dates from the first dollar saved. Perhaps the best reason for saving money is, that practically nothing can be accomplished without it. You must have it to start you in business, to furnish your home, to educate your children, to protect you against sickness or misfortune, and to provide for you a comfortable, independent old age.

CHAUNCEY E. RAMSBY, (Recorder of Conveyances.)

FROM MR. HEDGES.

To the Editor: I desire in this manner and through the columns of your paper to say to all the people of this county that I am pleased beyond the possibility of expression with the endorsement contained in the vote given me in the election just passed. The result is beyond my greatest hope. In all this I feel even more than the honor thus conferred the great responsibility that rests upon me. It shall now be my first endeavor to act in such a way at all times as to perpetuate the confidence that I hold of so many people of this county. I shall not be unmindful of the many different people who have assisted in my election. I shall try to act so that when my term of office shall close, all reasonable persons may say that I have at least been square and honest.

RURAL CARRIERS RESOLVE.

Portland, Or., June 2, 1906. To the National Rural Carriers' Association. We, the Rural Carriers of the State of Oregon now assembled in convention, declare ourselves duly in favor and sympathy with the work carried on by you. Not only improving the Rural Service System but, also, in your firm standing and demand from the proper authorities a more just and equitable salary for the much underpaid Rural carriers. As our work requires from 2 to 4

GEORGE A. STEEL, (State Treasurer-elect.)

horses with hay at $10 per ton, grain at 50c per hundred with the actual expenses of repairs for vehicles, which leaves us barely $1.00 per day for our labor. While we are heartily in favor of the Rural Delivery System, we would ask all fair-minded and impartial citizens of the United States to aid us in bringing our actual wants and the facts of our existing circumstances before the proper authorities, and use all legitimate means to have our prayer answered by our worthy Congress.

While we appreciate what we receive, we by actual experience all over this glorious country, have found that we are entitled and should receive not less than $350 per year for the maintenance of equipments.

Therefore, be it resolved, that we, the Carriers of Oregon petition our national association to prepare a memorial to our congress, and present the same to the Post Master General at the next session for serious consideration.

FRANZ KRAEXBERGER, Chairman.
J. H. SCHRAM, Secretary.
J. H. KLENE, Committee.
