid you good escape. Both are able and both man in the United States. He was whispered the captain, "he imagines less attempt to "buy up" the ing address was delivered by M. P. night." legislature during two senatorial Isenberg, who was followed by Hon. campaigns, is too recent history to A. A. Jayne. Both speakers conneed rehearsing. Standing out in gratulated the guest of honor and spoke of his eminent fitness for the litical record, the clean private life, high office of United States Senator.

Mr. Smith was visibly affected by remarks of Messrs. Isenberg and strongest and best man in the race you in fitting terms for this gracious the various factions in the past, reception. I value your loyalty and and his character and record are esteem more particularly because above reproach. He has shown by of Oregon should take the lessons of you are my neighbors and friends, his work in the past that he has the past home to themselves, and and because your welcome, I am the best interest of the state at send clean, honest men to represent sure, is not in the least prompted or heart. He has never bolted a qualified by political or other con- ticket, he has never used subtersiderations than your good will.

get that the occasion of your kind Clean, faithful, straightforward United States Senate. That makes largest vote of any man in the president of the State Board of knightlest souls and the United States whose friends throughout the state it most appropriate for me to say race. urged him to run for the guberna- first to you, my most intimate astorial nomination because they be- sociates, and through you to my lieved that he was pre-eminently the wider constituency, what principles man to lead the Republican forces would be my guide in the great ofto victory, is going to prove an equal- fice to which, with some reluctance,

is not a tribunal

WILL LEAVE NO TASK UNDONE.

those efforts to the greatest advant- preciate the magnitude of the trust ther believe that he of all men in Smith has devoted a greater part when he appeared in his seat the other less "politics" and more good busi- the people of this state that I will resent us in that great body. Smith to the United States Senate or resources can command to per- strating the power of the people it was plainly apparent that the If Commissioner Garfield wasn't get-public men, has set the people to didate of special interests. The honesty, will never procure honest people, of the high and the low, the tory the people of the state have official, and his labors on behalf of treme of simple as opposed to frenzied knives in the house into the pudding. government. Consequently, as the rich and the poor, these are, in my provided by law for an authorita- the state have this day officially reposed in a Senator of the great in the election of a senator to the Resolved, That we, members of state of Oregon. I would not be United States senate. a lower idea of its responsibilities. themselves, imposes on them a ing a presiding officer so valuable, lic.

standard for your standard. present as governor, yet there is no ideas of those interests. They are law was not passed to enable doubt that he possesses those quali- recorded in my actions for many the people to make a gift of a

"In the larger field of National can be found to besmirch his record. politics I am in accord with the find the best man for Oregon. He of Union County, and Commis-

PEOPLE'S FIRST FREE CHOICE. accept their verdict. I think that federal legislation. verdict ought to be expressed without undue solicitation and only

E. L. SMITH FOR SENATOR.

Condon (Gilliam Co.) Times. E. L. Smith, of Hood River, for for senatorial honors. He has "It is difficult for me to thank never been associated with any of fuge or graft in any manner to "But I am not permitted to for- further his political ambitions.

SMITH THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE.

Irrigon (Morrow Co.) Irrigator. There are five candidates in our state for United States senator, he has announced himself. No man dous scope of the office. It has re-ealled office seekers, and one, Hon. four of whom are what might be in the state has been more closely lation, not only to the interests of E. L. Smith, of Hood River, whom

In other words, Mr. Smith is the ent needs. In his capacity as presi- merely for the aggrandizement of was not a candidate until the peo- to the society some time ago, but Marshall Field achieved distinction speaker added: "And, my brethren, I only one of the candidates who dent of the Oregon Development the states there are there repre- ple—the voters—from every counaction was delayed until yester- not by being the richest merchant in would most strongly advise you, who League, Mr. Smith has been closely sented, but is a body having in ty and almost every city, town and day. President Smith presided the world, but by being its greatest are not insolvent, to contribute this toward the exploitation and development of the country "where rolls opened of the country "where rolls of one of the greatthe Oregon" His election to the civilized world.

In amend the meeting until after he had read his report; then he surthe Oregon" His election to the civilized world.

In amend the meeting until after he had read his report; then he surthe oregon "His election to the civilized world."

Young Mr. Rockefeller tells his RiTrupt." used for that high office.

than any other candidate who has form the task to your credit and to and is putting to rout the theory speaker when he neared the end ting information from the packers for "Of course, a Senator from Ore- of advertising and cheap dema-

Catholic Sentinel, Portland.

The election of a United States to do her honor.

teem of the people than he. His representative in the halls of concommanding ability, the power of gress. expressing his ideas with force come the senator from Oregon.

E. L. SMITH.

Corvallis (Benton Co.) Times.

That the republican voters are to the type of the men who are as- his candidacy and to indorse him. | law will have failed of its purpose. | and that they will go to some lead-Mr. Smith had been ill for sev- And now, my freinds, I want to as- er if he can be found, is likely. are pure, and each has the advant- merely the heaviest taxpayer.—Chicago each spout is a bursted water-pipe, to age of being outside the pale of the Tribune. Portland strife.

