Oregon City real estate dealers report great activity in the realty market. There are innumerable inquiries for land daily, and a great many prospective settlers are inspecting the acreage with the intention of investing in Clackamas County realty. While there is not any material increase in the sales of land as yet, the number of inquirers, who as a rule are men of some means, is taken to indicate substantial business along real estate lines later on in the year when these intending settlers make their selections.

At a meeting at Cataract Hose Company's hall Tuesday night, attended by a dozen of the prominent musicians of the city, the Oregon City Musical Association was formed by the election of the following officers: President, Mr. McBain; vice-president, Max Dolaek; secretary, Mr. Johnson; treasurer, Ed. Roberts. While this meeting was merely preliminary to what is contemplated by the organization, there was manifested an interest that insures the success of the undertaking, which involves the interesting of all musically inclined people of the city in forming an orchestra, glee, guitar and mandolin clubs, and perhaps a band. A good start has been made, and Oregon City is in need and should have just what the organization proposes to supply. Another meeting will be held in the same hall next Tuesday evening and all persons interested in music are invited to be present.

TRIALS WILL BE RESUMED.

Oregon Will Again Become the Center of Prosecution.

Oregon will again become the center of land-fraud attraction next month. As soon as Special Prosecutor Heney gets through with the letter-book trial of Binger Hermann in Washington, it is expected he will come to Portland and resume the trial of important cases pending here. It is not expected that the Hermann case in Washington will take much time. Now that the dilatory tactics of the Congressional defendant have been put to a corner, and the case is scheduled to come to trial before the 10th of next month, it is expected to finish it in little time. The Government's evidence in the letter-book case is believed to be complete in form and little time will be taken in placing it before the jury. The case is unlike the long conspiracy cases heretofore tried.

District Attorney Bristol has said that it is the policy of the Government to complete the land fraud cases between now and Fall and clear the docket. This means that the Federal Courthouse will be the scene of great activity soon.

Many important cases are pending trial. Among the notables in official rank to stand the shafts of Prosecutors Heney and Bristol are Binger Hermann on the Oregon conspiracy indictments; former United States Attorney John H. Hall; State Senators F. P. Mayes, George C. Brownell and Robert A. Booth. Besides these there are many men of prominence in this state and in the East, mostly indicted by the Grand Jury recently adjourned.

Terror will again strike the hearts of the timber grabbers when the Federal Grand Jury is called into action next month.—Saturday's Telegram.

MUSIC WILL BE FEATURE.
Excellent Attractions Arranged for Chautauqua.

The feature of this year's Assembly of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association will be the exceptional musical program that is now assured. More-elaborate musical entertainments were never before offered the people of the Northwest than the three grand musical events that were finally outlined Monday. These include two oratorios and one grand concert. In addition, eight of the leading soloists in the state have been engaged and these will be heard in connection with the daily programmes. Besides Mrs. Imogen Harding-Brodie, of this city, the Chautauqua soloist, these singers are: Miss Ethel M. Shea, Mrs. Mary Dearborn Schwab, Miss Ethel Lytle, Mrs. Max M. Shillock, Mrs. Anna Beatrice Sheldon, Miss Evelyn Hurley, Mrs. Fletcher Linn and J. Ross Fargo.

The musical features of the Assembly will excel anything before taken. Parsons' orchestra of 12 pieces has been secured and will give two concerts of an hour each, daily, one in the afternoon and another preceding the evening exercises. The first oratorio, Hayden's masterpiece, "The Creation" will be given Saturday evening, July 14. This programme will be under the direction of W. Gifford Nash, musical director of the Chautauqua, assisted by a chorus of 100 voices. The soloists will be: Soprano, Mrs. Rose Block Bauer; alto, Mrs. Imogen Harding-Brodie; tenor, Arthur Alexander; bass, Dom J. Zan. An orchestra of 21 pieces will assist in the production of this great musical programme.

On Wednesday evening, July 18, there will be given a grand concert, the programme for which follows: Trio—Allegro animato... N. W. Gade Piano, W. Gifford Nash; violin, Waldemar Lind; Cello, Ferdinand Konrad.

Piano Solos—
(a)—Nocturne... Liszt
(b)—Staccato Etude... Rubinstein
Miss Laura Fox.

Violin Solos—
(a)—Romance in G... Beethoven
(b)—Zigeunerweisen... Sarasate
Mr. Waldemar Lind.

Contralto Solo—
A Summer Night... Goring Thomas
(Violin and Cello Obligato)
Mrs. Anna Selkirk Norton.

Cello Solos—
(a)—Le Cygne... Saint Saens
(b)—Spanish Dance... D. Popper
Mr. Ferdinand Konrad.

Quartette—Ruy Blas... Mendelssohn
Mr. Nash, Miss Fox, Mr. Lind, Mr. Konrad.

The concluding musical programme for the Chautauqua will be given Saturday evening, July 21, and will consist of an oratorio evening of Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise" and Rossini's "Stabat Mater." These will be given under the direction of Mr. Gifford Nash, musical director and a trained chorus of 100 voices, and 21 instrumentalists. The soloists will be the same as for the first oratorio: Soprano, Mrs. Rose Block Bauer; alto Mrs. Imogen Harding-Brodie; tenor, Mr. Arthur Alexander; bass, Mr. Dom J. Zan.

Nasal CATARRH
In all its stages.
Ely's Cream Balm
cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.
