DR. WITHYCOMBE, A WINNER.

Oregon Republicans are going to assert themselves this year. They are a united party in this campaign and will be found supporting the state ticket from top to bottom. They have tired of surrendering the office of Governor to the minority party and at the same time make a present of the United States Senatorship to the same party. They have awakened to the situation and will see to it that conditions will not again be established by which it will be possible for a Democrat to be appointed to the United States Senate.

As has been stated, the Republicans are without factions this year. The candidates on the state ticket are the choice of a majority of the Republican voters of the state. These nominees are entitled to and will receive the votes of the Republicans throughout the state. This insures the election of the entire ticket.

The cowardly attacks that are being made through the Democratic press on Dr. James Withycombe, Republican candidate for Governor, are resulting to his material advantage and the discredit of Governor Chamberlain and his campaign managers who inspired the attacks. Dr. Withycombe is a clean honorable and representative citizen against whose public or private life not a single charge has been preferred by the opposition party. The Republican nominee stands upon a platform with regard to all important questions, that finds responsive chord with the common people. Dr. Withycombe is a man of convictions and he will be found enforcing his policies when he assumes the executive office in the state government next January.

AMENDMENTS TO BE VOTED FOR.

There are to be voted on at the June election eleven different measures with the details of which but few of the voters are acquainted. The purpose of some of the measures is evident from the wording of the propositions as they will be printed on the official ballot. Where the intent is not clear, the Enterprise will seek to explain something of the purpose of the proposed changes. The various measures are as follows:

1. Referring the special appropriation bill passed at the last session of the legislature and providing funds for the maintenance of the various state institutions.
- This is the bill Governor Chamberlain returned to the legislature without his signature and it was then that the referendum was invoked by the people. The main objection to this measure was the large appropriations made for the different state normal schools and other state institutions.
2. Proposing an equal suffrage amendment to the state's constitution. This extends to women the right to vote.
3. Amending the Local Option Law. The changes to this measure as contemplated are extensive and virtually mean the enactment of a new law that will be more liberal to the liquor interests in its application.
4. For the purchase by the state

if the Mt. Hood and Barlow toll road at an expense of $24,000.

5. Constitutional amendment providing a method of amending the constitution and applying the referendum to all laws affecting constitutional conventions and amendments. This amendment contemplates giving the people the right to amend the state's constitution by conventions.

6. Constitutional amendment giving cities and towns exclusive power to enact and amend their charters. This measure should receive a unanimous vote. It is only right that the people appropriate to themselves the right to alter their city charters. Of what possible interest can a legislator from Harney county have in the proposed amending of his city charter for Oregon City, yet under the present system, when this legislation is enacted by the state legislature, he has a vote on the subject.

7. Constitutional amendment to allow the state printing, binding and printer's compensation to be regulated by law at any time.

8. Constitutional amendment for initiative and referendum on local, special and municipal laws and parts of laws.

9. Bill for law prohibiting free passes and discrimination by railway companies and other public service corporations.

10. An act requiring sleeping car companies, refrigerator car companies and oil companies to pay an annual license upon their gross earnings.

11. An act requiring express companies, telephone companies and telegraph companies to pay an annual license on their gross earnings.

These last two proposed laws have been presented by initiative by the members of the Grange in this state.

WOULD ELECT CLERK AND ALSO THE SHERIFF.

Besides the State Senator, the Democrats are making a desperate effort to elect their candidates for Sheriff and Clerk. If there were any valid reason why the Democrats should elect these two officers on the county ticket, the situation would be different, but in the absence of the slightest excuse such a result is of course out of the question.

Eli C. Maddock, the Republican candidate for Sheriff, is capable and deserving of the office. He is the same Eli yesterday, today and all the time and his friends throughout the county are legion and they will be found working faithfully for Mr. Maddock until the polls are closed on election day.