Smith in particular is a farmer, big enough for the position, and, United States Senator is by far the what is best of all, with a mental habit and environment that has kept him in perfect touch with the great masses of the people throughout his life.

PRESIDENT SMITH RETIRES FROM BOARD OF HOR-TICULTURE.

W. K. Newell Successor.

Portland Oregonian, April 10th. E. L. Smith, who for six years past has been at the head of the olis Star. reception is my candidacy for the and capable, he ought to get the board, tendered his resignation as Horticulture, at the semi-annual one of its most patriotic citizens when meeting held vesterday morning in the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Smith retires from the active head of the organization in order to discount of this job as repate referee for the big me an inustration—a linear to discount of the organization in order to discount of the organization in order to discount of the organization of campaign for nomination for not yet been solved.—St. Louis Globe- that would be carrying coals to New-United States senator. The meet- Democrat. ing was largely attended by those interested in horticulture in Ore- great admirer of the friend of Poti- for a public charity, a note was handpressed at Mr. Smith's retire- Sunday School to "St. Joseph of the would be right for a bankrupt to con> sioner Wilbur K. Newell, of Wash-And why this demand? Be- ington County. Ex-Commissiondebt to Mr. Smith that can be par-made president, became commis-delphia Inquirer. tially repaid by sending him to the sioner for the First District, which horticulture. Mr. Smith's report ton to venture inside the chamber .-And the campaign is demon- was listened to with interest and Augusta Chronicle.

gon must care for the interests of gogue promises can win against read, Commissioner A. H. Carson, or to supply material to magazine writoregon. I think I know what such a man as Mr. Smith, for now Charles A. Park and Secretary The reform wave that is passing those interests are. At least where with the primaries but a few days Lamberson were appointed a comover the country, with its attendant exposures of graft and corruption in some of our heretofore most trusted some of our heretofore most trusted some of our heretofore most trusted some of special interests. The Mr. Smith's services to the State whirlpool.—Louisville Post. thinking seriously and is impressing state, the whole state, and all CHANCE FOR THE PEOPLE. Board of Horticulture and as president follow:

Whereas, The Hon. E. L. Smith, the hazing process, the modern fighting Senator has hitherto been the far- of Hood River, Or., commissioner man in either arm of the service stands the State Board of Horticulture, than one of killing that amiable dog, world are believed to be the rock-cut has all the responsibility. He ways aided us in our endeavor to "I could, perhaps, if I had time, makes his own investigation and build up the fruit industry of the insurance company at a salary large tell you of some things beneficial exercises his own choice. He is state; that while his labors offi- enough for those days. He wrote that to Oregon that I am in favor of, under no dictation but that of his cially are ended, we feel that his be hadn't the ability or the experience But I think I can, without immod- own conscience and the sense of zeal, energy and personality as a to command such a salary. He was esty, refer you to my record regard- his public duty. The people of citizen of this state will continue told that his name was worth It. material interests of our people. I splendid task. That task involves ment of the state in the future as Southern people is not for sale," said

A. H. Carson, Charles A. Park,

George H. Lamberson. ber of the Senate if elected to that you will but afford me a wider field for their own interest. Oregon office. He has been a life-long Republican, having cast his first vote publican, having cast his first vote influence to do what, in my private the United States senate a senator work done by the fruit inspectors. publican, having cast his first vote influence to do what, in my private the United States senate a senator work done by the fruit inspectors. | boy; don't know the f

President Newell, of Washington! The problem to be solved is to County; Commissioner Judd Geer,

E. L. SMITH FOR SENATOR.

Hon. E. L. Smith, of Hood River, bair standing on end. has entered the race for United Without depreciating any can-States senator on the republican of her officially in support of his fills these requirements. No man ors, it has mixed things to a point knows the people of Oregon bet- where you can look upon the sitter. No man is better acquainted uation as a free for all. E. L. "For the first time in our history with their industries. No man Smith is a Wasco County man, the people are to express their knows better what the people want and perhaps is the best known choice for Senator. I shall loyally and ought to have in respect to public man in the state today. He is well qualified, and would un-No man stands higher in the es- doubtedly make Oregon an able I'm the trained nurse. The Child—Let's Marshall Field was not the richest happy?" asked a passenger. "Because,"

Poultney Bigelow forgets that only Standard Oil magnates are privileged judge fell down a flight of stairs, reto handle legal questions flippantly .- cording his passage by a bump on Birmingham Herald.

public. And yet it is doubtful if the and, raising him up, said: "I hepe average Chinaman could pronounce the word.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

It is rumored that Grover Cleveland isn't enjoying the $12,000 salary he is

If France and the United States were to combine against Venezuela it is believed that they could eventually whip the South American nation .- Indianap-

The world lost one of its bravest, "Fighting Joe" Wheeler went out-Chicago Tribune.

