NO SALOON AT WILSONVILLE.

County Court Denies Application for License.

The attention of the Clackamas County Court was taken up Wednesday afternoon in considering the application of Wm. Flinn, of Wilsonville, for a liquor license. Flinn owns and conducts a saloon at Butteville, Marion county, but recently invested in property at Wilsonville and erected therein a building suited to the business in which he proposed to engage. He subsequently prepared a petition addressed to the County Court, asking that a license be issued permitting him to sell liquor at Wilsonville. But a remonstrance was circulated, the number of signers thereto being about the same as the number on the petition asking that the license be granted. It was with this question that the court wrestled all afternoon, hearing witnesses for and against the proposition. Gordon E. Hayes appearing for the petitioner and C. H. Dye for the remonstrators.

After considering the case, the actual number of remonstrators exceeding the number of petitioners, the Court refused to grant the license petitioned for.