Discussing the clerkship, Clackamas county never had a more efficient and faithful officer than it has in the person of County Clerk Greenman who is a candidate to succeed himself in the office he has filled by appointment for one year. Mr. Greenman possesses rare clerical ability, the records in the clerk's department at the court house verifying this statement. Mr. Greenman has proved especially faithful and deserving during the short time he has been in the office. He is entitled to an election. So it is said to the credit of Mr. Greenman that he finds it impossible to make an active canvass of the county in the interest of his candidacy at this time for the reason that the duties of the office require too much of his time. And it is also to be said right here, that Mr. Greenman is conducting this office as cheaply if not at less expense to the taxpayers of Clackamas county than it has ever been managed. Electors, irrespective of party, who appreciate faithful and efficient services in a public official with due regard to economy, will be found voting for Mr. Greenman and they will be justified in doing so.

Clackamas county Republicans have no excuse to offer for their candidates on the county ticket. No excuses or apologies are required. They are all capable, deserving, honorable and representative citizens and what is more they are going to be elected.

THE FARMERS' CANDIDATE.

Dr. James Withycombe, Republican nominee for Governor, is just as clean, capable, honorable and deserving a man as was ever nominated or elected to the office of Governor. He has long been engaged in a line of work that has brought him in close touch with the farmer and producer. Practically every Clackamas county farmer knows Dr. Withycombe. They have seen him and have heard him at some of the various farmers' institutes he has conducted within the county.

The Republican nominee has the interests of the farmer and producer at heart and every Clackamas county farmer will be serving his own best interest in supporting Dr. Withycombe for the office to which he aspires. Let Clackamas county voters do their part in rolling up the usual Republican majority for Dr. Withycombe for Governor and every other candidate on the Republican state ticket.

FREE CITY DELIVERY.

Postmaster T. P. Randall has renewed his attempts to secure for Oregon City a free mail delivery. The receipts of the Oregon City office exceed by nearly $4,000 the amount that is required before this service can be asked. Residents of Oregon City will do their part towards getting this mail service by lending a helping hand in the matter of numbering residences and posting the names of the streets when the Council Committee on Streets and Public Property to which this matter has been referred, formulates a plan for doing this thing.

Let's get up and dust and secure what belongs to us.

THE ENTERPRISE IN ITS INFANCY.

The Enterprise is indebted to Wm. Partlow for a copy of this paper published September 25, 1869, being Volume 3, No. 46. At that time the Enterprise consisted of four pages, and was edited by D. M. McKenney, John Myers being the financial agent. Among the advertisers at that time are noted Bell and Parker, the late John H. Schram, S. Ackerman, John

For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the bowels are in proper condition. Correct any constipation by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All-vegetable, sugar-coated.

COST OF PRIMARY ELECTION.

From figures at hand, County Clerk Greenman has ascertained the cost of the recent primary election to Clackamas county taxpayers. The total cost was $2196.40, or an expense of 69 cents each for the 3180 votes that were cast. This total was made up of the following items:

Judges and clerks, deputies $1,777.28
 Printing, 305.00
 Registration, 114.12

Total, $2,196.40

In computing the cost, Clerk Greenman charged to the account of the primary election but one-half of the expense for registering the voters, since the one registration has to serve both the primary and general elections.

DISGUSTED DEMOCRATS.

P. H. D'Arcy, of Salem, one of the legal lights of the state, and a died-in-the-wool democrat, flew the track when candidate Withycombe was attacked because of being of foreign birth, and came out in denunciation of such despicable conduct. Then came a long labored article in the Portland Journal abusing D'Arcy for his "flap" and of the same date came a similar letter from Napoleon Davis condemning the same thing. He, too, believes the abuse heaped on Withycombe to be unjust and "kicks over the traces." Thus that which was thought to be a sure means of encompassing the defeat of the wily doctor from Corvallis has proven a "boomerang" and seems to be doing the man it was intended to help more harm than good.—The Spokesman, (Roseburg).

DEMOCRATS AS MUD-SLINGERS.

