****** A STRONG TICKET.

Constable-H. W. Trembath.

The Republican voters of Clackamas county have not only nominated a strong ticket but they have back of them a flattering record for efficiency and having at a minimum expense, administered the affairs of the county during the last several years.

In presenting the ticket that has been nominated, for the consideration of the voters of the county, the Republicans have no excuses to make. They do not go before the voters empty-Theirs has been a record is most commendable and on which throughout the commonwealth. the further suffrages of the people are asked at this time. Oregon City Enterprise elected. Mr. Maddock is a safe man to elect to this office. He is acquainted with the details of the work of the Sheriff's office having at one time served the county one term as Sheriff. There is no reason for any dissatisfaction among the Republicans who will be found supporting the ticket from top to bottom notwithstanding statements to the contrary that may be found emanating from Democratic

Fred W. Greenman, who under appointment by the county court, has so competently and faithfully discharged the duties of County Clerk for the last year, will be elected as he should Clackamas county never had a more efficient clerk than Mr. Green man and the records of this depart ment attest the genuineness of this statement.

In view of these facts, then, the excuse for electing other than Republican candidates at the June election is entirely lacking. In directing county affairs the Republicans have demonstrated their ability by giving a satis-factory administration at the least possible cost consistent with efficient The large indebtedness of the county has been practically wiped out without seriously crippling any department of the county government in accomplishing that result.

It is on the strength of this record that the Republicans of Clackamas county ask for the further suffrages of the voters in the support of the icket that has been nominated. The electors of this county have always been content to "let well enough alone" and there is not the remotest excuse at this time for departing from that practice.

READY FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

The Republicans of Clackamas county have prepared for an active campaign in the interest of the candidates that have been nominated. C. Schuebel has been elected chairman of the County Central Committee and he has appointed Livy Stipp, secretary. An executive committee, consisting of five members, has been named by the nominees to direct the campaign. The committee consists of Chairman Schuebel, C. A. Miller, J. paign. H. Reid, Walter A. Dimick and J. C. Bradley

At a meeting of the candidates and the members of this committee Tuesday evening, an itinerary of the county was planned and meetings will be held in all the principal precincts. Voters should make it a point to attend these meetings and hear presented the issues. The Republican candidates have made a record for an efficient and economical administration of affairs-and it is on this record that they are going to submit their candidacy to the electors of the county.

Senator Tillman for example. Through a trick of scheming railroad Senators, this implacable Democratic enemy of a Republican President was placed in charge of the rate bill in the Senate. Will any one say that Senator Tillman is now a supporter of President Roosevelt, or an advocate of Republican policies, or anything other than a vicious and destructable bull in the rate legislation china shop? Tillman in the Roosevelt confidence is more dangerous by far than Foraker out of it. But he is not in the Roosevelt confidence. He never was. He never will be. He displays his ugly temper and his unrelenting personal hostility toward the President at every available oppor-He never pretended that he was for the Hepburn bill because it was a Roosevelt measure or a Republican measure; but he and all other Democrats have uniformly protested that they stood with the President in this great legislative project because, and only because, they were thus car-rying out the definite policy of the Democratic party. As Democrats now, and as partisans always, they have defined their position in caucus and in open Senate as being thrown by circumstances and by the fortune of politics in harmony with the President of the United States in a single plan he has devised and urged to curb and control the immense power and correct the systematic wrongdoing of the great railroads of the country. The President has never been deceived by the Democratic attitude or by the Democratic tactics; nor have the Democrats themselves assumed that the President himself desired to give the Democrats large power or greater representation in the United States Senate or anywhere else.

Senator Gearin was appointed as a Democrat and in his every act in the Senate he has fulfilled entirely the Democratic ideal. He has acted scrupulously in conformity with party precedent and party rule. He could not do otherwise. He would utterly have destroyed his influence as a Senator if he had done otherwise. He would have lost caste with the Democrats and gained nothing from the Republicans and have been regarded at the White House as a political castoff and freak. The unhappy position of Senator Patterson, of Colorado, who The Republicans of Clatsop county express his individual views and act have everything in their own hands if entirely in accordance with his own entirely in accordance with his own broke with his party that he might gress, and that he can defy it with impunity. ## SALOONS IN POLITICS.

The editor of the Mist is very proud lican nomination for Representative Yet The Oregonian thinks that Pres- of the law and the exclusion of the For sheriff, Eli C. Maddock will be en by any Democratic Senator. Take class of voters, and it was due to this division that the saloon element triumphed by the narrow margin of four votes. We do not mean by this that Mr. Connel's votes came entirely from the saloons; but it is an indisputable fact that the saloon men in Rainier and Clatskanie gave him their support, and, as far as they could do so, delivered to him the votes of their hangers on. This was natural, especially at Rainier, where the people who believe in law and order are engaged in open warfare with the saloons.

It is not the first time that the saloons at Rainier have played a prominent part in Republican pilitics. Two years ago they sent their emissaries to the Republican County Convention at Clatskanie and threatened dire results to the party unless it submitted to their wishes. They elected as chairman of that convention the keeper of one of the worst dives in the city of Rainier, and the outrage upon decency lost to the party the support of an influential body of independent voters, and was one of the causes for the defeat of the regular Republican nominees for clerk, county judge, and school superintendent. The editor of this paper loyally supported the ticket and used his best efforts to secure the election of Judge Doan. At his own personal expense he stumped the county. Notwithstanding this fact, those who claim to be Judge Doan's friends at Rainier bitterly opposed the editor's candidacy in the recent contest, simply because he would not make himself a good fellow in their gin mills and throw his money away on the human sewers who stand ready to bleed the fool candidates. We have never advocated prohibition and opposed the present local option law; but this paper has stood and will continue to stand for enforcement of the laws, whether against saloon keepers who violate them or against any other class of criminals, and we would rather have the support of the better class of Republicans, even though it may not procure political success, than to make the complete surrender the saloonkeepers of Rainier and Clatskanie require to procure their friendship.

Between saloon supremacy and die tation and absolute prohibition there has been a middle ground, and on this the majority of the people have been content to stand; but if one of the extremes must be taken it will be found that the saloons in this county, and Oregon, will reap the reward of their ong continued arrogance.-St. Helens

Importance of the Teeth

When a pretty girl parts rosy lips and reveals decayed teeth, inflamed gums and a disagreeable breath, how quickly the charm is dispelled, and how painful and mortifying must it be to her to be he victim of such a condition.

Many adies whose faces are unattractive in re pose, become positively charming when their smiles reveal clean, white teeth, well cared for. Though ladies may be dressed in the richest apparel, with eyes enchanting and features perfect, if they have decayed and broken teeth, diseased gums and foul breath, their friends cannot approach them without a feeling of repugnance.

The Imported German Coach Stallion

Opposite Court House

A beautiful bay, 16 hands high, weighs 1545 pounds, splendid coach action, that was admired so much at the Lewis and Clark Show, where he stood third in a class of Coach stallions that could not be beaten on either continent. Pfiel won first prize and championship at the Oregon State Fair in 1903-4, and is considered by good judges to be the highest class Coach stallion in the state. His colts are uniformly good, and out of trotting bred mares they look like pure bred coachers. Will make the season of 1906 as follows; Monday at St.Paul;

Tuesday forenoon at J. N. McKay's; Tuesday afternoon at Butteville; Wednesday and Thursday, Oregon City, at Heinz' feed stable; Friday and Saturday at Hubbard. Terms $20 to insure with foal.
