Y., writes: "It cured Seth Burch, of this place, of the ugliest sore on his neck I ever saw." Cures cuts, wounds, burns, and sores. 25 cents at Howell & Jones, drug store.

STAFFORD.

No use to take time to speak of the weather.

You all know it is delightful, but no one begins to think yet that Stafford is a place to emigrate from, and we are waiting patiently till the clouds roll by, which we prophesy will be before these items get into print. The boy's rubbers are worn out and no sale for potatoes to get another pair, therefore we could not send him out as usual to gather news for your columns, but it is whispered there will be a surprise party Friday night, but it would not be fair to say where.

Miss Ida Shickizer is visiting Mrs. Behle this week for a few days and calling on old friends.

Mrs. Weddle did not entirely recover her health by her winter's sojourn in what is styled the Sunny South of California. She stayed in Pasadena, but there was an unusual amount of rain there this year.

store and also practice medicine.

Your correspondent was too ill to send in a seasonable report of election day proceedings, but this precinct may well be proud of the record made, both as to votes cast and orderly behavior. The sisters of Grange No. 298 P. of H., furnished a fine chicken dinner, and a good supper, of cold meat, hot biscuit and coffee, strawberries and cake. Several of our good ladies worked in a quiet manner during the day for equal suffrage and against local option amendment.

A rural telephone line is in process of construction through our little burg and a large majority of property owners will concur.

A. O. Hayward lately sold a cow to J. Bergen, of Lents.

The Misses Agnes and Isabella Mather left town last Friday for a visit to Mrs. Sherriff in Sampson, Lane county. The young ladies expect to be gone three weeks.

Mr. William Fullerton, who lately found employment in Portland, was home for a short stay last Sunday.

How to Break up a Cold.

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days' time. The first symptoms of a cold are a dry loud cough, a profuse watery discharge of the nose, and a thin, white coating on the tongue. When Chamberlain's cough remedy is taken immediately on the first appearance of these symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. For sale by Howell & Jones.

SUNNYSIDE AND ROCK CREEK.

Mrs. Ott was quite sick last week, but was improving when last heard from.

Friday was the last day of school at Rock Creek school house. They had a short programme which was very interesting, also the wand drill by nine little girls, looked very nice, the visitors were Mrs. Rodlun, Mrs. E. Johnson, Mrs. Froze, Mrs. Geo. Deardorf, Mr. Eberhart, Miss Lydia Hunter, Miss Alice Coffey, the Misses Stoll, Mr. and Mrs. Young, Mrs. B. Deardorf, and Mrs. M. Donley.

Emma Stoll was quite sick and could not be present.

There was a rather small attendance at Sunday School at Rock Creek on account of sickness on the tenth of June.

We are glad to say Mr. Stoll's sick girls are better—hope they will soon be well.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Deardorf, also Mrs. B. Deardorf and daughter Eunice were at Mr. Stoll's Sunday.

Miss Lulu Chitwood is cook at Mr. Rodlun's Mill. Some of the phones are now in, near Rock Creek and some people have been called out rather early in the morning.

J. H. Reed's son Jason, has come to Sunnyside from Leno, which will make it very pleasant for Mr. Reed. The picnic at Damascus seemed to be a success and all enjoyed it.

George Deardorf has a cat that is about old enough to vote. He will soon be 18 years old.

Mrs. Donley had company from town Sunday.

Frank Hunter and James Reed took dinner at J. E. Deardorf's Sunday.

Two butcher wagons run through our vicinity now-a-days.

Perry and Kitty Hunter and baby were visiting his parents Sunday.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

Mr. Tarrance eldest daughter is quite sick with pneumonia.

The children of this vicinity are all about well of the measles. Marvel Ely is quite sick at present—measles.

Lillian Giffert is visiting at Wm. Jones at Carus.

Strawberry picking is keeping some of the people quite busy at present. The rain is spoiling them and the price is liable to go up.

Mrs. Matchett went to Portland and Barton last Wednesday on a business trip.

Rev. Ballinger will preach at the church here next Sunday at 4 p. m. some and hear him.

Mr. Russell and Mr. Palmer, new arrivals from the east, have been attending our Sunday School and proved able assistants.

Mrs. Shimer leaves in a few days to assist her husband, who is cooking for a railroad camp.

Miss Nora Carrins will start soon for Iowa and other points on a visit among friends.

The children's Day exercises have been postponed until the 1st Sunday in July, as the intervening time is taken up by other work.

The Sunday School will give a social at the church here next Friday evening. Strawberries and cake will be served. Admission free, but 10 cents will be charged for cake and berries.

On Friday, June 22, the Sunday Schools of Oregon City hold a picnic at Willamette. All going from here must let the Superintendent, Mrs. Matchett know by Monday evening, the 19th. Every one going is expected to take lunch. Look out for the programme in the papers this week.