Those voters who hoped to see the contest for Governor conducted in a decent and dignified manner have been doomed to disappointment. It will be noticed, however, that all the mud-slinging has come from the Democratic press. Some of these attacks are nothing short of contemptible. For this very good reason, aside from the fact that Dr. Withycombe is a clean, able man, and capable of filling the office to which he aspires, every Republican in Oregon should cast his vote for the Republican candidate. The spirit manifested toward Dr. Withycombe by the Democratic newspapers should be rebuked. If Governor Chamberlain can win out by fair and decent methods, well and good. But if his managers think they can pull him through by continuing their present style of warfare, let them continue it and see. The voters of Oregon are like those of every other state in the Union in that they love justice and fair play.—Dallas Observer.

THE KIND OF SENATOR MR. BOURNE WOULD MAKE.

It is up to the Republicans of Oregon to seriously consider what kind of senator Jonathan Bourne, of Portland, would make.

HIS LOYALTY TO THE STATE OF HIS ADOPTION, TO ITS BUSINESS INTERESTS AND MATERIAL INDUSTRIES IS ESTABLISHED.

His devotion to principle and unswerving advocacy of what he believes is right has been demonstrated many times.

What other man in Oregon would have taken up the cause of the direct primary law and staked his political future on that enactment of the people?

Mr. Bourne did it, and the people, regardless of party, OWE IT TO HIM THAT THE LAW WAS NOT SET ASIDE, NULLIFIED AND TRAMPED UNDER FOOT IN ITS FIRST TRIAL.

For be it remembered that the machine politicians of both parties curse the direct primary law, and are praying to be delivered therefrom.

With herculean vigor, with a valor born of intense loyalty to principles that underlie popular government, and adamant firmness, Bourne has battled for the letter and spirit of the law.

Casting aside personality, if the first man goes to the United States Senate from Oregon BY THE DIRECT VOICE AND DELIBERATE VOTE OF THE PEOPLE, IT WILL BE DUE TO THE HEROIC FIGHT FOR PRINCIPLES MADE BY MR. BOURNE IN THIS CAMPAIGN.

If the people of Oregon are able to strike the first blow at the trust-ridden American house of lords, it will be because Jonathan Bourne has enabled them to do so by meeting the issue unequivocally.

Does any one doubt that Mr. Bourne would not be as aggressive for the right, AS LOYAL TO THE FUNDAMENTAL REFORMS, AS DEVOTED TO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT IN THE U. S. SENATE AS HE HAS BEEN AS A PRIVATE CITIZEN?

If Oregon hopes to hold her own in the development of western commonwealths, it is high time the people were represented in Washington by a man of such peerless dynamic force and keen mentality and ability to do things as Jonathan Bourne.

The Journal believes in standing by the law. If any of the other aspirants had received the direct nomination for the U. S. Senate, IT WOULD MAKE THE SAME DEMAND THAT HE RECEIVE THE SUPPORT OF ALL REPUBLICANS.

If there be any Republicans who imagine they are helping their party in the future by defeating Mr. Bourne, let them consider that it will not be the candidates who will suffer. Principles dear to the heart of the masses will be trampled under foot, and the foundations laid for the defeat of the party in the future.—Salem Journal.

THE CHANDLER INCIDENT.

What the enemies of the Administration have been trying to magnify into a nasty row, has about simmered down to the proportions of a teapot tempest. When the President last week launched his denunciations of the former Senator Chandler, he did what perhaps was an unwise but at the same time a very characteristic thing. Mr. Roosevelt is not much given to measuring words, and he confesses himself that at times it is hard for him to differentiate between Mr. Roosevelt and President Roosevelt. However, the row between the President and the various factions of the Senate appears about over. Attorney General Moody was the man, if anyone, to feel aggrieved with the President, and after his interview with the President at the White House on Monday, he expressed himself as thoroughly satisfied with the status of affairs. He would not say much about his interview, but he did say that he was perfectly in accord with the President and that they understood each other fully.