Former President Cleveland is weary Wife-I don't exactly understand. Give of his job as rebate referee for the big me an illustration—a familiar one,

Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is a gon. Genuine regret was ex- phar's wife. Why not dedicate the ed up to the clergyman, asking if it Egyptian corn corner?"-New York tribute. Having answered

Young Mr. Rockefeller tells his Bi- rupt!" ble class that a lie is never justifiable. He Walted .- "Supposing you wait that the patent medicine method of his report was visibly touched, prosecution purposes, why then get it with Dorton in his new auto. Did After Mr. Smith's report was at all? Was it to satisfy his curiosity you match the samples?"

Summing up the press dispatches, we might say that if he is not killed in afther tellin' me whin I'm to know which should make it easy for the Senator to dispose of the $40,000,000 stock advantageously. There are more ways Forty years ago Robert E. Lee was offered the presidency of a Northern The largest single stone used in this ing many things that relate to the Oregon have set themselves a to aid the horticultural develop- "What influence I have with the thick. Lee. That ended the negotiations .-New Orleans States.

Couldn't See It.

Poe-There is that exquisite creature.

The Old Stery .- "But, papa, he says he can't live without me." "Give us a new one; I told that same story to your mother!"

The Automobile Fright.-Sidney-Why don't you talk as we zide? Rodney-Well! I can't think with my

No Escape.—Bell Boy (outside of room 55)-Say, the gas is escaping in 55,-No, it ain't; I locked the door. A Vacuum.-- A pupil in a Lynn (Mass.) school was asked by his teacher to give the definition of a vacuum-"I can't just describe it," said he, "but I have it in my head." Wanted a Circus.-The Child-Are you the trained nurse mamma said was coming? The Nurse-Yes, dear; see some of your tricks. Those Foreigners.-Doctor (after careful examination)-Some foreign substance is lodged in your eye. Dennis-Oi knowed ut! Thot's what Oi git f'r wurrukin' wid them Dagoes! She Whistles,-An Irishman asked a Scotchman one day why a railway engine was called "she." Sandy replied: "Perhaps it's on account of the horrible noise it makes when it tries to whistle." What is the corollary of "honest a school of whales was sighted, and "There She Blows!"-On the voyage be repaired at regular rates." What He Hurt .- A well-known e ery step until he reached the bot-

Now they say the Chinese want a re- tom A servant ran to his assistance, your honer is not hurt?" "No," said the judge, sternly, "my honor is not burt, but my head is."

Not wonderful!--He pointed out to a drawing from one of the big insurance newly arrived Paddy the grandeur of companies.-Memphis Commercial-Ap- the Nizgara, with the words, "There, now! Isn't it wonderful?" "Wontherful!" replied Pat; "what's wontherful?" "Why, to see all that water come thundering over those rocks!" can't see anything wontherful in that -what is there to hinder it from coming over?

Coals to Newcastle.-Wife-What is meant, John, by the phrase, 'carrying coals to Newcastle?' Husband-It is a metaphor, my dear, showing the doing of something that is unnecessary. castle.

The Way out of It.-When preaching cause the people—the voters—be- er James H. Reid, of Multnomah Oil investigation the public may look elevator while I match these two sam-When his turn comes in the Standard here in this comfortable seat by the lieve that the state at large owes a County, when Mr. Newell was for some interesting testimony.—Phila- ples of ribbon," said Mrs. Mayfair sweetly to her husband, who had been position where he could continue But I hope the fact that I ap- United States senate, and they fur- had been held by Mr. Newell. Mr. a hearty hand-shaking "vindication" her. When she came back she said a hearty hand-shaking "vindication" her. When she came back she said contritely: "Have I kept you waiting an unpardonably long time, you poor dear?" "Oh, I haven't minded it," he said, cheerfully, "I just jumped on a car and ran out to the league grounds and saw most of the ball game, and then I took a little spin in the park "One of them. It's so provoking. I'll have to come in again to-morrow, for they are #### Hard on Norah. Scene: The Wilsons' dining room.

Norah, the slovenly cook, puts her head in at the door. Norah-Plaze, ma'am, will ye be whether th' puddin's baked or not? Mrs. Wilson-Stick a knife into the middle of it, and if the knife comes out clean the pudding is ready to send to the table.

Mr. Wilson, And, Norah, if it does come out clean stick all the rest of the Woman's Home Companion.

Oldest of All Ruins. The oldest architectural ruins in the of the Nile in Nubla. The largest of these ancient temples contains eleven apartments hewn out of solid stone. work is one which forms a verandalike projection along one side of the main temple. It is fifty-seven feet long, fifty-two feet broad and seventeen-one account says nine-feet

Be Not Rash.

One need not thrust his hand into a raging furnace even though he knows that a precious jewel lies therein. He may be patient until the flames are spent .- From "The Bishop's Niece," by George H. Picard.

Every baldheaded man secretly en-