The Democratic end of the Senate feels aggrieved. There is no doubt about this. But while they may not have gotten exactly what they hoped for in the way of a court review provision in the rate bill, they can but realize that they got all they could hope for and much more than they hoped for six months back and the glory, whatever there is of it, will go to the President anyhow. The President has achieved a victory in securing the passage of any rate legislation and as he has come out in favor of the Allison Amendment, conferring the broadest sort of a reviewing power on the courts, it is fair to suppose that this provision will be satisfactory and accomplish the end intended. The power of the President as a party leader has also been demonstrated. He has driven his coach over a bad place in the road and he is not spilled any of the passengers either. It is a greater victory than history will accord President Cleveland, for it has been accomplished without disrupting the party.

Whether Mr. Chandler will issue another statement, is of course impossible to say. But the assurance has been given from the White House that nothing further will be said from that end and the rate bill is apt to pass into history with the broad court review amendment attached and without the President being compelled to share the victory with any members of the opposition.

A Michigan court has decided that a woman is entitled to only half of her husband's income. Evidently that judge was trying to engineer an immigration boom for Michigan.

If Jimmy Garfield's second installment of the corporation report is not to be an anti-climax, he must have some strong facts and stronger language in reserve.

England's menace to Turkey has had the usual result of getting everything she wanted out of the Sultan except the money.

A southern paper declares that Garrett Pinchot is developing into fine presidential timber. As he is the chief of the Forest service, this would seem only a natural development.

If this anti-corporation contribution agitation keeps up, 1908 will prove a mighty lean year for the floating vote.

It is stated that the reappointment of Tom Taggart as the chairman of the Democratic National Committee is assured. So is the result of the election.

The Captain of a fishing schooner off Long Branch reports having seen a whale. Twenty-three for him. This is the time when sea-serpents are in season off summer resorts.

A Washington paper has an editorial headed, "What a Great Senator Said." And it is an even bet that 95 members of that august body religiously read the piece through to see which of their remarks the paper was quoting.

The opposition papers are now busily explaining how the President surrendered abjectly on the rate question, and the Administration organs how he didn't.

Burglars have blown open Joe Letter's safe and got a large amount of coin. On all previous occasions Joseph seems to have attended to the blowing himself without the assistance of either safe or burglars.

Importance of the Teeth

When a pretty girl parts rosy lips and reveals decayed teeth, inflamed gums and a disagreeable breath, how quickly the charm is dispelled, and how painful and mortifying must it be to her to be a victim of such a condition.

Many adies whose faces are unattractive in repose, become positively charming when their smiles reveal clean, white teeth, well cared for. Though ladies may be dressed in the richest apparel, with eyes enchanting and features perfect, if they have decayed and broken teeth, diseased gums and foul breath, their friends cannot approach them without a feeling of repugnance.

In twenty-four hours we breath twenty-five thousand times. What must be the effect on the delicate structure of the lungs when for days, months and years the air we breathe is drawn through a depository of filth and poisoned by being mixed with effluvia rising from decayed and ulcerated teeth?

Why endanger your health and life when a few hours' work will make your mouth clean and beautiful?

We do painless work and guarantee it. An expert Eastern graduate dentist with us all the time. Seventeen years' practice in Oregon City. Both Phones.

The Imported German Coach Stallion PFIEL 1671

A beautiful bay, 16 hands high, weighs 1545 pounds, splendid coach action, that was admired so much at the Lewis and Clark Show, where he stood third in a class of Coach stallions that could not be beaten on either continent. Pfiel won first prize and championship at the Oregon State Fair in 1903-4, and is considered by good judges to be the highest class Coach stallion in the state. His colts are uniformly good, and out of trotting bred mares they look like pure bred coachers. Will make the season of 1906 as follows: Monday at St. Paul, Tuesday forenoon at J. N. McKay's; Tuesday afternoon at Butteville; Wednesday and Thursday, Oregon City, at Heinz' feed stable; Friday and Saturday at Hubbard. Terms $20 to insure with foal.
